Commission Fails To Keep Promise, Chairman Claims

Rogue River, Jan. 20 - To date the state tax commission has failed to keep its promise to cooperate with the protesting taxpayers of Rogue River, according to Douglas Buckle, chairman of the city's equalization board.

In a letter to Buckle recently, A. A. Selander, appraisal engineer, stated a Mr. Logan would bring maps marked with all the appraisals of land and buildings in Rogue River, Gold Hill and Central Point, and leave them with the committees of those towns.

"Mr. Logan failed to come to Rogue River or to notify any of us so we could meet him in Medford," said Buckle. Instead he left a map with the secretary of the equalization board in Gold Hill. But it is a replica of the map we have had tacked up in the Rogue River city hall since 1939, and that 10-year-old map shows only about 60 per cent of the appraised land and buildings in Rogue River. It does not show the millage plan, the power station or the other property along Riverside drive. The sawmill is not on the map, neither are several places north of town and nothing east of Wards creek. As for the map of school district No.
35 which we requested, and which Logan was to have discussed making from the records of the assessor's office, the committee has heard nothing further of the matter.

have yet been recovered. They were said to be in the hands of, or perhaps disposed of by, the two men still being sought.

A spokesman for the Surete

MEDFORD (OREGON) MAIL TRIBUNE - THIRTEEN

A Nichols' Worth of— Comment On This and That

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS
United Press Feature Writer

Washington, Jan. 20 - (U.P.) - When Uncle Sam goes out to count noses, he doesn't want to miss a nose.

Starting April 1, the census taker will start counting. He'll knock - maybe more than once - on every door in the land to find out how many people we have in the U.S., what a
each person does for a living and how many mother hens in the back yard.

It's a thorough-going job. But your uncle has just admitted with a red face that in the last census, he missed maybe half a million noses. Those folks happened to be in hotels when the count was made.

Your uncle corrects his mistakes.

The department of commerce has announced that on April 1, we'll have what will be known as "T-night," or transient night.

The government and the American Hotel association had quite a fuss about it at first.
Should the census people go around hammering on doors at all hours to route out hotel guests for a count of noses?

Should the government tag folks as they went through revolving doors?

The hotel men said "no," although they had no right to because the uncle is the ruler and could do just that if he felt like it.

So the hotels and the census people got together and devised a plan. Hotels that have 50 rooms or more come under the program - if at least 20 per cent of the guests are transients. A person who registers on the night of April 11 will get a census form along with his key. It will be an individual form - not the family job which calls for all of the information back to the third generation.

If the guest can't figure out now the form should be made out there will be a government man in the lobby to help him.

The census bureau figures that the permanent residents already will have been tagged.

Complications
There will be complications, as there are in all big operations.
