Jean Hart's Diary

January 22

Extra! Extra!

My beautiful short coats have arrived.

They seem to have brought Spring with them and just looking at them makes you realize that the valley will be in bloom again in less than two months.

Right now they are perfect as evening wraps—especially for teen-agers as they wear their first floor length formal.

Right now they are warm enough over your winter suit and will give a decided lift to your slushy moral.

Later they are perfect over cottons and prints.

The colors are a Rosary of Spring . . . Jonquil yellow . . . crocus red . . . lilac . . . tulip green . . . daisy white . . . blossom pink.

Come in and peek at Spring.

Chapter Gives Dinner In Jacksonville Hall Honoring Warren Lodge

Jacksonville — Members of Adare chapter OES honored members of the Warren Masonic lodge Thursday evening in the chapter rooms of the Masonic hall in Jacksonville. A covered dish dinner was served and Menno Bachmann, worthy patron, acted as master of ceremonies.

Since the two chapters are at present remodeling rooms of the hall, table decorations were indicative of their project. The table centerpiece was a wooden cart pulled by two dolls, a girl doll depicting Adare and a boy doll, Warren. The cart carried paint, nails and building blocks and bore placards announcing the theme.

Guests honored were Grant Todd, budget committee of the grand chapter; Henry Halvorsen, worshipful master, Warren lodge and Wallace Brill, worshipful master, Medford AF & AM lodge, and associate patron of Adare OES. Many out-of-town guests attended the affair.

Adare members will hold men's night and initiation, February 2 and all OES members are invited.

MEDFORD (OREGON) MAIL TRIBUNE—FIVE

Miss Margo Kerr, Sorbonne Student, Married In Paris

Jacksonville — Mrs. Helen Armprist has announced the marriage of her daughter, Miss Margo Kerr, to Beryl D. Steuart, Stevensville, Mont., which took place in Paris, France, December 30. Mr. Steuart's parents are Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Steuart, Stevensville.

The couple had met at the University of Oregon when both were literature students there. Miss Kerr went to Paris about six months ago and has been employed by the economic co-operation administration in the European headquarters of the Marshall plan, located in the historic Hotel Talleyrand.

Mr. Steuart had been in Paris since September, 1948, working for his doctor's degree in French literature at the Sorbonne university in Paris.

Following a week's trip to Lake Geneva, Switzerland, the couple is at home in Paris, where they expect to live for the next two years.

Upper Rogue Unit Hears Program On Seasonings

Shady Cove—Upper Rogue Extension unit met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Cecil Kee of Shady Cove, with 11 members braving the inclement weather to attend. The meeting opened with singing, and members answered roll call by describing some activity of the past week which was outside their usual routine.

It was voted to work with the VFW auxiliary in holding a food sale for the benefit of the March of Dimes drive, the date and place of the sale to be announced later. It was also decided to cancel the better dress workshop for this unit because of the bad weather and illness among members who had planned to attend.

An interesting lesson on "Herbs and Seasonings" was given by Mrs. Lois Hicks and Mrs. Leona Hughes. The luncheon was prepared by them, demonstrating the uses of various herbs and spices in the preparation of everyday foods.

February meeting of the unit will be held at the home of Mrs. G. A. Hubbell of Trail.

A meeting of St. Mark's Evening guild will be held Monday at 8 p. m. in the parish house. Mrs. Laurence Butler and Mrs. William Woodford are hostesses.

Youth Group To Hold Episcopal Conference In Medford Tonight

About 60 young people of the southern Oregon deanery of the Episcopal church are expected to attend a conference here this evening at St. Mark's church. They will be from the churches at Ashland, Grants Pass, Roseburg and Medford.

A dinner will be served at the church at 5:30 p. m., with a business meeting to be conducted during the dinner. A church service is scheduled for 7:30 p. m. and this will be followed by a social hour and refreshments. Fred Griffith is president of the local youth group.
