Student Pianists Present Recital Monday Evening

Parents and friends attended a recital last evening at the home of Mrs. Kathryn Diepenbrock, 15 Vancouver avenue, at which a number of Mrs. Diepenbrock's advanced students presented an interesting program of piano music.

The program opened with the "Watchman's Song," by Grieg, played by Clea Walker. Also appearing on the program were Cherie Knudsen, Joan Attridge, Mary Wyatt and Shirley Walker. The students presented duets, as well as solos, and compositions were by Clementi, McDowell, Chopin, Godard, Wagner and other composers.

After the recital refreshments were served.

Phoenix Club Plans Meeting In Medford

Phoenix Thursday club will meet January 26 at 7:30 p. m. in the home of Mrs. Inez Hayes, 407 West Jackson street. Mrs. Alton Anderson and Mrs. A. C. Urdel will assist the hosts.

"Who Do's" for 1949 will be revealed and 1950 names drawn and a general business session held. Mrs. George Bourne, president, states that all members are expected to attend.

Baptists To Hold Annual Meeting Wednesday Night

Members of the First Baptist church will meet at the church Wednesday, January 25, for a covered dish dinner and the annual business session. The annual meeting, usually held in the summer, has been changed to January since the church year was recently changed to coincide with the calendar year.

Dinner will be at 6:45 p. m. At the meeting following there will be annual reports and election of officers. About 75 new members of the church will be guests of honor.

Those attending whose names begin with letters from A to M are to bring a meat dish and salad, and those whose names begin with the letters N to Z a pie and a hot vegetable, the committee states.

All friends of the church are also invited to attend.

Students Entertain At Lodge Installation

Students of Bliss Heine presented entertainment for the recent installation of officers of Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters lodges.

A baton duo and drill demonstration was given by Sergeants Deanna Cuthbertson and Patricia Rector, and a baton solo by First Lt. Marlene Golden. An electric solo was given by Lt. Col. Krista Stelle and Mr. Heine presented a musical oddity.

Missionary Society Announces Meeting; Change Choir Practice

Phoenix—Ladies' Missionary society of Phoenix Presbyterian church will meet Wednesday, January 25, in the ladies' parlor, with Mrs. E. J. Clark presiding. Devotions will be led by Mrs. Maud Haskins and the topic, "A Christian Citizen and the Alcohol Problem," will be led by Mrs. J. O. N. Poling.

The tea committee is Mesdames C. M. Medcalf and J. W. Watkins.

The senior choir practice has been changed to 7 p. m. Thursday, instead of Tuesday night, due to conflicting dates. Junior choir practice will be held at 4 p. m. Saturday.

Methodist Circle Holds Meeting At Smith Home

Members of circle eight of the First Methodist church were the guests of Mrs. Vern Smith at her home in the Camp White district, when they gathered for the recent monthly business and study program. Mrs. Floyd Lewis presided during the business session which followed dessert served by the hostess.

Members were reminded that recipes are to be brought to the homecoming meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service in March and members of this group will also be luncheon hostesses at that time.

Plans for the second in a series of three silver teas being sponsored by circle eight members, is slated for February 16, in the church parlors. The showing of painting by Clifford Platz was a high light of the first tea and the committee in charge plans an interesting feature for the February tea.

Mrs. W. G. Wilson talked on the children's farm home at Corvallis and the financial needs of that institution.

Mrs. A. H. Henderson gave the devotional program and Mrs. Frank Fanger told of the missionary work which is carried on at Glide Memorial church in San Francisco. She stated that the church, built in the year 1930, close to the harbor and business district, has been a refuge and hope to many needing Christian fellowship.

Guests present for the afternoon were Mrs. W. T. Frost, Mrs. Ray Harrison, and Mrs. A. R. Schoenberg.

Patriarchs And Auxiliary Hold Annual Installation

Canton Siskiyou of Patriarchs Militant and the auxiliary installed officers for 1950 at a ceremony in the IOOF hall last Friday evening. The installation rites followed a dinner.

Taking office for the auxiliary were Mrs. O. S. Walden, president; Mrs. E. D. Dameron, vice-president; Mrs. Lewis Thompson, clerk; Mrs. A. H. Hansen, treasurer; Mrs. A. H. Gregory, chaplain; Mrs. Carl Pearson, musician; Mrs. Clarence Jordan, right supporter to president; Mrs. L. O. Plan Special Meeting Of Gold Hill Extension; Name Lodge Committees

Gold Hill—Gold Hill Home Extension unit's special meeting to plan a program has been called for Thursday, January 26, at the home of Mrs. Ed Knapp, at 2 p. m. The date is a change from Friday. All members are asked to attend.

Committees appointed by Noble Grand Leola Whitlock at the Rebekah lodge meeting Wednesday evening were: Mrs. Calvin Dusenberry, Mrs. William Ferguson and Mrs. John M. Frost; good of the order, Mrs. Frank Carter; flower, Mrs. George Dorman; publicity, Mrs. Daniel Stewart; kitchen, Mrs. Nina Dusenberry.

Trustees were elected, with Mrs. Melford Hood named for three years, Mrs. Paul C. Thompson for two years and Mrs. Wilmer W. Bailey for one year. Mrs. Bailey was appointed to bring the rituals to date by entering all amendments, Mrs. Thompson was elected degree captain and Mrs. Alice Ball, flag bearer.

The February birthday committee will be Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. Harry A. Newham, Mrs. Viola Moore and Mrs. E. Kenneth Palmer. An attendance contest was started, to run for a period of three months and captains are Mrs. Hood and Mrs. Parker.

The Past Noble Grand's club will meet at the home of Mrs. Palmer Thursday, January 26 at 8 p. m.

Refreshments for the last lodge meeting were served by LeRoy Bornaman, assisted by Mrs. Bornaman.

Charles Gilchrist spent a recent week-end in Medford at the home of William Bateman.

Phoenix Homemakers Elect New Officers

Phoenix—Homemakers of the Phoenix Presbyterian church gathered Friday night in the parlors of the church for the regular monthly dinner and meeting. Dinner was served buffet style and for dessert the committee in charge presented a large birthday cake in honor of those having birthdays in January.

Following dinner, the business meeting was presided over by the president, Russell D. Thompson. It was decided that material would be purchased to make more costumes for use in plays and pageants given in the church. It was also planned to meet Friday night, January 27, for the purpose of repairing church chairs.

Election of officers was held, with Vincent Clafin named president and Mrs. Clafin, secretary. They succeed Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Thompson.

Devotions were led by Miss Elva Caster, with Mrs. Fred Shepard and Mrs. Wendt assisting with the music. Games were under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Shepard.

Plan Friday Meeting For St. Mark's Women

A luncheon and program meeting is planned for St. Mark's Auxiliary Guild Friday, January 27 at the church. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 p. m.

In addition to the short business meeting, the program will consist of several solos by Miss Frances Thrun and a talk by Mrs. H. Gates on the Seamen's Institute in New York city in which the Episcopal church is interested.

Hostesses for the luncheon are Mrs. John Moffat, Mrs. C. I. Drummond and Mrs. A. D. Harvey.

To Leave

Mrs. Emmett Peterson of Avery, Ida., will leave today for her home after having been a guest here of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis L. Hopkins, Old Military road.

"Swell of you to remember our anniversary, Dad"

Your own voice, winging across the miles in a Long Distance call, can mean so much...on important days or just any day when you want to talk with the folks. And with rates so low, service so swift, you can make that call whenever you wish.

And if you remember to use these Long Distance pointers, you'll get still more out of your service:

Keeping a list of the out-of-town numbers you call most often will help speed service. For if you give your operator the number—not just the name and address—your call often will go through in thirty seconds.

If you plan your call in advance, you can say as much in three minutes as in an average letter. If you run over the three-minute minimum, additional time is charged by the minute.

Use Long Distance—so personal, so fast, so inexpensive
