Organize Medford Chapter Future Teachers Of America

The first Future Teachers of America club to be organized in Medford high school was formally installed Thursday evening, January 26 by the Southern Oregon college chapter of FTA in room six of the high school. It is known as the Una B. Inch chapter.

The Southern Oregon college chapter president, Paul Nyberg, officiated, lighting the candles of education and administering the FTA pledge to the 21 members of the Medford high school club. Dr. Jack McAulay, Miss Marian Ayr and Miss Jeanette Smith were present as faculty representatives of Southern Oregon college. Twenty members from the Grants Pass FTA club were present for the installation, and Miss Rosemary Weaver, vice-president of the club told of its activities.

Elliott Becken, assistant superintendent of Medford schools, gave suggestions to the newly organized group.

Membership in FTA is open to all high school students interested in the teaching profession and the new club membership is made up of 12 senior members and nine initiates. Purpose of the club is to help future teachers learn facts about, and opportunities in, teaching in their locality, state and nation; cultivate character qualities essential in being good teachers; study lives of great teachers and develop student leadership.

The organization's formal name is the Una B. Inch Club of Future Teachers of America. The group was required to choose the name of a local or widely known educator for their club and because of Mrs. Inch's outstanding work as a teacher in Jackson county the members selected her name. Mrs. Inch has served as county elementary school supervisor since 1932, is a past president of the Oregon Education association and has been an educator for many years.

Charter members of the club served refreshments during the social hour which followed the installation ceremonies.

Lively Oaks Members

Entertained Wednesday

Lively Oaks club members enjoyed a social evening Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Larry Youmans. A number of the guests played canasta and others sewed. Mrs. Robert Davis won the traveling prize.

Others present were Mrs. Randy Huggdahl, Miss Beverly Mee, Mrs. Delbert Ross, Mrs. Homer Lamb, Mrs. Harvey Rowden, Mrs. John Ramos and Mrs. M. McCary. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Next meeting of the club will be in the form of a Valentine party at the home of Mrs. Lamb, February 8.

County Committee Announces Date Of Extension Festival

May 5 was set as the date of the annual spring festival of Jackson county extension units at the last meeting of the county extension committee, and first plans for this yearly large event were made.

It was announced that the 60th anniversary of establishment of courses in home economics at Oregon State college will be celebrated March 10 and 11 in Corvallis, and about 200 women are to attend.

Reports were made on the better dress workshops, and it was said that all are well underway. The dresses being made in this advanced sewing project are all of light weight woolen material and are being made by members who made cotton dresses last spring.

All units of the county are now interested in raising funds to send a delegate to Denmark the last week in September of this year to represent Oregon at the triennial conference of Associated Country Women of the World.

Attending the January meeting of the committee were Mrs. C. C. Hoover, Mrs. Henry Doom, Mrs. Leland Charley, Mrs. G. W. McBee and Mrs. A. T. Lathrop.

Joint Installation Held By Carriers, Auxiliary At Meeting Wednesday

Joint installation of officers was held by the local branch of National Association of Letter Carriers and auxiliary Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Newland. The ceremonies followed a covered dish dinner served earlier in the evening.

Bob Newland, retired letter carrier, acted as installing officer assisted by Mrs. Earl Carter and Walter Wilson, carrier. Officers installed were Randy Huggdahl, president; Chester Siliman, vice-president; Charles Wiley, secretary. It is Mr. Huggdahl's second term of office as president.

Auxiliary officers installed were Mrs. Floyd Lawson, president; Mrs. Ivan Lantz, vice-president; Mrs. Charles Wiley, secretary and treasurer; Mrs. Randy Huggdahl, mistress-at-arms, and Mrs. Pearl Newland, chaplain.

Mrs. Walter Wilson, retiring president of the auxiliary was presented a past-president's pin and in return Mrs. Wilson presented her retiring officers with gifts of appreciation.

Three applications were received during the meeting for the auxiliary. Next meeting of the auxiliary will be February 1 at the home of Mrs. Floyd Lawson.

Jean Hart's Diary

January 29

How about a Spring Suit? Rushing the season you say? How about rushing the season a little bit? Its dark and cold and windy, and a new Spring suit hanging in your closet will give you the same lift as the first crocus pushing up from the frosty earth.

Antidotes for winter... no less.

First antidote... a grey flannel suit with black, yellow and white plaid revers and trim. A shorty plaid jacket to wear with it or separately.

Second antidote... A cardinal red mulleer gabardine by Fortsmann with double buttons down the front and double charm — being fashioned by Gilbert.

Third antidote... an aqua gabardine with white plique lapels designed by Betty Hill of California with a shorter jacket for shorter women.

Come in for a dose of Spring...
