Lone Pine Unit Hears Program On Seasoning

Lone Pine—Herb seasoning was the project for the January meeting of the Lone Pine Extension unit held recently at the home of Mrs. Leonard Lehman. Mrs. Howard Gault led the discussion on herbs. She classified the three groups as those strong enough for accent, pungent, and mild herbs for blending.

Mrs. E. H. Greb and Mrs. Gault prepared a luncheon for the unit using a variety of herbs. Mrs. R. W. Jordan, secretary, read a letter from Miss Eula Wintermote concerning research being made on better work dresses for the housewife.

Mrs. C. C. Hoover reported on the triennial conference of the ACWW to be held later this year in Denmark. The group voted to donate 10 cents per member to help finance a delegate from Oregon. The unit was awarded the gold seal for achieving standard unit requirements.

Next meeting of the unit will be at the home of Mrs. Ivan Gay, February 18 at 10:15 a. m. Mrs. Jim Cech and Mrs. Tom Merit will give a demonstration on the covering of lampshades. Anyone who did not attend the last meeting but will attend the February meeting is asked to call Mrs. Guy Cox, 2-4198 regarding the menu for the coming meeting.

Wesleyan Guild Plans Meeting on Tuesday

Mrs. James Fleming will be in charge of the program for the Wesleyan Service guild meeting Tuesday, January 31 in the Sunshine parlor of the Methodist church at 7:30 p. m. Theme of the meeting will be "count your blessings."

President Marjorie Hopkins will conduct the meeting and Miss Ruth Dickenson will have charge of the social hour. Each member is asked to take a "white elephant."

Odd Fellows, Rebekahs Jointly Install Officers

Joint installation of officers for the coming term was held Tuesday night at the Odd Fellows hall in Medford for Medford IOOF lodge and Olive Rebekah lodge. The ceremonies were conducted by W. H. Dyer, deputy grand master of the Odd Fellows, and Mrs. Dollie Love, deputy president of Olive Rebekah lodge, with their installing team. Hazen C. Wm took office as noble grand of the IOOF, and Mrs. Harry Bryant as noble grand of Olive Rebekah lodge.

The installing team was composed of G. C. Wimer and Mrs. Ed Pease, grand marshals; F. H. Daugherty and Mrs. W. H. Dyer, wardens; G. L. Howard and Mrs. Minnie Bryant, secretaries; E. D. Scripser and Mrs. A. H. Hansen, treasurers; A. J. Hanby and Mrs. L. O. Howard, chaplains; Eugene Barham and Mrs. G. C. Wimer, inside guards; Claude Cooper and Mrs. Carrie Milnes, outside guards; Mrs. Harold Tolle, grand musician.

Guards were Ed Pease and Mrs. Lewis Thompson; L. O. Howard and Mrs. O. S. Walden; Vernon Kight and Mrs. A. H. Gregory. This team has conducted five double installations this winter, this being for Central Point, Jacksonville, Gold Hill, Ashland and Medford.

Mrs. Bryant's Rebekah officers are Mrs. Carl Pearson, right supporter to noble grand; Mrs. Minnie Bryant, left supporter; Mrs. Shirrell Doty, vice-grand; Mrs. F. A. Daugherty, right supporter to vice-grand; Mrs. Joe Cave, left supporter; Mrs. Bernard Thompson, warden; Mrs. L. S. Bashaw, conductor; Mrs. Harold Tolle, musician; Mrs. W. L. Walden, chaplain; Mrs. J. C. Hansen, inside guard; Mrs. W. H. Dyer, outside guard; Mrs. Lewis Thompson, secretary; Mrs. A. H. Hansen, financial secretary; Mrs. Cliff Heiler, treasurer.

The retiring noble grand is Mrs. Claude Cooper.

Mrs. R. D. McCarty had planned a clever addendum for the new noble grand, with Mesdames Q. B. Wilson, John P. Daniel, George M. Watson, Donald Ivie, Bernard Thompson, Edith Davis, Carrie Milnes and William Ivie taking part. Mrs. Love presented Mrs. Bryant a gift and Mrs. John W. Poage sang "Our Edna" with Mrs. Tolle as accompanist.

Mrs. Love received a gift from her installing team and Mrs. Cooper was presented the past noble grand's regalia by her officers. She in turn presented each of her officers with a gift, and her past noble grand's pin was given her by the president of the Past Grand's club, Mrs. Lewis Thompson.

Mrs. Leona Gilinsky gave Mrs. Cooper a gift from the FL club and Mrs. Poage sang "Our Sally" with Mrs. Tolle at the piano.

A comedy skit was presented for the IOOF noble grand, Hazen Gram, by G. A. Wimer, Robert Davis, Lynn Cram, Claude Cooper, Ed Pease, Earl D. Scripser and E. D. Perkins.

The evening closed with refreshments served by committee from both lodges, with Mr. and Mrs. Barham acting as chairmen.

Medford Sojourners Plan Birthday Party

Sixty members and prospective members of Medford Sojourners' club met Thursday at the YMCA for dessert and a social afternoon. Mrs. A. E. Stout, newly elected president of the club, presided at the business meeting which followed the dessert.

Prospective members introduced were Mesdames C. L. McLaren, C. L. Nelson, H. E. Nulton, and S. S. McLaren. Mrs. J. I. Bacon and Mrs. J. H. Fisher were received as new members.

Bridge, pinocle, and canasta were played and winners were Mesdames S. S. McLaren, Ross Gilkison, James Langdon, A. L. Schrack, J. I. Bacon and C. L. Nelson. Another winner was Mrs. D. B. Ward.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Penn Chitwood, Mrs. K. S. Campbell, Mrs. H. J. Boyd and Mrs. L. B. Barnes.

Announcement was made of the birthday party, honoring charter members and past presidents, to be held February 9. Mrs. George Rehart will be general chairman of luncheon arrangements.

Accordion Recital Set for Wednesday

Second in a series of recitals is planned by Mrs. Eve Prentice for Wednesday, February 1, at her studio, 517 Newtown avenue. Twenty accordion pupils will be presented during the evening.

The recital is set for 7:30 p. m. and friends and relatives of the pupils participating are invited to attend.

Third of the recitals will be given in March.

Department Services Explained By Nurse For Eagle Point PTA

Eagle Point—Services of the Jackson County Health department were explained by Miss Elizabeth McGalliard, county health nurse, at the Eagle Point Parent-Teacher association meeting Tuesday. Some of the highlights of the service explained by Miss McGalliard included orthopedic service twice a year for children from birth to 21 years of age; child guidance clinic once each month for all who may request it; and immunizations all day Wednesdays and Friday afternoons.

The speaker explained the Sparrow Memorial Foundation and stated it is partly supported by donations sent to the foundation in place of flowers for funerals.

Mrs. Glenn Clymer reported on the county council for parents and teachers in Central Point.

Hugh Eskridge, grade school principal reported a profit of $100 from the recent National assemblies program for the March of Dimes drive. A minstrel show will be given by the grade school February 3 at 8 p. m.

After the meeting refreshments were served and a food sale was held in the home economics room of the school. The next meeting of the association will be a silver tea on Founders' day February 28 at 3 p. m.

Human Origin Subject Of Delphian Society

"Human Origins" was the topic discussed by Delphian society members at their meeting Tuesday in the Girls' Community club.

Those taking part in the discussion were Mrs. Richard Gray, Mrs. T. J. Halfhill, Mrs. C. T. Bartholomew, Mrs. I. E. Staples and Mrs. J. E. Schroeder. Beginning with the dawn of history about 500,000 years ago when there was scant evidence of man's presence, the subject proceeded to the more conclusive findings of the environment during the various eras in different parts of the world. The tools man used, the diverse animals, their foods and ways of life were the objectives in the study of human origins.

Applegate Unit Plans Meeting On Wednesday

Applegate—Members of the Applegate Home Extension unit and their friends will meet at the home of Mrs. Dave Winningham at McKee bridge at 10:30 a. m. Wednesday, February 1, weather permitting.

The topic will be "Herbs and Seasonings" which was previously scheduled for the January meeting cancelled because of weather conditions. The home furnishing project on lamp shades, the special activity for February, will be scheduled during the business meeting.
