Senior High, Roseburg Play Here On Saturday

Medford senior high's basketball quintet will continue its 1949-50 season Saturday with its first home game since January 20 when it meets Roseburg high in a non-conference game on the local floor starting at 8:15 p. m.

This evening the same two teams are competing on the Roseburg high floor.

Last home game for the Black Tornado cagers was against Klamath Falls on January 20 when the local youths coached by Frank Roelandt edged the Pelican quintet.

Next League Game
Medford dumped Central Point high in a Southern Oregon conference-District 4 clash last Saturday at the Pointers' gym for its last game played. Next conference clash for the Tornado will be against Eagle Point in

Eagles, C.P. Cagers Dated Saturday Eve

Eagle Point and Central Point will be scenes of basketball games Saturday evening when Myrtle Creek appears on the Eagles floor for a J-D-J league contest and Central Point is host to Ashland high for a Southern Oregon conference-District 4 get-together.

Games for the two valley schools tonight send Central Point to Myrtle Creek and the Eagles to Ashland high. So far the Eagles are undefeated in J-D-J competition and head that conference standings and they have dropped but one game in the Southern Oregon conference-District 4 competition.

Central Point has failed to win a Southern Oregon conference and district game but ranks high in the J-D-J race. Varsity games for all these teams will start about 8:15 after a 8:30 prelim.

Volleyball Contests Results Are Listed

Lumbermen, Teachers, Air Base and Businessmen won games in the local YMCA's sponsored volleyball league last night with games taking place at the senior high girls' gymnasium and at the YMCA gymnasium. The Lumbermen defeated the Bankers, the Teachers downed the Fruitmen, the Air Base defeated Camp White and the Businessmen were victors over the Lawyers.

Medford February 10.

Coach Roelandt has been working out his charges each morning this week since school was dismissed while teachers corrected exam papers and some improvement in the locals' point-making has been shown, observers reported.

Biggest trouble the Tornado had last week against the Pointers was the trouble in making baskets even though the boys had many openings and shots tried.

Local Starters Set
Probable starters for the local quintet tomorrow night will find Jack Morris and Connie Holzgang at guards, Don Denman at center and Bob Shores and Larry Smith, forwards.

Medford currently has a conference record of four wins and one defeat to place second behind Grants Pass, which is in first place with four wins and no losses. Eagle Point, with three wins and one defeat, is third, and Klamath Falls, with four and two, is fifth.

The varsity game here Saturday will begin about 8:15 p. m. after a 6:45 p. m. preliminary.

Lipscomb Again Wins Over Buck Davidson

Buck Davidson can't lick Jack Lipscomb. At least, he's failed miserably in two consecutive attempts to do it. The second try was at the armory last night when Lipscomb came out on the long end of the two-out-of-three-fall affair.

It looked for a while like Davidson meant business when he pummeled Lipscomb about the ring and took the first fall with a stomping leg hold. Lipscomb got the upper hand at the outset of the second heat and gave Buck a good basting before evening the falls with a body press.

Chases Lipscomb
Davidson spent part of the remaining 9 minutes and 20 seconds chasing Lipscomb around the outside of the ring and that is what cost him the deciding fall. Bucko had taken some rough treatment when he threw
