

Table Rock

Table Rock, Feb. 4—Ground Hog day dawned here with clear skies, bright sunshine and temperature just above zero, so if Mr. G. Hog was brave enough to venture out he surely saw his shadow. According to the old adage this would mean six weeks more winter but unless the hog knows more about weather conditions than some of our weather forecasters we shouldn't worry.

Mrs. L. R. Gregory of Roseburg spent last week-end here with her daughter Mrs. Orville Hamilton and family.

A load of lambs taken to the San Francisco market for E. C. Hamilton and R. E. Nealon, local farmers, topped the market on last Monday's sales bringing 25 1/2 cents a pound.

Virgil Painter of the Dark Hollow district was a business visitor here Sunday.

Silas Goodlin and family arrived here the first of the week from Fresno, Calif., to spend some time with the M. H. Goodlin family.

Friends here of the John Bieghler and Burreson families of Sams Valley were greatly shocked and grieved on hearing of the fatal plane crash Sunday which took the life of John Bieghler.

The civil aeronautics commission is still working on the report being constructed on upper Table Rock.

The following temperatures were reported January 31: At TouVelle park, six below; Modoc orchard, exactly zero; Table Rock orchard, two below and Miss Grace Bigham's thermometer registered five below.

The freezing weather has caused much trouble with plumbing. Also some car motors have suffered damage.

Fruit growers are fearful that pear trees will be damaged extensively if the low temperatures continue for a few days longer.

Table Rock Ladies club will meet Wednesday, February 8, at the home of Mrs. Orville Hamilton who will be assisted by Mrs. Grover Nicewood.

A touring car was found Sunday morning in the ditch, bottom side up, near the Stanley Vaughn place. It is said to belong to J. O. Holt of Central Point. No reason could be determined for the accident as it happened on a straight piece of road free of ice and snow. The car, apparently headed north, had turned completely around before it upset.

Owing to adverse weather conditions the meeting of Table Rock Community club last Friday night had a much smaller attendance than usual. The local 4-H leaders furnished an excellent program of local talent and moving pictures, with refreshments at the close. A Dutch auction was held to raise funds for the 4-H members who donated $3 to the March of Dimes.

The moist air here Tuesday evening and the later in the night zero temperatures caused the tail feathers of quail roosting in trees to freeze to the tree limbs so that some quail when they took off in the morning were minus their tail feathers.

Rogue River

Rogue River, Feb. 4—Ray Jenks returned to Rogue River in time to enjoy the snow. Mr. and Mrs. Jenks are spending the winter in Litchfield Park, Ariz., and he said he came to get his pickup truck and that Mrs. Jenks had a bad cold when he left, but the rest of the family are fine.

Mrs. Lila West was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Breeding three days of the past week when the snow made driving from the ranch to work, too difficult.

Van H. Avery left Wednesday for Riverside, Cal., on a business trip.

When M. J. Reid, who has a cabinet shop on north highway 99, was a visitor in Rogue River, Tuesday, he saw a slab of wood on the porch at 211 Main street and left his car in the filling station drive while he rushed across the street to inspect the wood and ask about it. It is a slice of redwood burl from Eureka and was a gift from a manufacturer of redwood novelties.

A good crowd turned out to the school board meeting, Wednesday, when N. H. Joyner brought the architect's plans and drawings for a proposed 6-unit classroom addition to the grade school and for a shop addition to the high school building, but the school directors were not present as the meeting had been called off, according to Principal Alf Mickvold. Joyner brought a drawing of the Talent school addition and stated it cost between $82,000 and $83,000. The regular school board meeting will be held February 7.

Mrs. Earl Watson of highway 99 was called to Fresno, Cal., by the birth of a granddaughter, Saturday. The little girl, born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rayburn Jr., passed away Sunday.
