Valentine Luncheon Reames Social Club Set For Next Week

Reames Social club is completing plans for the annual Valentine luncheon, given each February by the group. This year's luncheon is set for February 15, Wednesday, in the Masonic temple, with Mrs. Fred Purdin as general chairman.

Luncheon will be served at one o'clock and a style show will be given by Town and Country shop of Eagle Point.

Reservations are being received by Mrs. Paul Rynning and Mrs. J. H. Woodford, and Mrs. Jack Caldwell is publicity chairman. Mrs. Jack Clark and Mrs. B. L. Sanderson are the table committee. Mrs. John Smith and Mrs. V. A. Turpin will take charge of prizes and Mrs. Ira D. Canfield and Mrs. Lynn Robertson the decorations.

Mrs. W. H. Jones and Mrs. R. E. Schulz make up the dining room committee and Mrs. A. H. Gregory and Mrs. William Young the kitchen committee.

Church Association Gives Annual Ball; Medford Girl Queen

Miss Beverly Hogenson of Medford reigned as queen of the annual Gold and Green ball of the Latter Day Saints' church held January 27 at the recreation hall of the church in Ashland. Miss Hogenson, a high school student, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hogenson, 1913 Birch avenue.

Attending her as princesses were Miss Faye Wilkins, Miss Sharon Wilde, Miss Rose Sutherland and Miss Nina Grantham, all of Medford, and their escorts were Clayton Peterson, Don Allen and Douglas Ferlund, Medford, and Clifford Neilson and Ralph George, Ashland.

Theme of the dance was Winter Wonderland and Elder Nichols of the church had painted figures of the story book animals, Bambi and Thumper, for the decorations. These were combined with snow scenes, evergreens and silver cutouts. Carol White sang, "Winter Wonderland" as the queen came into the hall, and songs were also given by Merle Walker and Clarence Zuercher.

The formal ball is sponsored each year by the Mutual Improvement association of the church. This year Mrs. Douglas Shepherd is president of the women's division, and Dave Hogan of the men's division. Both are from Medford.

The fireside group of the church, headed by Miss Grantham, took charge of decorations. Miss Grantham was queen of the ball last year. Refreshments were served by a committee, headed by Mrs. Roy Sander.

The dance attracted a large number of church members and their friends.

Mistletoe Club Plans Valentine Luncheon; To Aid Needy Family

Rothermel-Stewart Wedding Rites Held In Portland Church

Miss Julie-Ann Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Duke Stewart of Portland became the bride of Ralph D. Rothermel, formerly of Medford and now of Orchard, Wash., in a ceremony held January 22 at the First United Presbyterian church in Portland. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Rothermel, also formerly of Medford and now of Orchard.

The service was read at two o'clock by Dr. William C. Fayette, and the bride's father gave her in marriage. White snapdragons and white stock arranged with candelabra holding tapers decorated the church.

Mrs. Paul Brownlee was soloist, with Mrs. Sartain as accompanist.

For her wedding the bride wore a gown of white georgette crepe designed with wide lace insertions extending the full length of the gown, puffed sleeves and a train. A coronet of pearls and orange blossoms held her fingertip length veil, and she carried a large white orchid on a white ribbon.

Miss Gwendolyn Fry of Salem, Ore., cousin of the bride, was maid-of-honor. She wore a gown of pale blue organdy trimmed in blue satin and with a satin sash and her head covering was of yellow carnations. She carried a bouquet of daffodils and ferns.

Miss Cathy Hall, Portland, was flower girl. Her gown was of pale green organdy with matching satin trim and sash and her flowers were a headpiece of yellow carnations and a nosegay of these same flowers.

Richard Peters of Portland was best man for the bridegroom and ushers were Robert Getz Jr. of Bremerton, Wash., and Theodore Engstrom of Olympia.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents and pouring and assisting were Mrs. Theodore Engstrom of Olympia, Mrs. Robert Goetz Jr. of Bremerton, Mrs. Lloyd Fry of Grants Pass and Mrs. Lamont Fry of Salem.

About 100 guests attended. The newlywed couple will live at 452 Monroe street in Corvallis, Ore. The bride, who was graduated from Cleveland high school in Portland was recently employed by the Oregon-Nevada-California freight line. Mr. Rothermel, who attended high school here before the family moved north, is a station manager for Standard Stations, Inc.

Anniversary Dinner For Clarence Wimer Event Of Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wimer were honored guests at a covered dish dinner party given in observance of their 29th wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hussong were hosts for the dinner last Saturday at their home on South Barnburg road and Mrs. Earl Scripser assisted.
