Jacksonville PTA Unit Honors Past Presidents At Meeting Wednesday

Jacksonville—Five past presidents of the Jacksonville Parent-Teacher association were honored Wednesday at the annual Founders' day meeting of the association. Those honored and presented corsages were Mrs. George Wendt, Mrs. Daisy Lewis, Mrs. A. W. Bowman, Mrs. Roy Martin and Mrs. G. O. Sanden. Twenty-three past presidents have served the association since its organization in 1920, with five presidents having served two terms.

Community singing opened the meeting followed by readings given by Dr. J. Scott Heatherington, Dick Boyd, superintendent of the schools, sang. Association members presented a humorous pantomime narrated by Miss Janet Burpee, high school instructor. Members taking part were Mr. and Mrs. Win Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. John Keaveny, Mrs. W. W. Mooring, Mrs. M. H. Hall, Mrs. E. E. McIntyre, Mrs. Halstead and Mrs. George Wendt.

A second letter of appreciation received from the German family who received the Christmas CARE package sent by the association was read in the German by Mrs. Eddie Frazier and translated by her into the English.

Mrs. Paul Culbertson, president, succeeding Mrs. H. L. Markwith, who has resigned, presided at the meeting. Mrs. Melvin Hall was elected to vice-presidency, replacing Mrs. Culbertson in that office. Room prize for the month was won by the seventh grade room.

Mr. Boyd explained a new class, "Social and Family Relations," which has been instituted at the school. As a result of this explanation a discussion developed concerning need for community sponsored activities for young people. Mrs. Elmer Adams, Mrs. Keaveny, Mrs. Wendt and Mr. Boyd were appointed as a committee to plan for a community get-together concerning a community center project.

During the social hour following the meeting Mrs. Bowman and Mrs. Sanden poured, and Mrs. Wendt served the cake. Mrs. Jesse Dressler and Mrs. Mooring were in charge of arrangements, assisted by other mothers of eighth grade children. Mrs. Hall was general chairman for the meeting.

Pussy willows and evergreens formed refreshment table decorations.
