Home Service Weds Miss Patricia Marx And Gordon Allard

An event of Saturday, February 4, was the wedding of Miss Patricia G. Marx, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer A. Marx, 1985 Kings highway, to Gordon Deryl Allard, the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. W. E. McCulley, Lone Pine, Cal., and Deryl Allard of Los Angeles. Mrs. McCulley was in Medford for the wedding.

The Rev. George R. Bolster, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal church, read the service at two o'clock in the afternoon at the Marx home and Mr. Marx gave his daughter in marriage. Mrs. Richard Payne gave a piano number before the ceremony.

For her wedding the bride wore a suit of white wool gabardine and a small hat of white felt trimmed with pearls and a navy blue veil. She carried a white prayer book topped with a white yellow-throated orchid and the ribbon streamers were knotted with bouvardia. The prayer book was first carried by Mrs. John S. Day of Medford for her wedding.

Miss Jan Jorgensen attended her cousin as maid-of-honor. She wore a wool suit of turquoise blue with a spring felt hat of palest yellow. Her flowers were a crescent shaped bouquet of pink carnations.

The reception which followed was also at home. Assisting at the reception were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hulse and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Welwood. Pouring coffee were Mrs. Everett Trowbridge, Mrs. William R. Richie Jr., of Ashland and Mrs. O. H. Bengtson; Mrs. R. D. Semon, Mrs. Richard Payne and Mrs. Otto Wellenstein of Ashland served punch. Mrs. Dwight Findley and Mrs. Fred Carr cut the wedding cake.

An arrangement of pink snapdragons and sweetpeas centered the bride's table, and two five-branched candelabra held cream colored tapers. Tall baskets of white stock, pink snapdragons, iris and pink carnations stood at either side of the fireplace, which had been banked with greenery, and this floral arrangement provided a background for the wedding party during the ceremony. The fireplace mantel held a bouquet of sweetpeas and snapdragons. Spring flowers also decorated the dining room and library.

About 100 guests were present for the wedding and reception.

Mr. Allard and his bride will live in Medford.

Cellist to Present Program Comments For Music Society

Bernard Windt, cellist, will give a program commentary for the chamber music concert to be presented by the Medford Musical society Monday evening at the First Presbyterian church.

VICTOR Says:

"At lunch recently I overheard two girls at the counter talking about too much curl in their hair. One said she would never get another permanent because she always left the shop fuzzy. Is this your trouble? If it is, come in and talk with me. If I cannot give you a soft natural looking curl, I'LL GIVE IT TO YOU!"
