Jean Hart's Diary

Sunday, February 12

Roses are red
Violets are blue
Our clothes are pretty
And so are you...
Spring's almost here
It's almost time
For you to be my Valentine.
A pair of earrings for your Valentine

Brand shining new... and I mean shining and glittery with new sets and sparkly stones. Cora's Spring line. And how about a new suit to go with them? Slightly fitted waists, large visible pockets and different neck lines. Straight skirts to budget your hips.

A Ganson Bag for your Valentine

Remember our beautiful Ganson bags in our other shop? We have them again. Sleek hand sewn leather to tuck, dangle, or swing from the shoulder. And maybe a new topper to match your purse. The Spring toppers, short and long, are in colors to match the first Spring flowers.

So remember that in the Spring a young girl's fancy often turns to hearts and flowers...

Just be sure the Hart you turn to... has Jean written across it.

Founders' Day Meeting Set For Jackson PTA; Annual Fete Discussed

Plans for observance of founders' day by Jackson Parent-Teacher association were made Monday evening when the executive board met at the home of Mrs. M. A. Putney. The event will be held Friday, February 17, and a silver tea will follow a program, topic for which is "Foundations for Secure Living."

April fete plans were also discussed and the following committee appointed for the annual carnival, Mrs. Clayton Jacobsen, general chairman, Mrs. Dick Kaye and Mrs. E. H. Pathman.

The date was moved forward to March 24 and the board voted to suggest to the school faculty that the spring operetta be held on a separate date to enable people to better enjoy both events.

Mrs. James Medley, welfare chairman, reported extension work being carried on to help supply dental care, other health needs and clothing, where desired. The hospitality committee's report was presented the board by Mrs. John Wisely, chairman.

Mrs. Riley Thomson, president, announced that requests had been received for the re-showing of the film, "Human Growth," and that plans were underway to bring it to Medford at an early date. She also briefed the address recently made here by Dr. Ralph Eckert.

A federal aid to education bill was discussed in relation to the suggestion that the South be loaned money to industrialize and thereby develop the educational system of the region without other federal aid.

Dr. John A. Schulz of Southern Oregon college was announced as speaker for the founders' day meeting. A report on the school's safety program will be given by A. L. Randles and mothers of children in the third grade will act as hostesses.

The subject of "Native Trees of Jackson County" will again be taken up and members are asked to come prepared to give common and botanical names. A few minutes will be given to "What's new in the perennial border."

Roll call will be answered by a question.

The program chairman is arranging a credit system, with prizes to be given in June, which will include attendance, scrapbook, quizzes, etc., which will be discussed at the meeting. Members are asked to bring notebooks.

Dinner, Program To Be Sponsored By Oak Grove Unit

Final plans for a ham dinner, which the Oak Grove Parent-Teacher association is sponsoring, were made at a special meeting of the association held Friday, February 8.

The dinner is planned for Friday, February 17, and will be served from 5:30 to 7:30 p. m. at the school cafeteria. Committee chairmen are Mrs. Carl Norris, serving; Mrs. Jim Hopkins, Mrs. Kenneth Thomas, Mrs. George Barker, Mrs. Ray Rushon, Mrs. Earl Brewold, Mrs. Jim Pederson, Mrs. L. McKay and Mrs. Dale Gott, food; Mrs. Clifford Crosby, decorations, assisted by Mrs. George Allengham and seventh and eighth grade Girl scouts; Mrs. Edgar Coghlin, clean-up.

The dinner will be followed at 8 p. m. by a special entertainment in the school gymnasium. The program will feature Miss Violet Stockham from Southern Oregon college and a group of folk dancers.

The group will appear in folk dances of several foreign countries and will be in costume. Miss Stockham has studied extensively and has traveled in many of the countries whose dances she stages on her programs and the committee in charge states the association feels fortunate to have obtained the dancers for the evening.

Miss Matheny Wed To Donald C. Stone In Home Ceremony

Jacksonville — Miss Maria Jeanne Matheny, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orval W. Matheny, Jacksonville, became the bride of Donald Clair Stoner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle C. Stoner, Applegate, January 23. About 85 relatives and friends attended the ceremony performed in the home of the bride's parents by the Rev. Donald H. Byers, Central Church of Christ, Medford, at 8:30 o'clock.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Cedar, combined with daphne, everlasting flowers and candelabra with white tapers formed the wedding setting.

The bride wore a winter white wool crepe princess-style dress with a small veiled white felt cap. For her flowers she carried white hyacinths and flowering quince with pink streamers on a white prayer book.

Miss Cleora Meade, a high school classmate of the bride, was maid-of-honor. She wore a steel grey sharkskin suit and her corsage was of pink and blue hyacinths.

Bruce C. Matheny, brother of the bride, served as best man.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the Matheny home. Mrs. M. B. Sweet and Mrs. Ernest V. Ludwig, Medford, aunts of the bride, presided at the table and Mrs. Marian Langley, Medford, cousin of the bride, served the bride's cake. Assisting were Mesdames Carl Ludwig, Medford, grandmother of the bride, John O'Brien and P. E. Matheny, Jacksonville, aunts, C. R. Kamberg, P. R. Matheny and W. M. Matheny, Jacksonville, cousins, Mrs. Lyle O. Stoner, mother of the groom, and George J. Armstrong and Mrs. Donald H. Byers, Medford.

Corsages and flower arrangements for the wedding and reception had been arranged by Mrs. Leonard McKee and Mrs. William Smith, Jacksonville. Mrs. Stoner is a member of the class of 1950 of Jacksonville high school. She has attended valley schools, and junior and senior high schools in Vancouver, Wash.

Dear Mrs. Medford:

Brusche Pottery is here again.

Moulded into flowing lines of lasting beauty Brusche Pottery again enlivens our shop with its charm and color.

Lime green, refreshing and cool combined with Moss green, the color of secret pools in the forest—sets a table reminiscent of Spring and Summer.

Or Dubonnet, the color of old wine in a crystal goblet—with pussy willow grey as a sophisticated accent.

Two may sit down to dinner with a starter service for only $4.95.

The odd pieces are fabulous in their intricate variety.
