

Golf's Golden Girls In Foursome Tourney

Alice Bauer

Marlene Bauer

Palm Beach, Fla., Feb. 13.—(U.P.)—Marlene and Alice Bauer, the golden girls of golf, moved on to a new grab at glory today in the Everglades Scotch foursome tournament after their triumphs of the week-end.

Fifteen-year-old Marlene beat her big sister, Alice, 22, in the final of the Palm Beach Women's tournament Saturday. Then the Midland, Tex., girls teamed yesterday to down veterans Peggy Kirk and Louise Suggs, 1 up, in an exhibition.

Semi-Pros Set May 14 As Opening

Southern Oregon Baseball league members unanimously re-elected the 1949 officers and set May 14 as date of the opening games of the season at their annual meeting at Grants Pass yesterday.

The officers re-elected are L. R. Friderger, Ashland, president; Frank Langley, Grants Pass, as vice president, and J. Q. Adams, Ashland, secretary-treasurer.

Withdrawal of Prospect was announced and Brookings was given No. 1 priority for the vacated franchise it was reported.

A Hilt, Cal., representative attended, and expressed interest in entering a team in the Southern Oregon loop.

Central Point, Crescent City, Grants Pass, Ashland and Medford team officials attended.

League officers delayed drawing up a schedule until the status of semi-pro baseball at Medford and Ashland was more definitely determined. It was voted to investigate the possibility and expense of a league insurance program for ball players.

Adams was instructed to contact the Northern California league concerning an inter-league all-star game.

Central Point to Play Myrtle Creek

Central Point, Feb. 13.—Central Point high basketball crew will aim at keeping its JDJ league title hopes alive here Tuesday evening when it plays Myrtle Creek.

To date the Pointers have three wins and one loss in the loop. They have trimmed Myrtle Creek once and Sutherlin twice and lost to Eagle Point which is currently unbeaten in the circuit.

Central Point has had little luck this season in Southern Oregon conference play and would like to make up for those setbacks with a successful JDJ loop season.

Tomorrow's contest will follow a 7 p. m. preliminary.

Junior Cagers to Play Grants Pass

Medford junior high seventh, eighth and varsity, for whom triple clean sweeps are almost a habit this season, will try for another when they travel to Grants Pass on Tuesday.

The scraps are scheduled for evening. Early in January the local junior high won a tripleheader from Grants Pass by lopsided scores, but can expect a stiff battle from the revenge-minded Cavekids.

LaGrande edged Baker, 44 to 41, in an overtime battle Saturday to capture the sub-district one title and has only to meet the winner among Ontario, Nysa and Vale for the state tournament berth.

Grants Pass Leads
Grants Pass has won 18 or 19 games and appears a sure winner in district five, while Roosevelt is romping home undefeated in the Portland city loop.

Marshfield had a 19-5 record in district six.
Other sure district winners appear to be Milton-Freewater, Bend, Eugene, Corvallis, Newberg, Hillsboro, Seaside, Salem, Central Catholic, Scappoose and Jefferson of Portland as runner-up to Roosevelt.

Lipscomb Picked As Partner For Atlas

The Great Atlas has selected Jack Lipscomb, in the midst of a three-match winning streak, to be his partner in Thursday night's tag team fracas against Georges Dusette and Karl Gray.

The Atlas was bent on obtaining someone foreign to local wrestling circles but when he was unable to do so, decided upon Lipscomb as the "roughest and toughest guy I know, besides myself."

Oak Grove Team Defeats Glide

Oak Grove grade school's varsity hoopers, victorious at Glide on Saturday night, move to St. Mary's gym tonight where they vie in the preliminary to a St. Mary's girls' intramural finale.

The Grovers nudged Glide 39 to 32. It was a close tiff all the way with the Jackson county five netting its margin of victory in the final moments. Halfway count favored Oak Grove 19 to 18. Oak Grove also nabbed the seventh grade encounter 43 to 10.

Tonight Oak Grove faces the St. Mary's graders at 7 o'clock. In the main game seniors meet the juniors in a tussle climaxing the St. Mary's girls' intramural program.

The super-egotist gave Gray a thorough going over last week with his full nelson and Dusette took Gray's side in objecting to the manner in which it was done. Because of the intense rivalry and the great dislike the other graders have for the self-styled Mr. America, the match should turn out to be a dilly.

Pierre LaBelle, the good-looking French-Canadian who is a strong favorite here, will oppose Arne Skaland in the one-hour opener, starting at 8:30 p. m. It will be Skaland's inaugural appearance in southern Oregon.

LaBelle, who has been seen here many times, hasn't been in the vicinity for several months.

The armory box office will open at 7:30 p. m. Thursday and in the meantime ringside tickets are on sale at Brown's, 101 East Main street.

Billy Graham Ponders Return Go With Gavilan

New York, Feb. 13.—(U.P.)—Handsome Billy Graham, upset conqueror of Cuban Kid Gavilan, was given the choice today of taking a shot at Sugar Ray Robinson's welterweight crown or meeting Gavilan in a return bout.

Irish Billy of New York, a 4-1 underdog, won a split 10-round decision over the speedy Havana "Kid" at Madison Square Garden Friday night.

Medford Gun Club Wins Match

Medford Gun club scattergunners maintained their jinx over Central Point Sportsmen's club snooters by taking the second half of the inter-city competition yesterday at the Medford grounds.

The triumph gave the Medfordites a 943 total score compared to 929 for Central Point. In the first round at Central Point two weeks ago the Sportsmen's club had gained a 462 to 460 edge.

The inter-city victory was Medford's third in a row over Central Point in the annual event.

Yesterday more than 50 shooters were on hand for the qualifying round. The 10 high from each club made up the teams for the 50-bird event.

Medford scores were Sam Samson 48, Bill McAllister 48, Ed Pease 49, Dick Skeeters 48, Henry Niedermeyer 50, Charles Skeeters 46, E. W. Brown 48, Jim Moore 50, Martin Clogston 48, Dick Hervey 48.

Central Point totals were Pete Driscoll 48, Bill Huston 46, Max Kulbe 46, Charles Bendell 47, Ed Henselman 47, Harry Hawk, 46, Merv Gleason 48, Jim Ross 49, George Van Galder 46, Frank Clogston 44.

Niedermeyer and Moore had high score for the day in all events by breaking 100 straight targets. Ed Pease broke 99 out of 100 and Bill McAllister, Dick Skeeters and Sam Samon each 98.

GRADERS TO PLAY
Jackson will play at Roosevelt and Washington for the day in all events in grade school junior varsity basketball games Tuesday at 4:15 p. m.

Robinson Will Fight Walczak February 27

St. Louis, Feb. 13.—(U.P.)—Promoter Hans Bernstein said today that welterweight champion Ray (Sugar) Robinson will meet Jean Walczak of France in a non-title 10-round bout here Feb. 27.

Walczak has won 43 of his 55 professional fights, 17 of them by knockouts. He won the French welterweight crown two years ago by knocking out Omar Koudri.

Joe Hatten Signs Contract With Dodgers

New York, Feb. 13.—(U.P.)—Joe Hatten, 32-year-old southpaw pitcher, signed his 1950 contract with the Brooklyn Dodgers today and became the club's 20th player to agree to terms.

Earlier, the Dodgers announced the receipt of signed contracts from Pitches Willard Ramsdell and Morris Martin, both of whom were optioned to minor league clubs last season.
