Spelling Match Won By Team Of Mothers With Slim Margin

Spelling books are being dusted off in the homes of Lincoln school parents.

A team of mothers succeeded in defeating the student team by the slim margin of four errors to the children's six errors in a spelling contest conducted at the February meeting of the Lincoln Parent-Teacher association, last Friday evening, in the school gymnasium.

Fourth, fifth and sixth grade words were used, with the word Mediterranean giving great difficulties to members of both teams. Spelling for the parent's team were: Mrs. Olen Risner, Miss Olive Curry, Mrs. F. W. Dunn, Mrs. Daniel Dwyer, Mrs. Leigh Gustison and Mrs. Albert Puhl. The children's team included: fourth grade, Georgia Lawson and Paul Gleason; fifth grade, Eleanor Howard and Andrew Walker; sixth grade, Ramona Baugh and Dick Payne.

Miss Curry, school nurse, spoke to the meeting on the school health program and showed a health movie.

After the program and business meeting, refreshments were served in the school lunch room under the direction of Mrs. Bird.

Dinner Club To Hear Judge George Hardy At Meeting Monday

"God: the Supreme Court and Us" will be the topic of Judge George W. Hardy when he speaks for the meeting of the Rogue Valley Knife and Fork club February 20 at the Rogue Valley Country club.

It is stated that the judge believes in democracy as an ideal of humanity and that there must be a resurgence of ideals if "the fate of Athens is to be avoided." He is quoted as saying "democracy cannot decay if every man in every community contributes to the well-being of all and gives hope to others in the progress of life."

The judge is described as a prominent jurist, attorney and former mayor of Shreveport, La., and is famous throughout the south as a speaker.

Members are asked to make their reservations with the secretary, Mrs. O. A. Eden, not later than February 18.

Gold Hill Unit Hears Reports Of Activities

Gold Hill — Various reports were given at the last meeting of Gold Hill Extension unit, held at the home of Mrs. Paul Holderness. Twelve members and three visitors were present.

Mrs. Ferd Jones reported that a subscription had been sent for "Country Women of the World," international magazine, and Mrs. Holderness reported that four women had completed the better dress project and gave some of the highlights of the shop meetings.

Two couples of the community were appointed to attend the class for square dancing, folk dancing and mixer games which is to be held in Central Point soon. Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Knapp and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Beman were appointed.

The March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. E. J. Knapp. Project leaders will be Mrs. George Tulare and Mrs. Paul Holderness. Project leaders will be Mrs. M. C. Hancock and Mrs. Lester Thompson.

Mrs. Lue Murray having left the community, Mrs. Holderness was appointed secretary of the unit.

Following the meeting a demonstration on making lamp shades was given by Mrs. Arthur Straus. A shade was made, with Mrs. Stewart assisting. Suggestions were given by Mrs. Straus on cleaning old shades. Several members plan to make shades in the near future.

Phoenix Church Club Plans Meeting Friday

Phoenix — Homemakers' club of the Phoenix Presbyterian church will meet Friday, February 17, at the church for a covered dish supper, beginning at 6:30 p.m. Taking charge of supper arrangements and entertainment for the evening are Mr. and Mrs. Rex Nicodemus and Mr. and Mrs. Ed White.

The new president and secrtary, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Claflin, will conduct the meeting.

Arrangements will be made for the care of children, and all young married couples of the church and the community are invited to attend.

At a meeting of the Presbyterian Ladies' Aid society last week, further plans were made for the George Washington ham supper which is to be served February 24.

The intermediate society of young people of the church will meet Sunday at 4:30 p.m. Following a discussion and song period, games and refreshments are planned. All young people of the intermediate age are invited.

Announce Flower Show For Rogue River Club; Members Hear Speakers

Rogue River—At the meeting of Rogue River Garden club Thursday afternoon the program was crowded with practical advise to gardners and flower exhibitors, and the date of the spring flower show was set for April 15.

In observation of St. Valentine's day the group sang "Love's Old Sweet Song" and "Let Me Call You Sweetheart." A copy of "Encyclopedia of Gardening" was presented to the club by President Ruby Hughes.

Exhibits were violets, laurestinus and coral berry, and there were giant sized snowdrops from the garden of Mrs. Sam Bellah. This species had small green hearts in their centers. For blooms in the month of February Mrs. Bellah recommended the planting of four shrubs, winter sweet, Chinese witchhazel, flowering apricot and viburnum fragrance. All are very fragrant, she said, and must be planted in the fall.

Horticulture Chairman Faye Rose told of seeing unusually large luxuriant camellias at the Leonard Nuttall home on West Evans creek. Mr. Nuttall mixes a special camellia food in hundred pound lots and lets friends have it at cost. His formula was read at the meeting.

In the second lesson on flower show practice Mrs. Bellah advised keeping the cost of exhibits down by using containers on hand instead of buying new ones. She gave instructions for arranging flowers with special attention to balance, line and mass, and stressed the listing of gardens for the outdoor flower show.

"Now is the time" was read by Mrs. Marie Tenny and included spraying and transplanting of wild Oregon shrubs with special request that persons removing shrubs from the countryside do not trespass on private property and always ball the roots, no matter how short the distance the shrub is to be moved.

Mrs. Mae LaBrun reviewed "Our Plundered Planet."

Two pictures of Mrs. E. L. Savage's garden on Savage creek were shown by her daughter, Mrs. Margie Dunham, who now resides there. One view of the flower garden was especially beautiful with its background of wooded slopes sheltering a picturesque old log cabin.

Guests of the club were Mrs. Ernest W. Jermark, president of the Central Point Garden club, Miss Claire Hanley of Jacksonville, Mrs. Clarence Wohlford, honorary member. A special welcome was given Mrs. Ed Linderman, who came to the meeting in her wheel chair. It was the first meeting she has attended in many months.

Washington PTA Unit Plans Meeting Friday

"Looking Toward Tomorrow's Education" will be the subject of the Washington Parent-Teacher association meeting to be held in the school gymnasium Friday February 17 at 2:30 p.m. In helping to understand our educational needs for the future the film "Broader Concept of Method" will be presented.

There will be a demonstration of first grade music by Miss Mabel Nansen, vocal music supervisor for the Medford school system.

Past presidents of the association will be honored and a birthday cake will be cut. A silver tea will be served.

Room mothers for the fourth grade will have charge of the tea hour.

Teachers To Hear College President

All women of the church and interested friends are invited to attend.

Women Students Active On Campus

From the University of Oregon comes news of the activities of women students on the campus.

Miss Claire Cordier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Bon Cordier, 704 South Oakdale avenue, is co-chairman of the registration committee for the third conference of the Oregon High School International Relations league which will be held February 23 to 25 on the university campus.

Miss Cordier is a sophomore mejor in law.

Miss Jeraldyn Jerome daughter of Mrs. Josephine Jerome, 135 North Holly street, was a hostess Saturday afternoon at the dedication ceremony of Carson hall, new women's dormitory on the University of Oregon campus.

Miss Jerome, a senior, is majoring in sociology.

Miss Charity Williams was recently initiated into Pi Delta Phi, French honorary on the Oregon campus. Active members are students who, during their university career, have distinguished themselves in the study of the French languages and other pertaining subjects.

Miss Williams is a sophomore major in liberal arts. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas V. Williams, 1975 Houston road.

Phoenix Unit Plans Meeting For Friday

Phoenix—Phoenix Home Extension unit will meet Friday, February 17 at the Phoenix Presbyterian church parlor for a demonstration on lamp shade making. The meeting will open at 10:30 a.m. and leaders will be Mrs. Bill Howard and Mrs. Harold Sloper.

A covered dish luncheon will be served at noon, and a white elephant sale will be held during the meeting.

Those interested in attending are asked to bring a covered dish for the luncheon menu, table service and an article for the sale.

Oak Grove Unit Plans Event For Friday Night

A dinner and program have been planned for Friday night, February 17, by members of the Oak Grove Parent-Teacher association. The ham dinner will be served from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria, and the program will begin at 8 p.m.

Miss Violet Stockham of the physical education department at Southern Oregon college will present a program of folk dances of various countries, with college students participating.

Anyone interested in attending is invited to do so.

Bible School Council Meets At Cook Home

The Bible School council of the First Christian church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cook Monday. A covered dish dinner was followed by a business meeting.

For the dinner tables were placed in the rumpus room, and decorations were red hearts bearing Bible verses.

Mrs. Cook, program chairman of the council, showed pictures and talked on visual education.

Mrs. Grover Corum is president of the group.
