

AROUND HOLLYWOOD

By VIRGINIA MacPHERSON
United Press Correspondent

Hollywood, Feb. 17—(U.P.)—Actor Gary Merrill, Hollywood's newest hope for stardom, isn't sure he can afford to be famous. His first big premiere just nicked the family budget for $2027.95.

It cost him that much, he reported, to have himself and his wife decked out for the opening of the 20th Century-Fox's "Twelve O'clock High."

"We decided we'd just wear any old thing and nobody'd know the difference," Merrill said. "Little did we know!"

That was the day before the critics started booming him as a brand new star. The next day he received his invitation to the post-premiere "Black Tie" party the studio was tossing for boss-man Darryl Zanuck.

"We had eight days' notice," Merrill sighed. "And those were the most hysterical and expensive eight days I ever hope to live through."

Merrill didn't even own a tuxedo. That set him back $150. Patent leather evening pumps were $22.95, a shirt was $8.50, and cuff links and studs (imitation gold) were $10. Socks at $3.50 and a black tie at $3—and Merrill was all set for $197.95. Don't Forget Mrs.!

How about the other $193? Don't forget the little woman! Mrs. Merrill announced she hadn't a thing to wear. But she was going to be economical about this. She bought a short evening dress for a "cut-rate" of $185. Next came rhinestone-studded satin sandals for $30, a "simply divine" pair of nude French kid evening gloves for $25, and sheer cowbebebe hose for $5.

Next she found "an interesting" red wool cape stole threaded with gold for $35. That tallied up her outfit to $280.

Came the day of the premiere and thermometers all over town did a nose dive. That "interesting" stole wouldn't do more than cover Barbara's goose-pimples.

Dashed To Fur Emporium

So Merrill visited a bank and returned with a $1000 bill. He slipped it into his wife's hot little hand and told her to splurge on a fur coat.

Mrs. Merrill protested for two minutes and dashed to the local fur emporium. She came home with a mink stole for "just a little bit more"—$1500.

Then she had her hair, nails, and toenails fixed (for $12) while Merrill hustled up a white orchid corsage (another $12).

"I thought the party and premiere were worth it," he said. "We spent our down payment on a house, but we can start saving over again."

Barbara wasn't too happy, though. She said the only thing anyone said to her was where did she get her divine chandelier earrings and necklace?

"And the funny part about that is, they only cost six bucks—the cheapest part of the whole spree!"

Rogue River

Rogue River, Feb. 16—(U.P.)—Live Oak Grange is becoming noted for its delightful hospitality and its square dances are so popular that the Grangers feel the need of a larger dance floor as well as a larger hall for meetings, and they are working three nights a week to rush completion of their main hall.

Last Saturday evening members of five Granges were present at the dance and there were a number of their L.D.S. friends from Grants Pass. The next dance will be held February 25. All Grangers and their friends are invited.

The March of Dimes campaign closed with the grand total of $341.39 collected in Rogue River and Wimer district. Highest amount collected was the mail folders of Rogue River, second on the list was the grade school with $72.87 and the high school with $70.18. This money was raised through their ball games and extra credit goes to the girls of the grade school who made popcorn and sold it and candy bars and thus earned $32 to swell the fund from their school.

Two little Rogue River girls, Genie Friedenthal, aged two and a half and Margery Paddock, 3, attended their first party Valentine's day when Miss Evelyn Burk entertained four small friends at her home. Other guests were Linda and Kathie Swanson of Medford.

News of 4-H CLUBS

Griffin Creek Dairy club held its third 4-H meeting February 9. Beverly Nelson demonstrated how to make a cow blanket. Mrs. Clark had information on cow judging.

The meeting was held at the home of P. K. Nelson of Central Point. Mrs. Nelson served cake and ice cream.

Christian Science Lecturer Coming

"Christian Science: The Revelation of the Healing Christ" is the title of the free lecture to be given at Medford senior high school auditorium Monday, February 20, at 8 p.m.

Dr. Walton Hubbard, C.S.B., the lecturer, comes from Los Angeles and is a member of the board of lecturership of the mother church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston.

In arranging for the lecture, members of First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Medford, believe they are providing a means for reaching many people with answers to frequent questions about Christian Science—what it teaches, how it heals, why thousands have become its adherents. A cordial welcome is extended to the public to attend.

Navy Hopes To Get Flush Deck Carrier

Washington, Feb. 17—(U.P.)—The navy disclosed today that it still hopes to get a flush deck "super carrier" that could handle atomic bombers and long range patrol planes.

A spokesman said that plans are being drafted for a flush deck carrier of between 50,000 and 55,000 tons. This would be somewhat smaller than the 65,000 ton carrier, the U.S.S. United States, which Defense Secretary Louis Johnson cancelled last spring.

The proposed new super carrier still is very much in the tentative planning stage. The navy does not intend to submit it to the defense secretary and his budget committee for at least another year.

Lindstrom's Secretary Victim Of Amnesia

San Francisco, Feb. 17—(U.P.)—John Edward Vernon, 42, spokesman for Dr. Peter Lindstrom in his marital troubles with actress Ingrid Bergman, struggled today to overcome a "type of amnesia."

He was seated in a hospital where he was admitted yesterday, three days after his wife, Lydia, reported him missing from their San Fernando valley home near Los Angeles.

Mrs. Vernon, who flew here last night to be with her husband, said he left home at 8:30 a.m. Sunday. However, police did not officially list him as missing for 48 hours—the customary practice in Los Angeles.

HALF-PINTS OUT

Portland, Ore., Feb. 17—(U.P.)—The Oregon liquor control commission said today its statewide stores no longer will handle half-pints. Sales of half-pints "contributed to improper usage of alcohol," the commission said.

Hong Kong, Feb. 17—(U.P.)—The United States aircraft carrier Boxer and the destroyers Anderson and Thompson left for the Philippines today in preparation for joint British-American fleet maneuvers in Philippine waters March 4-10.
