NOT SMART ENOUGH

North Platte, Neb. (U.P.)—Then there was the man, the North Platte Holograph-Bulletin said, who left his car motor running all night so he could get a quick

NOT HARD TO FIND

Peoria, Ill. (U.P.)—It paid for county officers to be gazing out the window when they got a radio report of a stolen car, a blue 1938 model. It was parked across the street. They told the owner, who had turned in the alarm a few minutes before, to come and get it.

TREE PLANTING URGED

Concord, N. H. (U.P.)—There's gold in those woods, says State Forester John Foster. He has urged New Hampshire residents to plant forests as an investment. He said that if an acre of cultivated pine is handled properly it will yield 40,000 or more board feet of lumber in 50 years.
