

Powell-Brugman Wedding Is Held At Catholic Church

The wedding of Miss Mary Frances Brugman to W. Evans Powell, Portland, was an event of Saturday, February 11, at Sacred Heart Catholic church, with the Rev. Cornelius Lindehan reading the ceremony at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Brugman, Old Stage road, and Mr. Powell's parents were the late Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Powell of Kansas City, Mo.

The altar and pews of the church were decorated with white snapdragons and laurel leaves in heavy bloom. Bruno Pellegrini was organist.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a wedding gown of white satin designed princess style and with a lace yoke trimmed in seed pearls. Her veil was fingertip length and she carried a prayerbook with white carnations and gardenias.

Mrs. John W. Brugman of Portland was matron-of-honor for her sister-in-law. Her bouffant type gown was of champagne nylon net over taffeta worn with a sleeveless jacket of shirred nylon net edged in satin. Bridesmaids were Miss Betty Brugman, sister of the bride, and Miss Ellen Brugman of Portland, a cousin of the bride. They wore frocks of soft gray-green designed the same as that of the matron-of-honor. All three attendants carried large bouquets of Wedgwood iris with ruffles of orchid colored maline and ribbons of lavender, orchid and purple shades.

John Carney Jr. of Portland was best man for the bridegroom and ushers were Dr. Charles Gerard, Edward G. Mcaney and John W. Brugman, brother of the bride. All are from Portland.

The reception which followed was at the Rogue Valley Country club. Mrs. Herman McCullough of Medford cut the wedding cake and pouring were Mrs. Edward G. Mcaney and Mrs. William J. Brugman of Portland and Mrs. Joseph C. Brugman of Seattle. Miss Pat Wilkinson and Mrs. Helen O'Neill served punch and Miss Mildred Cowan took charge of the guest book.

The bride's table was centered with an arrangement of white snapdragons, carnations and paper white narcissus with maiden-hair fern, and the cake decorations matched the bride's bouquet. Baskets of white blossoms were placed around the club dining room.

In Medford for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. William J. Brugman of Portland, Dr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Brugman of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Armour of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Johnson of Menlo Park, Cal.; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Brady of Coos Bay, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Francis W. Brugman of Portland and Mrs. James Crowell of Portland.

The newlywed couple went to Lincoln Beach on the Oregon coast for their honeymoon and will be at home in Portland.
