Radio Patter by Pat

Local police in Seaboard City, unable to halt a hijacking racket which is flourishing along their waterfront, call in David Hardin, a tough, though too late to prevent a murder, Harding and the Cou nterspies break the racket in the exciting "Case of the Rats of Seaboard City" (choice title— isn't it!) "The Counterspies" episode to be aired over Station KYJC and ABC tonight at 7 o'clock.

Nancy Wilson Ross' widely discussed novel "I, My Ancestor," will be exposed to friendly and hostile criticism on the Thursday broadcast of "Author Meets the Critics" over Station KYJC and ABC, from 9 to 9:30 p. m.

The small fry who have been following the story of "Meeko" on KYJC—Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 4:45 p. m., will be interested to know that the program has not been cancelled definitely. John Ahern, narrator, has been called to Portland due to illness in his family, and as soon as he returns the program will once again be on the air.

James Dunlevy, new manager of KYJC, is busy these days getting acclimated to his new surroundings, but things are bound to level off soon after the initial confusion.

Larry Carmella, combination man with KYJC, has accepted a position as combination man
