Participating in the panel were Pat Bayless, Karna Hanson, John Robinson, Gage Sanden and Bill Boyer of Dr. Schulz psychology class.

"Foundations for Secure Living" was the panel topic and each student gave a personal interpretation of its meaning. In summary Dr. Schulz stressed the importance of family, faith, participation in activities and government and the cultivation of wide interests to keep effective the American type of society, the type which offers more opportunity than any other in the world.

She reported increased cooperation on the part of parents as the fluorine program, offered by Medford dentists, progressed.

Mrs. C. S. Jacobsen was introduced as chairman of the annual school carnival to be held March 24 and asked for the cooperation of all members in presenting the spring frolic.

Mrs. M. A. Putney submitted her report as treasurer and a brief review of a magazine article, listing accomplishments of P.T.A., was given by Mrs. Moore Hamilton.

Miss Eunice Gray and Mrs. H. M. Doolen were elected to serve with H. W. Gustin, school principal, on the nominating committee.

Salem, Ore., Feb. 23—(U.P.)—A proposed amendment to the state constitution providing for reapportionment of the legislature was filed Tuesday with the state elections bureau here.

The amendment, filed by a nonpartisan committee for balanced apportionment headed by E. Freeman Holmer, Willamette university political science professor, would raise membership of the senate from 30 to 36 and would also affect members of the house.

Remaining counties

NEW FLOAT DOH DINNER ROLLS

by Mary Mills

Float Doh Dinner Rolls

Besides 3½ cups Fisher's Blend Flour, sifted and measured—you'll need:

- 1 cup lukewarm water
- ½ cup melted shortening
- 2 teaspoons salt
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- 2 cakes compressed yeast, or 2 packages dry granular
- 1 egg

Yield 18-24 Rolls

Now—you can make DINNER ROLLS by the Float Doh method... an adaptation of wonderful Old Country baking by Mary Mills, home economist for Fisher's—"America's Finest Flouring Mills."

These rolls are different. They're light and tender, with a distinctive flavor and delicate crispy crust. Here's how you make them:

- Sift and measure all-purpose Fisher's Blend Flour.
- Mix lukewarm water, melted shortening, salt, sugar and yeast. Add egg and mix well.
- Add ½ of flour and beat. Add remainder of flour. Do not knead this dough.
- Take a clean flour sack or food-saver plastic bag. Dip it in cold water and wring out dry. Lay it flat on table and dust with flour. Put dough in center, bring corners of sack up and tie loosely. Leave plenty of room for dough to expand.
- Fill a good-sized container with about 3 quarts of lukewarm water. Drop dough in carefully. Set aside to rise. It will float when ready.
- Lift dough out of water carefully and turn it into a bowl. You will have to scrape dough from cloth. Place a spoonful of dough into greased muffin pan. Sprinkle with poppy or sesame seeds if desired.
- Set aside in warm place to rise for about 1 hour, or until double in size.
- Bake in a 425° F. oven for 20 minutes.

Serve Float Doh Dinner Rolls at family and company dinners. Make plenty. They'll be popular. Be sure the flour you use is FISHER'S BLEND. There is no better flour made for your kitchen.
