 With a number of pre-show stunts and the regular acts jam-packed with gags and antics, committee men said that there will be laughter from start to finish.

The variety act is filled with chorus girl routines, songs and skits and other specialty numbers. In the old fashioned and modern minstrel acts specialties are highlighted by the performance of End Men Don Newbury, Frank Perl, Don Rice, Ed Barnett, Walt Hamby and Bert Day and Interlocutors Ray Baker and George Bolster.

Astoria Movie Goers Shun 'Stromboli'

Astoria, Ore., Feb. 24—(U.P.)—Ingrid Bergman's new motion picture, "Stromboli," received such a cool reception from the Scandinavian and Finnish populated town that a scheduled four-day run was cancelled after three days of poor attendance.
 "It was a mediocre picture, anyway," said A. M. Dunlop, the theater manager. "The best thing in it was the volcano, not Bergman. There wasn't anything anyone could take exception to. It was just a bum picture."
 Dunlop said, however, that none of Bergman's films, except those in which she appeared with big box office stars, ever did much business in Astoria.
