A Nichols' Worth of—

Comment On This and That

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS
United Press Feature Writer

Washington, Feb. 27 —(U.P.)— I know a candidate for a future Miss America.

Harman Nichols

She's a pretty brunette and has a lot of poise. She makes the best cherry pies I ever ate.

The girl is Jacqueline Hanneman of Indianapolis, Ind. She came to Washington to present to President Truman a couple of cherry pies. She had the honor since she won out over contestants from 20 states in a national cherry pie baking contest sponsored by the National Red Cherry institute.

The president wasn't home when Miss Hanneman called at Blair House, pies in hand. An assistant accepted them with thanks and said he would see the chief got them.

I hope he did. Mr. Truman missed something if he didn't sink a tooth into one of those goodies.

Miss Hanneman, 17, said there are ways and ways to make a good cherry pie. Her way is the best in the land, as of now.

The young lady made her first pie at the age of 12.

"It was an apple pie," she said. "It fell kind of flat on top. The second was a cherry pie. Last year the champion cherry pie baker got on the radio and said her favorite pie was lemon meringue. I'm being honest when I say mine is cherry."

Pies More Fun

Jacqueline, known to her friends as "Jackie," thinks it is a lot more fun to bake pies than cakes. You don't have to tippy-toe around the house with a pie in the oven. It would take an A-bomb almost, she says, to make a pie fall, whereas a cake will fall at the drop of a football.

Jackie, once she gets her pans and things out, can whip up a pie all ready for the oven in 15 minutes. Once stuffed inside, the baking business takes 45 minutes, which is considered par for the course.

Here is the young Indiana lady's recipe for a cherry pie, which she admits she makes from cherries grown in Michigan.

Don't Grease Pan

"First, don't grease the pie pan. Measure sifted flour. Add salt, sift again into mixing bowl. Cut one-half the lard into the flour to a corn meal consistency using a pastry blender. Cut in remaining lard and blend to the size of large peas. Add cold milk, using a fork to blend ingredients. Place on folded wax paper, and work slightly until the particles hold together. Divide the dough into two parts with a little more for the lower crust than the upper crust. Place the dough for lower crust on floured pastry canvas and roll dough from center out until it is ⅛ inch thick. Fold crust in quarters and place in pie pan. Trim crust. Roll upper crust in same manner, then cut a few slashes in it."

Three Cups of Cherries

The ingredients, or fillings, include three cups of drained cherries, ¼ cup juice from the cherries, one cup of granulated sugar, five tablespoons of pastry flour, ¼ teaspoon of salt, ¼ teaspoon almond extract, and a teaspoon of butter.

You drain the cherries, measure three cups and add ¼ cup of juice, then you measure and sift the sugar, flour and salt together. Add this to the cherries and stir lightly. Add the almond and stir some more. Pour this into a pastry lined pan and dot with butter. Wet the edge of the lower crust with cold water and place the upper crust over the pie and trim it to within a quarter of an inch of the pan. Turn the edge of the upper crust under the edge of the lower crust and crimp the edge of the crust with your fingers. Bake in an oven at 400 degrees for three-quarters of an hour.

That's how the champ does it.

Jackie has taught everybody in her family to love cherry pies —except her mother.

"Mom hates the things," she said.

Employment Rising February Total High

With employment throughout the state showing an unusually early upturn after the winter slump, the state employment service reports that Medford's unemployment figure at the first of February was still about one thousand higher than at the same time last year.

On February 1, 1949, there were 2,700 out of work here while at the first of this month the employment service listed 3,800 idle workers, including 500 women. Since that time, however, improved weather has given impetus to construction and agriculture and the lumber industry has felt a new surge of activity.

Top Square Dance Caller To Preside At Jamboree Here

Jack Hoheisal, Alhambra, Cal., one of the top "callers" in the United States, will be caller when the Rogue Valley Square Dance jamboree is held at the Medford senior high school gymnasium on March 25.

Medford's first big square dance jamboree is being sponsored by the YMCA with Kenneth Denman as chairman.

"Y" officials said that the gymnasium will allow room for 400 dancers and that dance tickets will be limited to that number. Tickets will be available beginning March 2 at the "Y" desk or from committee members. There also will be spectator tickets.

Dances Programed

Tentative dance programs will accompany the tickets.

Hoheisal, reportedly, has made some excellent square dance records. He will give some instruction in square and round dance numbers with which persons here are not familiar.

Committee members in addition to Denman are Mr. and Mrs. Glen Smith, program; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Crump and Mr. and Mrs. Darell Huson, tickets; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Campbell, hospitality; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ragsdale and Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Bessonette, music and public address system; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Harris and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Robertson, house, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Van Dyke, concessions.
