

1st Christian Church Service To Be Aired

Sunday morning worship service of the First Christian Church will be broadcast over KYJC between 11 a. m. and 12 noon.

Sunday will inaugurate the annual observance of the Week of Compassion by the congregation, which this year is combined with the world-wide Protestant program, "One Great Hour of Sharing."

The pastor, the Rev. Holly Roy Jarvis, will speak on the theme, "Keeping Faith With Tomorrow's World." The choir will present a special anthem under the direction of E. Ronald Rice, with Mrs. Marguerite Conrad at the organ.

The intermediate young people will meet at 6 p. m. with the senior young people scheduled to assemble at 6:30 in the fireplace room of Fellowship hall.

The Sunday evening service will be held at 7:30 with the youth choir assisting in the program. Special music will be presented. At this service the minister will speak on the theme, "What God Cannot Do."

The public is welcome.

College Religious Revivals Predicted

Columbia, S. C., Mar. 3—(U.P.) Evangelist Billy Graham, riding high on a southern revival tide, predicted today that college students soon would hit the sawdust trail in evangelism outbreaks on the nation's campuses.

"Every great revival in modern history has started in colleges," he said.

The threat of a third world war plus a Christian re-awakening in philosophy had collegians today more receptive to evangelism than any college generation in 20 years, Graham said.

Graham has been drawing crowds of up to 6,000 persons nightly in his meetings here for 10 days. He boasts of more than 1,800 converts in South Carolina, a record unmatched by Billy Sunday in meetings here 40 years ago.

Bible Prophecy Talk Seventh Day Church

One of the outstanding predictions of the current Bible prophecy lectures is the coming of seven terrible plagues to this earth, according to Pastor O. E. Schnepfer of the Seventh-Day Adventist church. The services are continuing three nights each week.

Tonight the subject will be "The Seven Plagues of the Apocalypse." Sunday evening Pastor Schnepfer will tell all about "God's Rule of Right."

There will be special music by the orchestra and the vibraharp beginning at 7:30 p. m. All are invited.

Monk Breaks Record By Living So Long

South Boston, Va. (U.P.)—A pet cebus monkey that was purchased when Woodrow Wilson was president has attained the ripe old age of 31, equal to about 130 years in a human being.

Hugh Vaughan bought the monkey from a New York pet shop when it was about two years old. Dr. "at Driscoll" became interested in the monkey's age and corresponded with zoological authorities.

From the American Museum of Natural History came this reply: "We can find no record of this type monkey living to such an age. The nearest record in the Philadelphia Zoological Gardens that dated in 1919 at the age of 27 years."

Wrote Lee S. Crandall, general curator of the New York Zoological Society: "If your animal's 31 years are properly authenticated, the record exceeds any other known to me."

Vaughan said his pet still was going strong.
