AROUND HOLLYWOOD
By VIRGINIA MacPHERSON
United Press Correspondent

Hollywood, Mar. 8—(U.P.)—Actor Cecil Kellaway, who admits he's fat and 55, said today there's a revolt brewing among Hollywood's old folks.
Actors with pot bellies and glamour girls with sagging curves are fed up with the way studio bosses harp on glamour.
Kellaway, a white haired gent who was nominated for an "Oscar" last year for his leprechaun role in "Luck of the Irish," said it's okay to be old around this town—but you have to be "old with sex appeal."
"Everybody must be glamorous—or pretty," he growled. "It's absurd. How many grandfathers do you know with sex appeal?"
"Years ago we had Marie Dressler, Lon Chaney, Emil Jannings, and the rest. They all packed movie houses. They were old but they were big, big stars."
Today? Hah! They'd get bit in the circuit court of the state of Oregon for Jackson County Probate Department. In the matter of the estate of E. CARL BENNETT, deceased.
The undersigned having been appointed administrator of the above estate by the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Jackson County, Probate Department, and having qualified, notice is hereby given to all persons having claims against said estate to present them at the office of the undersigned's attorney, at 126 East Main Street, Medford, Oregon, properly verified and with proper voucher within six months from the date of the first publication of this notice which is the 6 day of March, 1950.

In the Day's News
By FRANK JENKINS
From New York:
"A 19-year-old youth, just released from a hospital for the criminal insane, slaughtered four STRANGERS and stabbed three other persons in a 10-minute rampage through Brooklyn streets yesterday."
His weapon was a 14-inch carving knife, which he grabbed suddenly from a restaurant kitchen when he started on his rampage.
TWO young fathers, each pushing a baby carriage, were encountered by the madman. He plunged his knife into one of them. It hit a bone and stuck and the killer's fingers slipped from the handle. The stricken man staggered away.
The killer followed, plucked the knife from his victim's chest and went after the other youth (father, who fled, pushing his baby ahead of him. He made it to his house, got through the door and slammed it behind him before the crazed knife-wielder could catch up with him.
With four persons dead and three more badly slashed, the bloody incident came to an end when policemen beat the knife out of the killer's hands, overpowered him and bound him.
THE youth was a colored boy— which means nothing at all. A few months ago a white boy ran similarly amuck (in Camden, New Jersey, only a few miles from Brooklyn, where this happened) and killed 13 persons before he was stopped. He was armed with a gun, which is faster and deadlier than a knife.
MAYBE we can deal with individual crazed killers like these two.
BUT HOW ARE YOU GOING TO DEAL WITH THE MAD MEN IN THE KREMLIN?
ONE of these poor devils (no matter how terrible their deeds, we can only pity, men whose minds go to pieces) was armed with a carving knife. The other had a gun—a mere handgun.
The insane men in the Kremlin also testified that every Soviet diplomat and every member of the communist party in the United States worked as a spy during the war.
"We were merely allies because there was a war on," he said.
Kravchenko said he personally helped four Russian couriers to pack for shipment to Moscow "six black suitcases" containing secret data on American war industry development.
Asked what precautions the Russians took to conceal their shipments, Kravchenko replied with a smile:
"None. Who cared? Nobody ever checked them."
Upholds Jordan Testimony
His testimony corroborated in part a story previously told to the committee by former air force Maj. George Racey Jordan, wartime lend-lease expeditor at the Great Falls, Mont., air base.
Jordan had testified that "trunkloads" of secret American documents passed through Great Falls in Soviet mail shipments en route to Russia.
Los Angeles, Mar. 8—(U.P.)—Arthur K. Whyte, 55, former publisher of the San Diego Union-Tribune, died at his home here last night of a heart attack.

Tale Of Lost Boys Told To Hide Burglary
Portland, Ore., Mar. 8—(U.P.)—Police said today the story of three small boys who said they became lost in the woods on a week-end camping trip actually was told to cover a neighborhood burglary.
Officers said the trio had confessed they obtained $170 from a neighbor's home and then fled into the woods to avoid being arrested. Police said they admitted breaking into the home of Fred R. Hullman in north Portland.
Two of the boys, brothers, aged 11 and 12, watched the house until they saw police arrive to investigate the burglary. They notified their 12-year-old companion, officers said, and then decided to run away.
They said they purchased air rifles, pup tents and canned food for grubstake and stayed in the Linnton hills Saturday night and Sunday. They were spotted Monday morning by an uncle of one boy while out "hunting" with the air rifles.
All three boys were held in juvenile quarters at police headquarters.
lin have at their command all of the complicated weapons that modern science has been able to devise. I think we can all agree that these two poor mentally-sick youngsters (one in Brooklyn, the other in Camden) were animated by no conscious purpose. They just blew their tops, and what happened happened.
The men in the Kremlin HAVE a conscious purpose. Their purpose is to conquer the world and bring all the people in it under the sway of their wills.
That is what makes them so dangerous.
HOW are we to handle them? I don't know. I don't think anyone knows. The pitiful part of it all, I think, is that so few of us realize how terrible is the menace of these men in the Kremlin who are just as crazy as these individuals in Brooklyn and Camden and whose power to destroy is so FANTASTICALLY greater.
