Costume Party Planned For County Teachers In Ashland Gymnasium

Theme for this year's annual spring party of Jackson county school teachers, to be held Friday evening in Ashland, will be "hard times" and those attending are asked to wear appropriate costumes. The party is sponsored by the Jackson county division of Oregon Education association and is set for 7:30 p. m. in Lincoln school, Ashland.

Entertainment will include square dancing and the committee in charge promises "lots of food and fun."

All Jackson county school teachers are invited to attend.

Square Dance Group To Meet Wednesday

The YMCA square dance group will meet Wednesday, March 8 at 8 p. m., the association announces, with an hour of folk dancing from 7 to 8 p. m. Kenneth Denman is program chairman for the evening, and Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Heideman and Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Kaye will be hosts.

Following the square dancing, the jamboree committee will hold a brief meeting.

Guests who are experienced dancers are invited to attend.

Better Halves Club

Better Halves' club of the Homemakers' class of the First Methodist church will meet Thursday, March 9 at the home of Mrs. Ed Pasche, corner of Stewart avenue and South Peach street. All women of the class are invited to attend, and to take their sewing.

Methodist Women Hear Director of Crusade

Dr. J. H. Soltman, who is crusade director in the building project of the local Methodist church, was a speaker before the Woman's Society of Christian Service during a luncheon meeting held recently in the church dining hall. Choosing as his topic "A Woman's Gift" Dr. Soltman told of the importance of the work of church women in promoting progress in every field of Christian endeavor. He briefly outlined the procedure to be followed in the campaign for funds and asked the co-operation of the society.

Mrs. J. C. Sparks led the devotional period with Mrs. L. C. Williams assisting in presenting a character part designed to show the great need of teaching illiterate people. Mrs. Lucille Schoppert sang the incidental solo parts.

Mrs. Charles Beery, program chairman, explained methods now being used in teaching illiterates. She stressed the importance of the missions which assist in this work.

Assisting in presenting the program were Mrs. E. Branchfield, Mrs. J. R. Woodford and Mrs. G. W. Wagner.

During the business hour at 11 o'clock the president, Mrs. Harry Meyers announced a rummage sale to be held in the Eagles hall during the month of April with circle seven to collect articles for the sale. It was also stated that the new luncheon hour for future monthly meetings will be 12:30 p. m.

Phoenix Club's Meeting

Phoenix Garden club has planned the next meeting for Friday, March 10 at the Presbyterian church in Phoenix. The hostesses, Mesdames Chris Wolff, Roy LeVander and Velma Johnson, plan to serve desert promptly at 1 p. m. to make way for a long afternoon program.

All members are asked to bring plants and shrubs from their gardens, plainly marked for the annual sale for the membership of the club.

All are reminded of the contest being conducted by the contest committee. This month the theme will be St. Patrick's day courage.

Mrs. Robert Frame will conduct the lesson "Back Yard Fun."

Zuleima Temple To Elect Officers

Election of officers will be held at a meeting of Zuleima temple, Daughters of the Nile, set for Saturday, March 11, in the Masonic temple in Grants Pass.

Luncheon will be served at 12 o'clock at the Grants Pass Country club, with the meeting at the temple following at 2 p. m. Reservations for the luncheon are being made with Mrs. Wilbur A. Arnold, telephone 2-4729, Medford.

A large attendance is expected for this meeting.

Roosevelt Association Announces Silver Tea

Roosevelt Parent-Teacher association will celebrate Founder's day with a silver tea at the meeting to be held at the school Friday, March 10 at 2:30 p. m. Mothers of children in the second grade will act as hostesses, with Mrs. O. H. Bengtson as chairman. Past presidents will be honored.

A panel discussion of education will be put on by students of Dr. Jack McAuley, head of the department of education of Southern Oregon college. All parents are cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Marjorie Butler Attends Dean's Meet

Mrs. Marjorie Butler, dean of girls for Medford senior high school, attended the annual meeting of the Oregon Association of Deans of Women and Girls held last Saturday and Sunday at Pilot Butte inn, Bend. During the session the group voted to apply to the Oregon Education association for affiliation.

One of the interesting features of the program was a panel discussion by six foreign students who compared the education systems of their countries with that of the United States. Mrs. Butler reports. The students were from England, Finland, the Philippine Islands, China, Germany and Ireland.

Miss Martha Morton, assistant dean of women at Oregon State college, reported on the northwest personnel conference recently held in Tacoma, Wash., and other deans also spoke.

Election of officers was held, with Mrs. Florence Morrison of Springfield Union high school named president. Other new officers are Mrs. Dorothy Winters, Eastern Oregon college, La Grande, vice president; Mrs. Verna Boyles, OSC, secretary; and Miss Mary E. Stevens, Northwest Christian college, Eugene, treasurer.

LEADER—Jack Fina, above, will bring his noted orchestra to Ashland tomorrow at 9 p. m. for a dance at the Elks temple. The dance is for Elks and their invited guests, and will last until 1 a. m. Fina, formerly pianist with Freddy Martin, made popular modern arrangements of a number of Tchaikovsky and Rachmaninoff composition. He comes to Ashland from Los Angeles where his orchestra has been playing at the Cocoanut Grove.

The Grange

Enterprise Grange

The Chinese potluck supper at the last meeting of Enterprise Grange was well attended and greatly enjoyed. A Chinese atmosphere was created by table decorations and by several members wearing Chinese hats and robes. A Chinese table display was arranged by Mrs. Estrid Roslington.

Lecture hour program included poems and story by Lecturer Jack Hinson; humorous reading by Mrs. Mary Moore; vocal solo, by Joe Novak; accordion solos and duet, by Tim and Mike Goldt; skit, by Grace Hinson, Katura Ries and Lottie Martin; skit, by Eddie Novak, James Martin and Ralph Badcock.

Pomona Master John Gray of Gold Hill was a visitor and announced opening of the Red Cross drive.

Next regular meeting will be Tuesday, March 14, at 8 p. m.

ANIMAL PROBLEM

Mexico City, Mar. 8—(U.P.)—The government said today it was building a wire fence around the city's central airport. Too many cows, goats and mules wander onto the field's runways, officials said.

WEATHER
By United Press
Northern California—Mostly cloudy today, tonight and Thursday with local light rain from San Francisco and Sacramento north; generally fair Thursday; colder tonight and cooler in the southern interior; Thursday southerly wind 12-25 mph from Point Arena north today, but west to northwest 12-25 mph otherwise.

WARM 30 BELOW
Belmont, N. H.—(U.P.)—Parents worried when Belmont Boy Scouts camped out in an army tent the night the temperature fell to 30 degrees below zero. Scoutmaster Gardner Gregory assured them an old-fashioned barrel stove kept the temperature in the tent up to about 70 degrees above.

COLD OUT THERE
Seattle, Wash. (U.P.)—Washington state motorists, caught in a prolonged cold spell, wondered what they could use besides antifreeze, to protect their cars. Several reported that spare tires were frozen solid to tire wells in their autos' trunks.
