Scout Anniversary To Be Celebrated; Plan Many Events

Girl scouts of the Medford district have planned a busy week-end in observance of the 38th birthday celebration of the founding of the Girl scout organization on March 12, 1912, by Juliette Gordon Low.

On the radio there will be both local and national programs of special appeal to Girl scouts. For several weeks Mrs. Michele Rossi's junior high school troop has been rehearsing the skit "How Important is a Pencil," which the troop will present over KNED at 4 p.m. today. The skit centers around the theme of overseas friendship bags which is the scouts' international project for the year.

Mrs. Paul Snook's central Point seventh grade troop will present the skit, "Susan Meets with Glamour." In presenting these radio plays, the Girl scout troops are filling a part of the requirements for the radio badge. Mrs. Snook's troop will be heard over station KYJC Saturday, March 11, at 10:15 a.m. Over KNED Saturday from 2 to 2:30 p.m. will be heard a national scout program, "Annual Girl Scout Birthday Party from Los Angeles."

Recent Birthday Party Honors Stephen Vance

Mrs. Norman Vance entertained March 4 with a birthday party honoring her son, Stephen, on his first birthday. The party was at the home of Stephen's grandmother, Mrs. Kelly Brooks on Spring street.

Stephen received many gifts from guests present and refreshments included a birthday cake. Guests were Mrs. Ott Caster, great grandmother of the honored guest; Mrs. Lewis Vance, grandmother; Miss Elva Caster, great aunt; Mrs. Harold Brewster, Mrs. Harold Archer, Ellen and Donna, Mrs. George Wehmann and Lois, Mrs. Don Minear and Donalyn, Mrs. Harry Heartle and Kathie, Gordon Caster, Janet Edwards, Susan Nelson, Barbara, Jonel and Emma Lou Cooley.

Monthly Camp Dance Planned By Auxiliary

Women of the Eagles' auxiliary have planned the monthly dance at the domiciliary center at Camp White for Monday, March 13. Those attending are asked to meet at the FOE hall, 217 West Main street, at 7:15 p.m. for transportation to the camp.

An intermission program has been planned, the auxiliary announces, and each woman attending is asked to take a homemade cake to be served during the refreshment hour.

Duplicate Club Plays For Master Points

Medford Duplicate Bridge club members played for master points Tuesday night, and holding high score for the evening were Mrs. Frank R. Baker and B. L. Sanderson. They scored 123 points.

Second went to Mr. and Mrs. Al Gilhouse, with 119½ points, and third went to Mrs. T. J. Fuson and Mrs. R. J. Conroy, with one-half point less.

In fourth place were Mrs. F. G. Bunch and Mrs. Herbert Seitz, whose score totaled 116 points, and fifth went to Mrs. M. M. Herman and William Isaacs with 111½ points.

Three Given Degree By DeMolay Order

Gregory T. Hornecker, Earle Newman and Richard Crain were given the initiatory degree at a meeting of Medford DeMolay held last night. Nomination for next year's officers was opened and election is set for March 22.

During the meeting it was announced that Medford Bethel, Order of Job's Daughters, would give a dance March 15.

Last night's meeting was followed by a pie feed provided by members of DeMolay Mothers' club.

STUDENTS LEARN

Cambridge, Mass. — (U.P.) — Rope climbing — not Indian style, but for fire safety — is now compulsory for most Harvard freshmen. All students living above the ground floor of non-fireproof dormitories have to practice clambering down 12-foot ropes in the gymnasium, similar to fire-ropes installed in each dorm room.

Olive Rebekahs Plan Coming Costume Party; Ashland Members Visit

At the meeting of Olive Rebekah lodge Monday evening, plans were made for the next social meeting, which will be a costume party. Everyone attending is asked to wear a costume, or to wear green in recognition of St. Patrick's day. Old-fashioned clothing will be in keeping also, the committee announces.

Visitors included Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bibeau and Mr. and Mrs. David T. Lindsay, Ashland and Mrs. Helen Oakes, a Rebekah from Saskatoon, Can. Mrs. Oakes is visiting her mother, Mrs. Bertha Newton.

Mr. Bibeau, newly elected chairman of the leaders' council organized among IOOF and Rebekah lodges of this district, spoke of the work planned and invited the Rebekahs to a meeting at Gold Hill Sunday from 2 to 4 p.m.

Mrs. Minnie Bryant reported on a recent visit to the Odd Fellows home in Portland, stating that the members who lived there are apparently comfortable and happy.

Members of the FL club served refreshments from an attractively decorated table.

Mr. and Mrs. George Howard were committee chairmen.
