Radio Patter by Pat

Some of the many scenic beauty spots to be found in our beautiful state will be visited by the famed world traveler, Com. A. W. Scott, when he heads his "radio bus" in this direction--sometimes referred to as the Beaver State--for his "Romance Of The Highways" broadcast today over Station KYJC at 10:15 a. m.

A fruit which grows in profusion around Mt. Hood and which is named for a political party will provide the commander with his "unreal reality" story of the week!

"He That is Faithful", a stirring Biblical dramatization about two brothers--one sure of himself and his powers, the other unsure and doubtful of his worthiness to represent the Master--will be presented today at 2:30 p.m. over KYJC on "The Greatest Story Ever Told" program.

Conductor Morton Gould will make a guest appearance on two-piano team Cy Walter's and Stan Freeman's ABC "Piano Playhouse" over KYJC today at 4:30 p. m. Gould will be heard in his own score from the Theatre Guild hit, "Arms and the Girl."

Cute Jeanner Crain, the diminutive actress whose performance in the movie, "Pinky", has made her a strong candidate for Academy Award honors, will be the guest interviewed on the Louella O. Parsons broadcast over KYJC at 6:15 this evening.

Many program changes on your log for KYJC starting Monday. We suggest you give it a

Lost Watch Returns Some 50 Years Late

Johnstown, Pa. (U.P.)--You can't keep a good watch down, especially a large, gold and engraved timekeeper that was treasured by the fashionable back before the turn of the century.

George Varner of Johnstown has given a gold pocket watch in 1892, a birthday gift from his father and engraved with his name. A few years later, the watch was lost.

Varner later moved to Los Angeles and died in 1937, but before he died he relayed his confidence in the watch to his two sons, Clarence and Frank.

"It will turn up some time," he told them. And turn up it did. Workmen found it while clearing land at Grandview cemetery in the Johnstown district.

MARRIAGE DIDN'T JELL

Knoxville, Tenn. (U.P.)--James C. Davis' marriage didn't get past the wedding ceremony. Davis married Barbara Davis. Two days later he filed for divorce, charging that immediately after the ceremony his bride told him she didn't love him, that the marriage was a "grievous mistake" and that she didn't intend to live with him.
