

Knife And Fork Club Members Will Hear Fallon Speak Friday

Knife and Fork club members are promised a rare treat when Carlos Fallon speaks to the group in the Rogue Valley Country club Friday evening, March 17.

He will tell vividly of the motives, hopes and aspirations of the founders of Latin American republics and though he is not billed as a humorous speaker he is said to use both wit and humor.

A native Colombian, he helps us understand a little better our neighbors to the south and plays an important role in helping all nations of the Americas present a united front against the common enemy who would destroy us.

Though Colombian by birth, Fallon is descended from Irish forbears and fittingly enough he will speak here on St. Patrick's day.

He has recently returned from a five-month trade survey in South America. A citizen of this country, he makes his home in Washington, D. C.

Degree Of Honor

Degree of Honor will hold initiation Tuesday, March 15 in Knights of Pythias building at 8 p.m. All officers are asked to wear formal.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Anderson were married March 4 in pioneer Jacksonville Presbyterian church. Mrs. Anderson is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Harris of Myrtle Point, former Jacksonville residents. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Anderson, Jacksonville. The couple will make their home in Medford.

Anderson-Harris Service Held In Pioneer Church

Jacksoville—The pioneer Jacksonville Presbyterian church formed the setting Saturday, March 4, for the wedding of Miss Patricia Ann Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Harris, Myrtle Point, to Charles P. Anderson, Jacksonville. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Anderson, Jacksonville.

The Rev. Lawrence Mitchellmore of North Bend, performed the ceremony at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The Rev. Mr. Mitchellmore is a former pastor of the Jacksonville Presbyterian church.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and Miss Enid McKee accompanied by Mrs. C. L. Robinson, furnished the wedding music.

The bride's gown of white marquisette with bodice embroidered in satin and beads, was fashioned with a full train. Her veil, of fingertip length, was formed from a crown of beads and seed pearls. The gown had first been worn by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Charles Judd of Sanger, Cal.

For her flowers, the bride carried an orchid with white carnations.

Miss McKee, maid of honor, wore a green tulle dress and carried a nosegay of white and pink carnations.

Miss Myrna Hackert, Jacksonville, and Miss Trudy Harris, cousin of the bride from Murphy, served as bridesmaids and wore yellow net gowns over satin and carried nosegays of pink and white carnations.

Lozie Dawn Senter of Murphy, was flower girl and she wore a dotted Swiss gown. Jimmy and Jerry Mitchellmore, twin sons of the Rev. and Mrs. Mitchellmore, were double ring-bearers.

E. M. Anderson of Medford, the groom's brother, acted as best man and ushers were Don Harris of Jacksonville, brother of the bride, and Gene Campbell, Jacksonville.

The bride's mother wore a two-piece black crepe dress and her corsage was of white carnations. A gray two-piece dress was worn by the bridegroom's mother and her corsage was white carnations.

About 150 guests attended the wedding and reception following in the church parlors. Mrs. E. M. Anderson, sister-in-law of the bride, cut the cake and Mrs. R. J. Harris Jr., another sister-in-law.

Anniversary Marked At Family Gathering By Gold Hill Couple

Gold Hill—Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Cook of this city celebrated their golden wedding anniversary, Tuesday, March 7, with open house to friends and relatives called during the afternoon and evening. The daughter, Mrs. Floyd Lance, and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Alva Cook, were hostesses assisted by Mrs. Roy Pedersen and Mrs. Joe Hope, granddaughters of the couple.

Robert E. Cook and Miss Ada Bottoms were married at Fort Jones on March 7, 1890, and the couple lived there several years and both their children were born there.

From Fort Jones they moved to Medford, then to Footh Creek where they had their home many years. During that time Mr. Cook mined on Footh Creek and is now mining there after being employed several years at the cement plant and at the work.

Their two children, Alva E. Cook and Mrs. Catherine Lance live in Gold Hill. They have five grandchildren, Mrs. Ruth Hope of Medford, Mrs. Maxine Pedersen of Gold Hill; Mrs. Jewell Miller of Ashland, and Bobby Lance of this city, and Mrs. Alva Jean McCormick of Ontario, California, who could not be at the reception. There are four great grandchildren, Lance Hope, Jean Marie Pedersen, Lonnie Miller and Marlene McCormick.

Of special interest were Mrs. of town guests, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Elliott of Redding, California, who were also celebrating their forty-seventh anniversary March 7. Mrs. Elliott is a sister of Mr. Cook, and the couples have spent several wedding anniversaries together. Mrs. Jack Maassen of Medford was another out of town guest. She is a sister of Mr. Elliott.

Gifts and congratulatory cards were received from the many friends. One gift was a wedding cake baked and decorated by Mrs. Earl Moore.

Large, heavily framed pictures of the couple taken about the time they were married were displayed. There were also pictures of their children taken when the children were small.

Medford Couple Back From Southern Trip

Among Medford residents to return recently from mid-winter vacations are the Mark A. Goldys. Leaving here in mid-January, the couple went by the southern route to Florida where they spent some time in St. Petersburg and Fort Lauderdale. They also visited Cypress Gardens and Silver Springs.

While in St. Petersburg they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Spatz from here, who were also vacationing there.

In Mobile, Ala., they viewed the Azalea festival which they described as "simply beautiful."

On the couple's return they stopped in New Orleans to see the Mardi Gras and spent some time with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Leverette and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Collins from Medford, who had also planned their itineraries so they might view the festive affair.

En route from there the Goldys drove through Texas and Arizona, and in California they called on friends in Glendale, Santa Barbara, and Berkeley.

In Los Gatos they visited Mrs. Goldy's son, John Henselman, who is attending San Jose state there. In San Francisco they visited another son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Henselman.

1 YEAR OLD

This is the anniversary edition of my diary . . . our new shop is one year old the 15th of March. It's been a wonderful year with many new friends coming in to stand us and our old friends standing by to give us encouragement and loyalty. Bert and I want to thank you sincerely for being so good to us . . .

We have tried very hard to bring you beautiful clothes in new styles and new materials. We intend always to have fabrics and fashions designed by leading couturiers. This is only the beginning— for as we learn your preference . . . so we can better please you.

We've tried to be more than just a style shop . . . we want to be part of your shopping life . . . where you can drop in for a cheery word . . . and a glance at our new lovelies as we unpack them.

Thank you again and do stop by and wish us Happy Birthday. . . .

P. S.

You know our ceiling collapsed last week. Unfortunately we had to be closed for three days at a time you were planning your Spring wardrobes. But THIS will compensate you a little bit. Plaster dust and confusion was awfully hard on some of our NEW merchandise . . . so we are having a Ceiling Sale. . . .

Dear Mrs. Medford:

Last week we named our golden carved candlesticks, our new oval framed pictures, among the lovely things we brought home from our buying trip. . . . to continue . . .

We have Carlton red luster ware from England. The red is the heart red of a glowing ruby—each piece is lined with gold.

Carlton, too, has sent individual candy and jam dishes with delicate pastel flowers growing on them. Dainty spoons complete the gift for showers or bridge . . . and only $1.59.

Copper kettles and bowls for Spring gardening. A brass mantle planter with a hidden light for your secret garden . . . more next week.
