Band To Perform — Members of the Eve Prentice accordion band will entertain members of the Gold Hill Odd Fellows lodge Tuesday beginning at 8:30 p.m.

Cooties — Military Order of the Cootie will meet in the VFW hall at 8 p.m. Tuesday. Members of the Grants Pass order will be guests and refreshments will be served following the regular meeting.

Reports To Field — Pvt. John W. Deuel, 19, son of Mrs. Edith Skyrman, route 1, box 445, Central Point, has reported to Lackland Air Force base, San Antonio, Tex., for 13 weeks basic training in the air forces.

Meeting Changed — Due to sickness, the meeting of the Townsend club set for Wednesday will be held at the home of Mrs. Maude Davis, 308 South Newtown street, instead of at the usual location.

Crowds at Lake — A total of 347 visitors entered the gates at Crater Lake national park Sunday for sight-seeing and to enjoy excellent skiing conditions. Last night another half-inch of snow fell at the park making a total depth of 129 inches on the ground.

Reservists Meeting — The southern Oregon chapter of the air reservists' association will meet at 8 p.m. Wednesday at the Medford airport. Members of the 0417th VAR who attend will receive credit in addition to that given for attendance at their own meetings.

Jailed — Eugene Toler (or Tolten), Hollywood, Cal., has been lodged in the county jail on spurious check charges, according to city police who arrested him Friday. He is accused of passing an $8.75 check at Brown's cafe and $12.75 check at Dell's Hamburger stand.

House Entered — City police reported that the residence of Mrs. Octavia Waddell, 11 Myrtle street, was entered last weekend and the bedrooms ransacked. Entry was gained by breaking a rear door window and unlocking the night latch. Mrs. Waddell was reportedly out of town on vacation.

Car Damaged — A damaged car registered to Noble Brown, Central Point, was found parked at Main and Ivy streets early this morning. It apparently had hit a light pole, police said. They reported that a front wheel had been folded back under the car and a fender almost torn off by the impact.

To Build — Dr. Lee Mellish was issued a building permit Saturday to erect a $15,000 house at 117 Black Oak drive. K. G. Nipedal applied today to make a $600 addition to a house at 340 North Central avenue. Crater Lake motors will make $600 renovations to the public garage at Main and Fir streets.

Dance Class — The Medford YMCA Square Dance group's dance class will convene at 8 p.m. today at the "Y" for members and guests. The program will be practice and instruction for the jamboree. "Y" members wishing to learn square dancing are asked to sign for the new series of classes starting March 27.

Auto Accident — Mrs. Olive Young, 810 South Holly street, reportedly suffered bruises and back injuries early this morning in an auto accident near Central Point. She was brought to Community hospital in a Perl ambulance. Her physician said she may be released tomorrow. Details on the mishap were not available.

Motorists Injured — Ellison J. and Paul M. Kelly, Central Point, and Mrs. Lura M. Vessey, 844 Dakota avenue, suffered slight injuries in an auto mishap yesterday, according to reports at the city police station. Cars driven by Kelly and the Vessey woman collided at 10th and Laurel streets about 7:30 a.m. The Kelly car was said badly damaged and the Vessey sedan considerably damaged.

Wheel Breaks — A wheel broke off a trailer behind a sedan operated by Eugene Austin, 521 Berrydale avenue, and struck and slightly damaged a car operated by J. W. Alves, 2681 Merriam road, yesterday according to a report filed with city police. The accident occurred at the intersection of Table Rock road and Berrydale avenue. The Alves' machine was said to have stopped before being struck.

School Survey — Miss Neva Dallas, supervisor of elementary education for the state department of education, is surveying the Ashland schools this week. She will inspect the new Walker avenue and Briscoe schools as well as the additions and improvements in the Lincoln and Bellview buildings. She expects to complete her survey in three days. Basic school support funds are allocated on the basis of her findings.

Dead line Sunday Classified is at 7 Saturdays.

Wall Street

New York, Mar. 13 — (U.P.) — Trading in stocks today fell off to the lightest level of the year. Prices moved irregularly. Strength in a few issues lifted the industrial average which had to overcome a 28-cent dividend handicap. Rails sagged because of weakness in Nickel Plate. Utilities firmed with new highs in such issues as Commonwealth Edison and Consolidated Edison.
Dow Jones closing stock averages: 30 industrials 203.09 up 0.13; 20 railroads 54.73 off 0.33; 15 utilities 42.95 up 0.06; 65 stocks 73.54 off 0.06.
Sales today approximated 1,080,000 shares against 1,260,000 shares traded last Friday.
