MEDFORD (OREGON) MAIL TRIBUNE—NINE

Belgian Storm Centers—Normally placid Belgians have taken violent issue with each other as they prepare to vote on the return of King Leopold (right) to the throne after five years of post-war exile. His return is favored by the Catholic groups and opposed by Socialists groups, who charge that he surrendered to the Germans during a critical phase of the German breakthrough toward France; that he stayed in Belgium after the German occupation; and that he married a commoner, now Princess de Rethy (left), during the occupation. The two groups fought it out with flutes, smoke bombs and flaming arrows in Brussels, trying to break up each other's meetings and burn down opposition posters.

ADVENTUROUS DAY. Atlanta (U.P.)—Grady hospital officials praised the constitution of a small boy who came in (1) bitten on the right hand by a dog, (2) pecked on the left hand by a rooster, and (3) after having been exposed to smallpox.

The nation's only municipally owned opera house is in San Francisco.
