Four Corners Chapel Services Scheduled
Rev. C. W. Frost, pastor of the Apostolic Faith church, Medford, announced today that a series of meetings will be held at the Four Corners on Midway road in the Community chapel, a portable tabernacle used for evangelistic work.

There has been much inquiry as to the construction of this building, he said. It was designed mainly by the Rev. Mr. Frost several years ago to be used where a church house was not available for gospel services.

The building, of plywood construction, is 20 x 40 feet and can be set up and ready for use in one day. It is made in sections 4x8 feet, which are bolted together, and the rafters are made in two sections, hinged in the center. The tabernacle has an aluminum roof.

This Community chapel is located by the Round-up cafe at the Four Corners, and the first service will be Sunday at 3 p.m. Many musicians, singers, and young people from the Medford church plan to participate in the opening, and the public is welcome, at 8 p.m.

next Wednesday and Thursday. There will also be services. Dead line on Classified Ads: 3:30 p.m. for following day; 10 a.m. Monday for Monday; noon Saturday for Sunday a.m.

Farmers' Conference Slated C. P. Church

Central Point, Mar. 17—The importance of the family type farm to the welfare of the community and the church to farm families will be the subject of a conference in the Presbyterian church of Central Point, Tuesday, March 21, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

It is open to all interested farm people and leaders and will be conducted by the rural life committee of the Oregon council. This will be the only conference for Jackson and Josephine counties.

Leader Listed
Leader of the conference will be Shirley Greene, agricultural relations secretary for the council for social action of the Congregational Christian churches from Merom, Ind. Mr. Green is recognized nationally by the Home.

Mr. Greene was in Oregon two years ago and at that time is said to have given considerable help to church and farm leaders in Malheur and Jefferson counties.

According to Rev. J. K. Swank, pastor of the entertaining church, all persons interested in the welfare of the farm and rural communities are invited.

Lunch will be served at the church. Seattle, Wash.—(U.P.)—Police arrested a bogus check artist after working with what they termed "one of the slickest descriptions ever given." The man who was bilked said he couldn't remember what the woman felon looked like. "All I remember was that low, low neckline," he said.

Vesper Music Sunday At Methodist Church

Bernard Windt, cellist, and Mrs. C. R. Adamson, organist, will be featured in 15 minutes of vesper music at the beginning of the evening service at the First Methodist church Sunday at 7:30.

Numbers played will include "Arioso," "Adagio," and "Caro Mio Ben." Mr. Windt is director of music of Phoenix schools.

Rev. Meredith Groves will preach on the theme "Thy Will Be Done." The youth choir will sing "Angel Voices" with incidental solo by Dolores Coghlin.

At the 11 a.m. service the Rev. Mr. Groves will preach on the theme "Our Faith in Prayer." The choir will sing "Come Unto Me" and Mrs. C. R. Adamson, the solo "Sheep and Lambs." Bill Walker will play selected organ numbers at both services.
