Accordion Instructor Joins Purucker Store

Fred J. Divisek, teacher of the accordion who joined the staff of the Purucker Piano house last week, will conduct the five-week accordion contest being held here, the music store said today.

Divisek, who is a permanent addition to the Purucker firm, will be joined by his wife and two children as soon as he finds a house. He taught music in Chicago for many years, and he led an accordion band of 100 pieces which appeared at the world's fair there.

He was a member of the Chicago Opera orchestra for 18 years, and was assistant librarian for the Opera Music Library. He has been a player and instructor on percussion instruments, including three years on faculty of Elmhurst college near Chicago. Divisek also has played in light opera orchestras, and with the Victor Borge orchestra, and has played in classical orchestras under the direction of Rodzinski, Reiner and others.

His most recent work has been in the American Broadcasting company studios in San Francisco, where he led an accordion band.

Name Committeemen For Easter Egg Hunt

Thomas D. Shepard has been named 1950 chairman for the annual Medford Kiwanis club Easter egg hunt for the children of Medford and vicinity.

He announced that the event will be held Saturday morning, April 8. The exact time and place and details of the program will be announced later.

Youngsters have swarmed over the hunting areas by the hundreds at the event in past years. Shepard said that Kiwanians hope to have more eggs than ever for the 1950 hunt and to attract a record number of children.

Committeemen Named
Movie Actor Smiley Burnett entertained youngsters at the 1949 event.

Kiwanis committeemen include Maj. Jack Little and Glen

Building In Medford Maintains Pace In '49

A summary of Pacific northwest building data, prepared by the statistical department of the Equitable Savings and Loan association, shows that the dollar volume of building permits in Medford in 1949 was nearly equal to that of 1948. Permit values last year totaled $2,807,840, slightly higher than in 1948 when they totaled $2,806,425. The majority of the principal cities in the northwest registered declines.

Among the building highlights for 1949 listed by the association was the $500,084 spent in Medford for school expansion and remodeling.
