

Actress To Tell Of Plans For Own KYJC Radio Show

June Storey, Gene Autry's leading lady in numerous Republic western movies and now a resident of the Eagle Point district, will announce plans for her own Medford radio show during a broadcast Tuesday evening over station KYJC from the Craterian theater stage.

June Storey

At that time she will also present prizes to winners in the McLain's Drug center contest for the original Amateur Hour.

The actress in real life is Mrs. Fred Bohling. She and her husband and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Fidler are partners in the operation of Junad dairy along Rogue river.

Miss Storey entered pictures at the age of 17 when she signed a six-year contract with 20th Century-Fox.

Although best known for leading roles with Autry and Ken Curtis, she has been acclaimed by critics for supporting performances in "Gilda" (Dorothy) with Herbert Marshall, "Strange Woman" with Hedy Lamarr and "The Snake Pit" with Olivia DeHavilland. Her portrayal of Gretchen in the picture "In Old Chicago," is considered outstanding.

Miss Storey also appeared in several Broadway productions and on well-known radio shows such as "Elizy Queen."

KYJC will broadcast her new show.
