Square Dance Jamboree . . . March 25th.

Let's see what we have to add to the general fun.

First . . . half petticoats with dust ruffles of net, or embroidered ruffles to wear under your yards full of skirts . . . when they swing you off the ground—you'll be a froth of femininity. Second . . . Skirts very full and very swiny with gay patterns to add a graceful do-de-do.

Third . . . Blouses made especially for dancing . . . for they have the stitched bodice for snug fitting and no creeping. You can't do a Texas Star with your shirt tail dragging. There are plain ones, eyelet embroidered off the shoulder beauties, and ruffled high neck longer sleeved blouses, very dainty and very much like grandma used to wear when SHE did a right and left thru.

So "swing 'em high . . . swing 'em low . . . keep on swinging your calico." . . . It's for a good cause.

Not long ago I recommended my dentist, Dr. Mohr, to one of my patrons. After finishing her work he sent me a very nice card expressing his gratitude for my thoughtfulness. It was a gesture I liked very much.

I only wish I too might do the same but of course I don't have the addresses of all the lovely ladies who have given us a nice word, so please allow me to say we definitely appreciate your boosting us and we will reciprocate by doing our utmost to give you the best.
