Dusette to Tangle With Stojack

Since the refusal of the Great Atlas to wrestle here next Thursday night for a reasonable financial stipend, Mack Lillard announced this morning that Georges Dusette, the popular French-Canadian Hercules, will tangle with the Tacoma airplane spin artist in the feature bout. The card will consist of three 45-minute matches, each to go two out of three falls.

Dusette and Stojack are not strangers to each other and since both have a big bag of tricks and a lot of speed, a good fast match is expected.

Carr To Return

The middle match will mark the return to Medford of Charley Carr of Shreveport, La., who now holds the junior heavyweight championship of the Hawaiian islands. Carr has not appeared here in many years but will be remembered by the older wrestling fans for his clean and scientific way in which he carries on his work. The island champ will be pressed to the fullest, however, if he hopes to win his bout for he tangles with Tough Tony Ross, the Salem terror.

The opener will send young Danno McDonald, Canadian sensation, against Lee Grable, popular Los Angeles muscle mangler, starting at 8:30 p.m.

Stayton Man Wins Rifle Tournament

Eugene Laux, Stayton, Ore., won the seventh annual Gallery Rifle tournament held here yesterday by the Medford Rifle club, with an aggregate score of 932. He received the Sam's Sporting Goods trophy, and cigarette lighter given by Grabow's Jewelers.

Other aggregate winners were Max Terzenbach, Medford 942, and Al Rogers, Newberg, 942.

Winners in classes were: Expert, first H. F. Breitenstein, Stayton, 936; second Roy Banta, Medford, 929. Sharpshooter, first Archie Haskins, Ashland, 938; second Howard Trivelin, Yreka, Cal., 924. Marksman, first William Hunting, Medford, 878; second Marguerita Banta, Medford 875.

Hunting received the Barker's trophy for high marksman, and Eileen Hunting, Medford, won high lady's place with 902, and an Elgin American compact given by Grabow's Jewelers.

Pro Hoopers Confused

Confusion gripped the National Basketball association today although the regular season closed last night after five long months. Four teams which earned berths in the playoffs wound up in amazing deadlocks. So now the league has scheduled playoffs before the playoff.

The mix-up was confined to the central division, where the Minneapolis Lakers and the Rochester Royals tied for first place, and the Ft. Wayne Pistons and the Chicago Stags tied for third place.

In order to decide their respective opponents in the post-season championships, Ft. Wayne and Chicago met at Chicago tonight in the third place playoff, while Minneapolis and Rochester tangle for the first place spot tomorrow night at Rochester.

Oregon State Wins Wrestling Laurels

Berkeley, Cal., Mar. 30—(UP)—Oregon State college's grapplers today held the 1950 Pacific coast intercollegiate wrestling championship. Oregon State piled up a total of 28 points in the two-day meet for the team title here Friday and Saturday. 1949 champion Washington State tied with San Diego State for second with 20 points each.

Two of last year's individual champions retained their titles. They were Sosh Watanabe, UCLA, 121-pounder, and Herb Haberlach, Oregon State heavyweight.

Burdette Scouting For Amateur Ringmen

Larry Burdette, Southern Oregon Boxing club matchmaker, turned his attention to Portland today in an effort to secure opponents for Don Harper, Gold Hill knockout sensation, and Donovan Wolfe, pride of Phoenix.

Efforts to secure fighters from Redding, Klamath Falls and Happy Camp have not yet fallen through. Burdette said, but dimmed considerably yesterday when the "right persons" could not be contacted.

"We'll have a good fight card for the fans Wednesday night," Burdette said reassuringly this morning.

Joe Carothers of Grants Pass, who was to have met Wolfe in the lower half of the double main event, pulled out Saturday, Burdette said.

Meanwhile, Burdette and Co-promoter Owen Thomas have lined up an unusually good supporting card, which will see Killer Dick Adkins, the Griffin Creek terror, move up to his first semi-final spot when he goes against Chief Super, clever little Ford Jones Indian.

Hugo Vernon, who won the hearts of the fans if not the decision in his initial ring appearance two weeks ago, takes on C. W. Lacy, Medford's fighting cop, in the special event. Lacy will have experience on Vernon, who hopes to rely on his boxing ability to upset the apple cart.

Topping the preliminaries will be a set-to between Corky King, formerly of Oakland, Cal., against Johnny Hamilton in a rematch. Hamilton won the previous verdict and King is anxious to reverse the decision.

Red Barnhart, slugging Grants Pass clouter, goes against Grant Harrie, Yreka, and Bogey (Circus) Bogart meets One-Round Hogan of Table Rock in other matches.

The Bogart-Hogan affair will open the show at 8:30 p. m.

PCL Hockey Playoffs Set

Other playoff dates: Northern division—Tacoma at Vancouver, March 24; Vancouver at Tacoma, March 25; Seattle at New Westminster, March 22 and 23, third date to be set.

Southern division—Los Angeles at San Diego, March 24; San Francisco at Los Angeles, March 25; San Diego at Los Angeles, March 26; San Diego at San Francisco, March 29.

The winners in each division will play each other for the coast championships.

City College Eyes Tourney

New York, Mar. 20—(UP)—City College's college team in a white jersey today, but no team in history ever has pulled the classic "dribble double" of winning both tournaments in the same year.

But, then, no team ever had the chance that City college had tonight, for no team ever has won one tourney, and then gone into the other. For instance, Utah, of 1944 and Kentucky of 1949 each won the N.C.A.A. after they had already been eliminated in the N.I.T.

So, where do City's busy Beavers go from here? The team is enthusiastic about its chances, but Coach Nat Holman was looking soberly ahead to next Thursday's clash with Ohio State in the eastern N.C.A.A. semi-finals.

New Grid Coach At Santa Clara

Santa Clara, Cal., Mar. 20—(UP)—Dick Gallagher was the new head football coach at Santa Clara university today.

The 40-year-old end coach for the professional Cleveland Browns accepted a three-year contract with his salary estimated at $10,000 a year and with the right to select his own coaching assistants. He is to report here on April 30.

Gallagher replaces Len Casanova, who resigned as coach of the Broncos, to become head coach at the University of Pittsburgh.

New Yorker Leads Jacksonville Tourney
Jacksonville, Fla., Mar. 20—(UP)—Handsome Jack Burke of White Plains, N. Y., faced a double task today as he led the field in the fourth and final round of the $10,000 Jacksonville open golf tournament. The current "Golden Boy" of the winter circuit not only was hunting the tournament championship, but also hoped to narrow the lead in 1950 money-winning derby. A winning round today might do it. Burke is currently in second place, only $2,500 back of "the old pro," Sammy Sneed.

Beavers Snipped By Angels, 13-12

Riverside, Cal., Mar. 20—(UP)—The hapless Portland Beavers will be out to snap a six-game losing streak today when they meet the hard hitting San Diego Padres in an exhibition game.

The Beavers narrowly missed ending their slump yesterday when the Los Angeles Angels edged them, 13 to 12. A trio of Portland pitchers gave up 13 hits, but Hurler Jim Gladd countered with a triple in the second and First Baseman Micky Rocco connected for a two-run homer in the fourth.

Eugene Skiers Win Donner Trail Honors

"don't fret, son—we're usin' Mobilgas!"

22.07 MILES PER GALLON WITH MOBILGAS —is the amazing average of 31 different makes and models of American cars participating in the famous Mobilgas Grand Canyon Economy Run.

Staged over a rugged 751-mile course between Los Angeles and Grand Canyon, the Mobilgas Economy Run demonstrated the power and mileage characteristics of Mobilgas—both regular and Special (premium) grades, as selected by the drivers of the 31 cars. All cars were certified strictly stock by the American Automobile Association.

As demonstrated in the tough Mobilgas Grand Canyon Economy Run...one of these two is best for you:

MOBILGAS—Most of the cars now in service, including many 1960 models, will give mileage, power and anti-knock performance—with outstanding economy—when Mobilgas is used. If your car knocks on the gasoline you are now using...be money ahead by switching to Mobilgas Special (premium).

MOBILGAS SPECIAL—Cars with extra-high compression engines, or cars which knock due to poor mechanical adjustment, will perform better on Mobilgas Special. If your car knocks on the gasoline you are now using...be money ahead by switching to Mobilgas Special (premium).
