Andy's Jewelry To Open In New Store

With a new glass and flagstone front and a birch and blue interior, Alton M. Anderson's new jewelry store will open tomorrow at 15 North Central avenue.

Andy's is the first local business to use flagstones in store front construction. All of the rest of the front is glass. The interior walls and ceiling are finished in light blue. The insides of the wall cases are dark blue. The wall cases and counters are birch. Lighting is provided by spotlights in the ceiling.

The original Andy's at 21 South Riverside avenue, which Anderson has operated for the past four years, will continue open under the management of Mr. and Mrs. Vern N. Collins.

A complete stock of diamonds, watches, silverware and costume jewelry will be featured in the new store.

The great sprinter, Roland Locke, had one leg several inches shorter than the other.
