Wallowa Monster 14-Foot-Long Trout

LaGrande, Ore., Mar. 24—(U.P.) The legendary "monster" of Wallowa lake is nothing more than a 14-foot-long trout.

Or so says John Anderson of LaGrande, who says he saw the fish in the lake above the dam 40 years ago. Anderson says the talk about a monster in the waters of the eastern Oregon lake is the result of an optical illusion caused by looking through the water at an angle.

Legend has it that an Indian prince and his sweetheart were dragged beneath the waters by the mysterious monster.

"I was logging at the head of the lake 40 years ago, when I saw a thousand or more trout, blue-black in color," says Anderson. "Swimming in the midst of them was a giant trout, 14 feet long."

Shady Cove - Trail

Shady Cove-Trail, Mar. 24—Notice of the school district 89 bond election has been posted at the Shady Cove post office, the Shady Cove Market and the Shady Cove schoolhouse. Voting on March 31 at the schoolhouse between the hours of 2 and 8 p. m. will be on the question of contracting a bonded indebtedness in the sum of $20,000 for the purpose of constructing an auditorium and classroom building and to equip and furnish the same and acquire any necessary property appurtenant thereto or connected therewith.

Mrs. Lola H. Joyner of Buena Park, Cal., has been here visiting with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Tom King of Shady Cove, and daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bartus, also of Shady Cove. Mrs. Joyner has also spent some time visiting her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Joyner of Rogue River.

Mrs. Raymond Bosworth of Trail has returned from Los Angeles, where she had been visiting her friend, Mrs. Frances Wilshire, for two months. She then left again on a trip to San Anselmo, Cal., where she is staying with Mrs. Vera Martin of Sierra Manor ranch, Trail.

Regular monthly meeting of Shady Cove PTA will start promptly at 1:30 p. m. Friday, March 31, at the schoolhouse, to be followed at 2 p. m. with the showing of a film by the Society for Rehabilitation of Crippled Children and Adults together with a short talk by a speaker from the society. Invitations have been issued to members of both Prospect and Elk Creek-Trail PTAs to attend and it is hoped that a good number of members will turn out for this program. Also all Shady Cove PTA members are urged to attend the business meeting as there are many plans to make for events before the closing of school. All members of the community who would be interested in seeing the film and hearing the speaker are cordially invited.

Large Audience Views Senior Play At High School; Due Again Tonight

Medford senior high school's class of 1930 carried out the long-standing tradition of presenting a senior play when they gave Oscar Wilde's "The Importance of Being Earnest" last night at the high school before a good-sized audience of classmates and townspeople.

The second performance of this popular and sprightly comedy is set for tonight, with curtain time to be at 8 p. m.

The four romantic leads were smoothly played by Sybil Olden, Donna Mack, George Weir and Douglas Griffith, while character parts were equally well done by Barbara Burns, Joan Burke, Douglas Brannock, Lloyd Bishop and Bob Gilman.

Miss Burns, playing the domineering Lady Bracknell, made the best showing on the English accent required for the play.

The cast seemed to have been particularly faithful in its work on lines, for few slips were evident to the audience, and the entire production showed the results of Bob Steadman's consistent directing. The sets were well done, also, showing concentration on detail, and the stage crew changed scenes quickly and quietly.

Production Staff
Steadman was assisted by Betty Acker as director. Martin Johnson was stage manager, with Fred Griffith as assistant. Kaye Crawford and Janet Walton were responsible for costumes, Joanne Harrison and Leah Peabody for make-up and Barbara Green.

"In the Middle of the Road"

In the midst of extreme confusion in religious circles, where some have lapsed into formality and others have gone into fanaticism, we have endeavored to keep "in the middle of the road."

Large Audience Views Senior Play At High School; Due Again Tonight

Medford senior high school's class of 1930 carried out the long-standing tradition of presenting a senior play when they gave Oscar Wilde's "The Importance of Being Earnest" last night at the high school before a good-sized audience of classmates and townspeople.

The second performance of this popular and sprightly comedy is set for tonight, with curtain time to be at 8 p. m.

The four romantic leads were smoothly played by Sybil Olden, Donna Mack, George Weir and Douglas Griffith, while character parts were equally well done by Barbara Burns, Joan Burke, Douglas Brannock, Lloyd Bishop and Bob Gilman.

Miss Burns, playing the domineering Lady Bracknell, made the best showing on the English accent required for the play.

The cast seemed to have been particularly faithful in its work on lines, for few slips were evident to the audience, and the entire production showed the results of Bob Steadman's consistent directing. The sets were well done, also, showing concentration on detail, and the stage crew changed scenes quickly and quietly.

Production Staff
Steadman was assisted by Betty Acker as director. Martin Johnson was stage manager, with Fred Griffith as assistant. Kaye Crawford and Janet Walton were responsible for costumes, Joanne Harrison and Leah Peabody for make-up and Barbara Green.
