

Month of March Opens New Season For Women Golfers

The month of March brought a resumption of activities for the women's organization of the Rogue Valley Country club.

Mrs. Robert Shepherd, general chairman of the group, points out that any woman golfer of the country club, whether or not a member of the women's organization, is welcome to play on that day.

Mrs. Jack Eldwick is vice-general chairman, Mrs. Ralph D. Odell is secretary of the group and Mrs. Victor Sether is treasurer.

Chairmen of committees include Mrs. James Wyatt, tournament chairman; Mrs. C. B. Collins, membership; Mrs. H. D. Christensen, prizes; Mrs. Norm Worthley, telephone; Mrs. L. Paul Walker, rules; Mrs. Aletta Vawter, handicapper; chairman; Mrs. Tom Emmeris, golf social chairman; Mrs. Al Littrell, golf chairman; Mrs. Bayard Getchel, by-laws.

Miss Myrna Hackert Honored With Shower; To Wed Donald Harris

Jacksonville — Miss Myrna A. Hackert of Jacksonville was the honored guest at a surprise bridal shower given by her cousin, Miss Anita Heckert, March 16.

Appropriate games were played, with prizes being won by Miss Hackert and Miss Pauline Hardy. Following presentation of gifts, the bride doll, which formed the table centerpiece, was also given to Miss Hackert as a souvenir of the happy occasion.

Sorority Group Holds Election Of Officers; Formal Banquet Planned

Mrs. Larry Carson was elected president of Beta Sigma Phi sorority at a meeting of the group Thursday. Mrs. William Hartman was elected vice-president; Mrs. Norma Hildman, treasurer; Miss Florence Erbes, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Donovan Foster, recording secretary. The new officers will be installed at the first meeting of the sorority in May.

During the meeting plans were made to hold a formal banquet in observance of Founders' day April 30. Details of the dinner are to be handled by the social committee including Mrs. Carson, Miss Jean Poland, Mrs. Charles Ely, Mrs. Vern Whittlatch and Mrs. Cecil Davis.

Drummonds Return From Trip South

Dr. and Mrs. C. I. Drummond and son, David, returned a week ago Saturday from a motor trip to California points and into Tia Juana, Mexico. En route down the party visited Dr. Drummond's brother, Dr. Donald Drummond, at Palo Alto.

In La Jolla they spent some time with Dr. Drummond's parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Drummond. Dr. Drummond, his father, returned home with the visitors and will spend about three weeks here visiting.

Pythian Sisters

Pythian club members will meet at the Girls' Community club Tuesday, March 28 at 8 p. m. Mrs. Joe Cook and Mrs. Bill Ireland are the evening's committee members.

The degree staff and officers of Pythian Sisters will practice Thursday, March 30 at 7:30 p. m. in the Pythian building.

FUR'S Frances Dallaire

SO-CIETY and CLUB NEWS

Women golfers of the Rogue Valley Country club have resumed their regular Thursday afternoon women's day schedule with the arrival of March, and officers, committee chairmen and members are shown here ready for play one recent Thursday afternoon.

Children's Fashion Show Being Planned; Academy To Benefit

St. Ann's Altar society of the Sacred Heart parish are making plans for an Easter chick fashion show which will be entirely for the "small fry," Sunday afternoon, April 2 in St. Mary's academy gymnasium.

The very young models will parade Easter attire on a platform built to resemble a cracked Easter egg, and many youthful properties will be used to accent the theme.

Students of the academy will furnish entertainment during the show and refreshments will be served. Tickets may be purchased at the door and the public is cordially invited to attend. Proceeds will benefit the academy building fund.

Mrs. R. A. Naumes is general chairman for the affair and other committees include Mrs. Herbert Nesbitt, chairman of hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Joe Naumes, Mrs. John Jensen, Mrs. Mickey Doyle, Mrs. W. W. Stevenson, Misses Loretta Seitz, Lucille Williams and Gertrude Malloy; Mrs. Joe Clark, tickets.

Mrs. Joe McDuffie Jr. is in charge of refreshments assisted by Mrs. Lane Bardeen, Mrs. Louis Lemire, Mrs. R. P. Lewis and Mrs. J. J. Elliott. Miss Pat Wilkinson is chairman of publicity and will be commentator at the show. Her committee includes Miss Betty Bruzuan and Mr. and Mrs. James Dunleavy.

Bob McLaughlin is chairman of the set committee, assisted by Walt Young, Dr. O. J. Halboth, Jay Elliott, John Ahern, Larry Espey, Mickey Doyle and Lane Bardeen.

Stores donating clothing and properties are Mann's Department store, Tots-to-Teens shop, Needlecraft shop, J. C. Penney's, Montgomery Ward and company and Toy shop.

To Leave

Mrs. Jessie Rodwell of Hood River will leave Monday after having been a guest of her niece, Mrs. Dorell Huson and family on Lindley street. Mrs. Rodwell has been spending the winter in Los Angeles and plans to stop in Salem before returning home.

Shower Parties Given For Miss Thais Gorden; Wedding To Be Tuesday

Central Point — Miss Thais Gorden, whose marriage to Roland Pacey will take place March 28, was honored guest at a shower given at the home of Mrs. Walt Clement March 21. Mrs. R. J. Dew and Mrs. Chester James were co-hostesses for the event.

Games were played and prizes were won by Mrs. Harley Dressler and Mrs. Lester C. Gorden. Other guests were Mrs. F. H. Dressler, Mrs. Victor Noel, Mrs. John Pinkham, Mrs. Orth Miller, Mrs. Ross Webb, Mrs. Dick Vincent, Mrs. Ivan Davies, Mrs. Doyle Stockton, Mrs. Milton Gordon, Mrs. Steven Benston and the Misses Virginia Dew, Janice Clements and Helene Blumenstein.

Miss Gorden, at present employed at the office of the telephone company in Central Point, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester C. Gorden, Freeman road, and Mr. Pacey is a son of Mrs. Alex Tummers, route two, Central Point.

Miss Gorden was honored March 23 at a second shower, this having been given by Mrs. T. J. Mase.

The honored guest was given gifts of linen for her new home. Decorations were in pink and white, and the refreshment table was centered with a sweetheart cake.

Guests were Mrs. Bert Peck, Mrs. Harry Elden, Mrs. Lester C. Gorden, Mrs. G. V. Vincent, Mrs. J. B. Chastain, Mrs. Maxine Arnold, Mrs. M. A. Walden, Mrs. C. A. Tharp and Miss Marcia Vincent.

Mrs. Bower Hostess For Meeting Of Club

Mrs. V. A. Bower, 729 West 13th street, was hostess Thursday to members of the Stitch and Chatter club when members held their regular meeting. Refreshments were served and mixed spring flowers were used for table decorations.

Next meeting of the group will be March 30 at 2 p. m. in the home of Mrs. Leon Boyd, 402 1/2 South Newtown street.

Bay City Rites Wed Robert Sherman And Miss Corinne Corbett

Of interest is news of the marriage of Miss Corinne Corbett and Robert Sherman in San Francisco March 4. Miss Corbett is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ottinger of San Francisco and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Sherman, 2429 Stewart avenue, Medford.

The ceremony was performed in Trinity Methodist church in the bay city with the Rev. Henderson officiating. The bride wore a gold colored suit with blue accessories and her corsage was a brown-hued orchid. Mrs. Nancy Davison, her attendant, wore a grey suit.

Lee Sherman acted as best man for his brother, Mrs. Sherman went to San Francisco to attend the wedding. The bridegroom is a graduate of Medford high school and during the war was with the naval transport service.

Former Jackie Flynn Visits Parents Here

Mrs. Ed Allworth and son, Clark, of Oswego, Ore., will leave for their home tomorrow after spending a few days here with Mrs. Allworth's parents, Mayor and Mrs. Diamond Flynn. Mrs. Flynn will accompany them home and will spend a few days in the north.

Friday morning Mrs. Larry Schade Jr. entertained at a small breakfast for Mrs. Allworth, who is the former Jackie Flynn. Guests were Miss Pat Wilkinson, Mrs. Robert Morris, Mrs. Allworth and Mrs. Flynn. Mrs. Allworth, who is with the West Marquis Advertising agency of Portland, spent part of her time here on business for the agency.

Civic Music Group To Hear Concert By Violinist, Wife

Last concert of the season for the Jackson County Civic Music association will be given April 8 by Benno Rabinoff, noted violinist, and his wife, Sylvia Rabinoff, pianist and composer.

Rabinoff, who studied with the famous violin teacher, Leopold Auer, is rated as one of the nation's leading violinists. He has played with most of the country's large symphony orchestras, has made 10 trans-continental tours and has played in most of the leading cities of Europe.

His wife, while officially listed as accompanist for her husband, is said to be such an outstanding musician that many reviewers speak of the two as having given a joint recital.

Miss LaRose Bowman Honored At Shower; To Wed This Summer

Miss LaRose Bowman, who makes her home with her sister, Mrs. Evelyn Dickenson of 333 Haven street, was honored with a bridal shower Monday night. Miss Bowman is home from Oregon State college for spring vacation.

Mrs. John Williams and Mrs. Louis Putnam were hostesses for the shower, given at the Dickenson home. Appropriate games were played after which refreshments were served by the hostess. Miss Bowman received many gifts.

Attending Mrs. Carl Bennett, Mrs. Laurence Kolkomo, Mrs. M. Dorlan, Mrs. Lee Van Ausdall, Mrs. W. G. Werner, Mrs. I. Hautt, Mrs. Bernard Rice, Mrs. Gerald Warren, Mrs. L. L. Duncan, Mrs. William Strode, Mrs. Dorothea Gustafson and Mrs. Dickenson, and the Misses Barbara Niedermeyer, Georgene Robinson, Louise Putnam, Irene Williams, all of Medford, and Mrs. Gene Bowman of Ashland.

Miss Bowman's wedding to Gerald Phillips is set for late summer. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Phillips of Portland and will be graduated from Oregon State college this spring. Miss Bowman is a junior at the college.

Party Given Friday Honoring Traveler

Mrs. Roland Holmes, 20 Washington street, entertained Friday afternoon honoring Mrs. C. Schempp, 305 Laurel street, who with Mr. Schempp, will leave by plane Wednesday to begin an extended European trip.

Games appropriate for the occasion were played and prizes were awarded Mrs. Homer Pleyer, Mrs. F. G. Herdmen, and Mrs. A. F. Reinking. The theme of yellow and green decorations was carried out in flower arrangements and refreshments served at the close of the afternoon.

Junior Booster Club

Eagle Point Junior Booster club of Eagle Point met March 22 and made plans to entertain mothers of members at the next meeting, set for March 29. The club recently took in some new members and will welcome more, it is stated.

Mrs. Marshall E. Cornett, Klamath Falls, will be in Medford Monday afternoon to speak at a meeting of Jackson County Republican Women to be held in the Girls' Community club. Mrs. Cornett is republican national committeewoman for Oregon.

Republican Woman To Speak Monday

Mrs. Marshall E. Cornett, Klamath Falls, national committeewoman for Oregon for the republican party, will speak at the March meeting of Jackson County Republican Women to be held at the Girls' Community club Monday, March 27 at 1:30 p. m.

Mrs. Cornett's topic will be "Prominent People in the Political Picture."

Hostesses for the meeting will be Mrs. M. F. Vogel and Mrs. John Walker.

Two Guests Honored At Shower And Party; Visitor Leaving Soon

A double handkerchief shower was given at a party Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. A. Jahnke, 824 Bennett street. The affair was in the form of a surprise to the honored guests, Mrs. H. H. Young and her sister, Miss Pauline Gieschen. Mrs. Young observed her birthday anniversary March 22. The party also was a farewell for Miss Gieschen who has been visiting here for the past several months from Oklahoma.

Games were played and prizes were awarded to Mrs. R. Danielson and Mrs. H. Hidalgo. Yellow flowers and candles and lavender baskets containing the gift handkerchiefs were used for table decorations.

Members of the St. Peter's Lutheran Ladies' aid were invited and those attending were Mesdames H. Hidalgo, R. Peterson, G. J. Wolff, J. S. Goodwin, T. Trautman, Elsie Gemaehlich, E. Tams, H. Dalhke, C. Ludwig, Myrtle Mortimer, R. Danner, Esther Adolphs, J. Hueners, H. Froehrich, E. Mallans and the honored guests and hostess.

Evening Guild

St. Mark's Evening guild will meet on Monday, March 27, at 8 p. m. in the parish house. The evening will be spent making favors for the annual bridge party which is slated for Wednesday, May 17.

Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Ralph B. Matthews and Mrs. Robert D. Dames.

Nu Phi Mu Elects Jacqueline Walker President Of Group

Miss Jacqueline Walker was elected president of Nu Phi Mu sorority at a meeting held at the home of Miss Marilyn Nickle, 1709 East Main street Monday.

Others named to office were Miss Billie Lyons, vice-president; Miss Marilyn Nickle, treasurer; Miss Donna Wall, recording secretary and Miss Joy Finch, corresponding secretary.

The retiring officers are Miss Bertha McCallister, president; Miss Finch, vice-president; Miss Lyons, treasurer and Miss Walker, recording secretary.

The retiring advisors, Mrs. Ryder Berg and Mrs. Willard Sloper, were given a surprise handkerchief shower and presented with corsages from the sorority.

Refreshments were served by Miss Nickle and Miss Nancy Hazelton.

Members present for this meeting were Miss McCallister, Miss Finch, Miss Lyons, Miss Walker, Mrs. Donald Lue, Miss Barbara Williams, Miss Janny Lou Houghton, Miss Josephine Kantor, Miss Wall, Miss Carol Meyers, Mrs. Richard Riggs, Miss Irma Bostock, Miss Hazelton, and the hostess, Miss Nickle.

Medford Sojourners' Guest Day Has Large Attendance Thursday

About 100 members, prospective members and guests attended the semi-annual guest day party given by Medford Sojourners club Thursday at the YMCA.

Adopting the decorative theme from spring and the Easter season, hostesses set 25 individual tables. Each table was centered with a potted begonia plant and a small white alyssum, potted in colored egg shells, was placed at each setting. Begonias were awarded to first prize winners at each table and the smaller flowers were given as favors to the guests.

Mrs. Clifford Howard and Mrs. Clay Lee, immediate past presidents, presided at the buffet table. An Easter tree, loaned by Severson Candy shops, formed a centerpiece for the buffet table.

A short business meeting preceded introductions of guests and prospective members. About 40 guests were present and were distinguished by corsages of acacia and multicolored ribbons.

Mrs. J. S. Goodwin and Mrs. V. B. Galhen were welcomed as new members. Bridge, pinochle and canasta were played during the afternoon. Mrs. A. B. Fleming and Mrs. Frank Robertson received individual prizes.

In charge of the affair were Mesdames A. E. Stout, Howard Lee, Frank Cantrill, Allan Henderson, George Rehart, Ralph Kraws, J. C. Langdon, Ralph Barnes and Lloyd Sanders, all members of the board.

Roxy Ann Court Holds Initiation For Class; Grand Officers Here

Roxy Ann court U.D. Order of the Amaranth, initiated a large class into the lodge at a regular meeting Wednesday evening in the Odd Fellows hall.

Guests attending were Mrs. Jack Schulz, grand assistant lecturer; Jack Schulz, grand royal assistant patron of the grand court, Order of the Amaranth, state of Oregon; Pearl Giswood, conductress of friendship court, Klamath Falls; Mrs. Stella LeManquais, royal matron of Long Beach court, Long Beach, Cal.

Mrs. L. C. Frink, royal matron of Roxy Ann court, gave a report of the grand court of Oregon which she had attended with Mrs. Leto Queen, assistant royal matron, in Portland last week.

Following the meeting refreshments were served in the dining hall. Tables were decorated with spring flowers and candles in Easter theme.

Bride-To-Be Honored With Shower Monday; Rites To Be Saturday

Mrs. T. E. Popham and Mrs. Richard D. Werner were hostesses Monday evening for a shower which honored Miss Tressa McMannis. Miss McMannis and Ralph J. Matlock are to be married Saturday April 1, at the First Christian church.

The party was at Mrs. Popham's home on Pierce road, and Miss McMannis was presented a shower of miscellaneous gifts for her new home. The gifts were presented in an umbrella of bright yellow, and the spring theme was used for table decorations.

Guests were Miss Evelyn Clay, Miss Rosalie Roberts, Miss Joyce Anderson, Miss Frances Thrun, Miss Sue Murphy, Miss Verene Bailey, Miss Claire Daniels, Mrs. A. C. Pierce, Mrs. W. H. Fischer, Mrs. Fred Underwood, Mrs. L. B. Bollinger, Mrs. William F. Ford and the guest of honor.

Epsilon Sigma Alpha Meets Monday Night; Group To Sell Seals

Mrs. Roy Howe, 119 Keeneway drive, entertained members of the Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority in her home March 20. The evening was spent playing canasta and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Eloise Winklebleck, advisor of the group, and Mrs. Chester Peterson.

Mrs. Russell Roseborough was honored in observance of her birthday and birthday cake was served. Members of the sorority will sell Easter seals in a downtown booth April 5, 7 and 8. This will be the second year that members have taken part in the Easter seal drive.

Next regular business meeting of the group will be in the Girls' Community club, Monday, April 3, at 7:30 p. m.

Ladies' Auxiliary To Meet On Tuesday

Ladies' auxiliary of First Baptist church will hold a business meeting Tuesday, March 28 at 2 p. m. in home of Mrs. R. L. Hague, 2124 Howard street.

Advertisement for Adrienne's rayon boucle knit suits, featuring a woman in a patterned suit and a price tag of $12.98.

Advertisement for 'Dedicated To You' wedding gowns, featuring a woman in a long white gown and a price tag of $29.98 to $89.98.

Advertisement for Castleton's Bouquet, featuring a set of fine China dinnerware and a price tag of $14.75.

Advertisement for Buster Brown Shoe Store, featuring a woman in a dress and a price tag of $12.98.