

Two Exhibits Feature Meeting Of Civic Club In Rogue River Friday

Rogue River—A social meeting of the Rogue River Civic club was held Friday afternoon and members and guests were entertained with two exhibits.

Mrs. Douglas Buckle displayed gifts brought her family from Ireland by her mother-in-law, two years ago. One was an Irish calendar of shamrock shape with a rollicking Irish verse for each month. Wooden banks, replicas of Irish cottages, were gifts to the Buckle children. Beautiful Irish linen handkerchiefs embroidered with small shamrocks and jewelry of unusual designs completed the gift exhibit.

Mrs. Grant Powell's display consisted of a part of her button collection which was started by her grandmothers. Elizabeth Reed and Mary Foreman of Dallas and Ft. Worth, Tex., who collected 14,000 buttons, and in the past seven years Mrs. Powell has added another 4,000 to the collection.

A short business meeting was held and the following officers were elected for the coming year: Mrs. C. L. Williams, president; Mrs. E. J. Green, vice-president; Mrs. Harry Nelson, secretary; Mrs. C. A. Parr, treasurer.

Mrs. R. W. Hargitt reported on the Girl scout meeting held in Ashland and spoke on the necessity of a first aid class for girls.

Mrs. Williams suggested the constitution and by-laws of the Civic club be revised and appointed a committee to study the matter.

Shady Cove Association To Haxe Sale Talk; Hospital Film Slated

Shady Cove—A speaker on the Easter seal sales campaign and a movie concerning the crippled children's hospital school at Eugene are scheduled at a meeting of Shady Cove Parent-Teacher association Friday, March 31, at the school. The meeting will open at 1:30 p. m. The talk and picture, scheduled for 2 p. m., are open to the public. Prospect and Trail PTA groups have been invited.

Lone Pine Unit Holds Glovemaking Meetings

Lone Pine—Lone Pine Extension unit met with Mrs. Howard Gault recently, with the glovemaking project led by Mrs. Leonard Lehman and Mrs. John Dunlap. The project was finished at a later meeting at the home of Mrs. C. C. Hoover.

Mrs. Leonard Lehman, Mrs. Dick Davis and Mrs. Mitchell were named as a nominating committee to secure a slate of officers for the coming year.

The April meeting on the topic "Broiled Dinner" will be held in the home of Mrs. Harold Greb, and a plant sale will also be held at this meeting.

Hoheisals Delight Guests At Supper Following Jamboree

It was a delightful experience for the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Barnes and Murray Gardner, who entertained Saturday night after the square dance jamboree, to meet the honored guests, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hoheisal, who had generously given their talent to make the YMCA benefit jamboree a noteworthy success.

Mr. Hoheisal, an extremely tall, dark man, fascinated the guests with his description of some of the innumerable groups in southern California whose social life revolves more and more around the intricate and elaborate phases of square and folk dancing. Mr. Hoheisal expressed frank pleasure over the enthusiasm and keen response of the valley's square dancers at the jamboree and said it was an outstanding experience to him.

Mrs. Hoheisal, his partner in the exhibition dances, is a charming, petite brunette. She wore a beautifully designed cotton costume of black background with deep rose floral pattern. The extremely full skirt was lined in the same deep rose and revealed matching rose colored, ankle length pantalettes as she whirled through the intricate steps of the dances.

Many of those who attended the jamboree, either as dancers or as spectators, have expressed the hope that the Hoheisals' short stay in the valley will lead to other visits.

Gold Hill Women To Attend Meeting

Gold Hill—Business and Professional Women's club met March 21, at Rogue Riviera. Mrs. T. Z. Smith, vice-president, presided at the meeting in the absence of the president, Miss Geneva Smith.

Plans were made for a delegation of members to attend the spring district conference to be held in Glendale on Sunday, April 2. Mrs. Ralph Bell, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. R. K. Palmer, Mrs. Paul Molloy and Mrs. D. H. Stewart plan to attend. A nominating committee was named, composed of Mrs. Bell, Mrs. Palmer and Mrs. Molloy, and nominations will be placed before the group at the first meeting in May.

A joint meeting with the Lady Lions has been planned for the evening of April 25 in the Community Methodist church basement. Senior girls of the high school will be guests and the guest speaker will be Mrs. Mabel Winston, dean of women at Southern Oregon college, who will talk on education and vocation.

The Ladies' Aid will serve refreshments at the close of the meeting.

New York Society Announces Soloists For Coming Season

New York—The New York Philharmonic-Symphony society has announced its soloists for the season 1950-51. The artists who will perform in the Brahms Cycle are Myra Hess and Clifford Curzon, pianists; Zino Francescatti, violinist and John Corigliano and Leonard Rose in the Double Concerto.

Counting Myra Hess and Curzon, there are 16 pianists in all. Three of them will appear together, the Casadesus family. Robert Casadesus will be joined by Mme. Gaby Casadesus and their 22-year-old son Jean in their November performances under Dimitri Mitropoulos of the rarely played Bach Concerto for Three Pianos commemorating the 200th anniversary of the death of Johann Sebastian Bach, which the musical world is marking in 1950.

The American debut of Aldo Ciccolini, 24-year-old Italian pianist, will be made.

The other pianists are Claudio Arrau, Jorge Bolet, Richard Farrell, Rudolf Firkusny, Andor Foldes, Sidney Foster, William Kapell, Eugene List, Menahem Pressler and Rudolf Serkin.

The violinists announced are Jascha Heifetz, Yehudi Menuhin, Nathan Milstein, Erica Morini, Yfrah Neeman, Ossy Renardy, and Isaac Stern. Cello soloist will be Edmund Kurtz.

Applegate Association Plans Entertainment For Saturday Evening

Applegate—A basketball game, with mothers and sons as opposing teams, will feature an evening's entertainment planned by Applegate Parent-Teacher association for Saturday, April 1, at 8 p. m., in Applegate hall. Mrs. Charles Elmore, president, said in announcing the entertainment, that the game is expected "to be good for some real laughs."

Also planned for the evening's entertainment is a cake walk, an event recently revived by the Ruch PTA and said to be a great success. Other attractions include a plant sale of perennials to be donated by members and other interested persons. A limit of 10 cents has been set on the price of the plants and everyone is urged to donate.

Refreshments will be sold at the close of the evening and proceeds will be used toward purchase of basketball uniforms for next year.

Gold Hill Club Women Hostesses For Dinner Given In Lodge Hall

Gold Hill—Past Noble Grand club members held the annual dinner for husbands and families at the IOOF hall March 23. Dinner preceded the evening of fun planned by the club. Mrs. Frank Carter, Mrs. Wilbur Martin, Mrs. Paul Thompson and Mrs. Darrell Hendrickson made tamales for the dinner.

Decorations provided by Mrs. Earl Moore and Mrs. Walter McLean were in green and yellow. The serving committee was Mesdames R. K. Palmer, Ralph Bell, Daniel Stewart, Charles Whitlock and Wilmer Bailey and the kitchen committee was Mesdames Lester Thompson, Harry Newsham, James Clement, Melford Hood and Wilbur Martin. Dinner was served to about 86 members, families and friends.

The program committee, Mrs. Paul Thompson and Mrs. William Ferguson, planned an amusing program which followed the dinner. Miss Sharon Whitlock played two accordion solos, also singing for one selection as she accompanied herself. A skit, "Major Operation," was given and characters were named for members and the guests assembled. Mrs. Walter McLean was the leading lady and other members of the cast were Mesdames Darrell Hendrickson, Frank Carter, Melford Hood, Charles Whitlock, William Ferguson, Earl Moore, Lester Parker, Paul Thompson and Harry Newsham.

Mrs. Douglas Cameron accompanied Sonny Hendrickson on the piano while he played his accordion for a Virginia reel. Polkas, waltzes and other dances were also enjoyed. An exhibition of the Charleston was given by two former prize winners, Mrs. Melford Hood and Mrs. Charles Whitlock, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Cameron.

Ruch-Sterling Group Plans April Fool Party

Ruch-Sterling—The Ruch-Sterling Parent-Teacher association will sponsor an April Fool party, April 1, in the Upper Applegate Grange hall. The public is invited to participate in the entertainment and proceeds will be used toward a movie projector and sound track for the Ruch-Sterling school.

One of the novelties of the evening will be teaching of the Lemon dance. The ladies of the association are to take either pie or cake and are to wear cotton dresses. Men are to wear sports clothes.

Grauman Estate Sought By Woman

Hollywood, Mar. 28—(U.P.)—A 48-year-old waitress sought the million-dollar estate of the late showman, Sid Grauman, today as his common-law wife.

Mrs. Carrie J. Adair identified herself as the "lawful widow" in a petition for letters of administration to Grauman's estate. Grauman, 70, died March 6, leaving no will.

Mrs. Adair claimed she lived with Grauman in Texas and other places between 1916 and 1920. She identified Mrs. Abine Gerlich, 29, Halleystville, Tex., as her daughter, fathered by Grauman and listed her as another heir-at-law.

Mrs. Adair's claim to the estate was revealed when county officials received a block-printed will a few weeks ago which said she should "receive $37,000 in cash of my life's savings."

She denied sending the will, but asked authorities to have a handwriting expert examine it and postpone legal proceedings involving the estate pending his report.

Brownie troop leaders, and their committees, are in charge of the planning and program. All mothers of Girl scouts or Brownies in the vicinity are invited.
