LOOK, Mac, I said... I'm not about to buy any bridges!

If it wasn't so funny, I'd be mad. Don't even know for sure when I'll get my G.I. insurance refund and I'm already being bombarded with ways and places to spend it. I just hope that too many guys don't get stuck on some of the slick schemes floating around. Personally, Sue and I have most of it pegged to go into our savings account at the First National... gives us a swell chance to build a reserve. With money in the bank, we can plan for the future... or have ready cash for emergencies. Nice feeling, I'm telling you!

VETERANS... Investigate thoroughly before you invest or buy with this "extra" money. Seek advice based on experience. See your local Chamber of Commerce or bank.
