1st Presbyterian Easter Program Slated on Sunday

The annual Easter program of the First Presbyterian church school will be presented Sunday in the church auditorium at 10 a. m. The program has been planned to include boys and girls of all departments of the school, Mrs. E. E. Baker, superintendent, stated.

Kindergarten children led by tiny Mary Ellen Towne will present in verse and song events leading to Easter day. High school and junior high pupils with Mrs. Horace Thompson, narrator, and assisted by a chorus of primary and junior boys and girls, have prepared a short pageant "Palms in His Pathway."

Choir and Soloist

The story of the crucifixion will also be presented and climax of the program will be a portrayal of the resurrection story. The youth choir, Mrs. Charles Champlin, leader, and Jim Baker, soloist, has a share in the program.

Parents and friends of the church school pupils are invited to attend the service.

Guest speaker for the 11 a.m. church service is the Rev. John Lang Anderson, teacher at Lewis and Clark college, Portland. Henry F. W. Spilver, elder and Bible teacher, will preside at the service. Special choral music and a solo "The Psalms" is being provided.

Color Film Slated

"Dust or Destiny," the color film produced in the Los Angeles studious of Moody Institute of Science will be shown at the 7:30 p.m. service. This picture is fourth in a series of "Sermon from Science" productions that have been widely accepted both in this country and abroad.

This 40-minute film appeals to young and old with its presentation of the perplexing miracles of nature and mysteries of the universe. An invitation is extended to all who are not attending a regularly scheduled evening service.

A free will offering will be received.

Adventists To Hear Talks on Prophecies

A series of connected studies on the mysterious prophecies of the book of Revelation will be started next week by Pastor O. E. Schnepper at the Adventist church.

Sunday evening the theme will be "The Woman in White." The services continues on Wednesday evening when the subject will be, "The Beats with the Number 666."

Friday evening Pastor Schnepper will explain what the "Mark of the Beast" is and how it may come here in America.

The public is invited.

Phoenix Sets Easter Sunrise Rites April 9

Phoenix, Mar. 31—First plans have been made for the annual sunrise meeting to be held Easter Sunday morning on Taylor hill, with the three churches of Phoenix participating. The service has been set for 6 a.m. and will be followed by a breakfast served at the Presbyterian church, with members of all three churches assisting.

Representing the Christian church will be Mrs. Norman Glascock, those from the Nazarene church will be Mrs. Cummings and Mrs. Sullivan, and the Presbyterian church committee is Mrs. E. J. Clark and Mrs. L. O. Caster.

Each person planning to attend is asked to contact a member of these committees, or to report to his own church not later than Wednesday, April 5. Those attending are to contribute food for the menu and all food is to be at the Presbyterian church by Saturday, April 8.

A menu listing will be distributed at the Presbyterian church April 2, and these are to be filled out and returned not later than April 5.

The Presbyterian Sunday school will present an Easter Program during the Sunday school hour, and the committee in charge is Mrs. A. V. Thompson and Mrs. Russell D. Thompson. Each department of the Sunday school will participate.

Primary Department Plans Rites Sunday

Phoenix, Mar. 31 — Sunday morning, April 2, the primary department of Phoenix Presbyterian church will take part in the opening exercises for Sunday school, singing some of the songs the children have learned and giving flannelgraph stories.

Parents of the children in the department are invited to be present in order to learn of the work being carried on by the department, which includes children up to nine years of age.

The young people's society will hold the regular monthly social hour and singspiration Sunday, beginning at 7:30 p. m. Miss Nanette Furry is in charge of the meeting, and refreshments will be served. All young people of high school age are invited to attend.

No meeting of the intermediate society will be held, since attendance at these has not been large enough to make the project a success it is stated. Moreover, it is hoped that meetings will be resumed in the fall.

'White Maria' Tag Given Church Bus

Adelaide, Australia (U.P.)—Parishioners of the Gospel church have nicknamed their special church bus a "White Maria."

Don Kidd started the bus from an idea in Melbourne during the war, when he saw soldiers hanging around streets with nothing to do on Sundays. His bus first took Sunday school children home. Then he began picking up adults loafing in Adelaide streets on Sunday night and taking them to church.

India becomes a republic on January 26 this year.

Baptism at Methodist Church Sunday Morn

The 11 a. m. service at the First Methodist church will be broadcast over KYJC from 11 to noon. The Rev. Meredith A. Groves, pastor, will speak on "I Pledge Allegiance."

The choir will sing the anthem "Hosanna," the Chapel Trio, and Carlton Neill, boy soprano will sing "The Palms." Dr. J. S. Heatherington will present a solo "Ride on in Majesty." Bill Walker will play selected organ numbers.

An early church will be held at 8:30 a. m. when the Rev. Mr. Groves will speak on "Our Church." There will be reception of members and baptism of babies and adults. The vesper choir will sing "The King of Glory."

Salem, Mass. (U.P.) — Herbert L. Hewes, 94, has missed only six meetings of his Odd Fellows lodge in 65 years.

Vesper Choir Plans Easter Music Concert

Vesper choir of the First Methodist church will present a program of Easter music Sunday at 7:30 p. m. when members will wear and dedicate their new robes.

The program includes mixed quartet, "The Helman Four" and "Rose of Sharon." Piano solo, "Themes from William Tell," Eugene Groves, and solo, "Open the Gates of the Temple," Carlton Neill.

Also, anthem, "Lift Your Heads," vesper choir, and cornet duet, "The Holy City," Walter Kendall Jr. and Kay Adams, accompanied by Walter Kendall.

Trio with obbligato solo, "The Palms," Chapel Trio and Carlton Neill. Organ selections by bill Walker will include "Temple Prelude" and "Festal March."

Florida Orange Shipper Beats Out California

Milwaukie (U.P.)—A friend of Mrs. Bette Kujawa, Milwaukie, wanted to announce her arrival in California with a gift of oranges but the oranges arrived from Florida.

Mrs. Kujawa said her friend could find no one in California who knew anything about shipping oranges to Wisconsin and a shipping outfit wanted to charge too much.

The determined friend wrote a letter to a Florida chamber of commerce, stated her problem, received a catlog from a gift shop, selected some oranges and sent the money.

The Romans used to applaud by snapping their fingers.

Foots Creek

Foots Creek, Mar. 31 — John Bradfield, who is attending college at Corvallis, spent a week's vacation with his wife and daughter, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Bradfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Donnelson of Medford and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Burns of Hornbrook, Cal., were Saturday evening guests here of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McLallen, March 25. The occasion was Mrs. Burns' and Mr. McLallen's birthdays, and a birthday cake baked by Mrs. Donnelson and other refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Howard of Dunsmuir, Cal., spent the week-end visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Howard, here and Mr. and Mrs. E. Howell of Wimer.

Mrs. Melissa Stambaugh and Mrs. Bernice Stambaugh were visiting friends here March 28.

Mrs. Charles McLallen was hostess at a turkey dinner March 26 in honor of the birthdays of Mr. McLallen and Harley Britton. Guests were Edgar Britton, Harley Britton, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Pratt of Grants Pass, Mr. McLallen, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McLallen Jr. of Medford, and P. Baker of Caddo, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Dent of Los Angeles and Mr. and Mrs. Steve Corbin of Burbank, Cal., visited here last week with Mr. and Mrs. Pete Tweist and family. Mr. and Mrs. Corbin will spend this week with relatives west of Rogue River.

Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Snelling and son Lowell were among a large group of candidates taking first and second degrees of the Rogue River Grange March 25.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Bradfield were dinner guests Thursday evening at the Pete Tweist home.

J. Cowie of the Foots Creek store spent several days last week in Portland on business.

Marriage Performed In Tavern For Friend

Mt. Vernon, Ill. (U.P.) Casey Harrison, 28, and Frieda Tracy, 20 were married in a tavern so their friends could be present.

Harrison wanted the tavern manager, Taylor Pennington, and the tavern owner, R. C. Hallam, to be his attendants, but they couldn't get away from business. So Harrison called on Magistrate Allan Dulaney to perform the marriage in the tavern.

Drinks were on the house.

Sarrollton, Ga. (U.P.) — Three-year-old Genita Miles, visiting the grave of her grandfather here, was knocked unconscious by a falling tombstone.

The Lawyer Got The Reply He Asked For

Omaha, Neb. (U.P.) — The corpulent attorney watched craftily while the 76-year-old plaintiff bent over to tie a shoelace.

He was fighting her suit to collect damages for injuries in an automobile crash.

"Ha," he snorted, "in spite of your claim of disability, I notice you can tie your shoelace. I can't even do that."

"Well, you could," snapped the elderly woman, "if it weren't for that stomach of yours."
