Make Final Plans For 'Easter Chick' Style Show Sunday

Plans are being completed for the "Easter Chick Parade" fashion show to be presented by unit six of St. Ann's Altar society of Sacred Heart parish in St. Mary's gymnasium Sunday, April 2 at 3:30 p.m.

Mrs. William Driscoll, and her committee composed of Mrs. Paul Haviland, Mrs. R. R. MacLaughlin, Mrs. Mickey Doyle, Mrs. Larry Espey, Mrs. Fred Burich and Mrs. Mildred Robinson, have been planning "small fry" costumes as well as appropriate set designs for this spring showing of "what's new" in children's fashions.

This "ice cream cone set" style show is to become an annual event and all proceeds will go toward St. Mary's building fund. Refreshments will be served and the public is invited to attend.

Contributions to Seal Sale $2,456

Archie Fries, Jackson county treasurer of the 1950 Easter Seal drive reported today that this year's campaign is now past the half-way mark and has been carried to more than 18,500 homes in Jackson county. Contributions total $2,356.89, according to Fries.

The Oregon Society for Crippled Children and Adults is one of the 2,000 affiliated organizations cooperating with the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults in a nationwide campaign to raise funds to supply services to crippled children and adults. Funds raised here are utilized in this state to give direct aid to crippled children and adults.

The national Easter seal goal is $7 million, of which a large percentage will go to aid the nation's 8 million handicapped children. All but a small percentage of the total funds are used in the states in which they are raised, the remainder going to the national society to support its program of education, research and service.

The drive will end Easter Sunday, April 9.

BURGLARY MADE EASY
Blair, Okla. U.P.—A new combination lock on the Blair high school vault didn't stop a thief from taking $200. The burglar simply looked in a desk drawer, found a card with the combination written on it and followed instructions.

Points West

By Vivian McMurtrey

Ontario, Ore.—There's a swing toward women mayors. It all started with Mae Barney in Prineville, who headed that city's government a few years ago. Portland followed suit and elected Dorothy Lee, and now Ontario is slated for the same, with comely Mildred Webster having filed for the office against incumbent Dyer Bennett.

Winchester Bay.—All persons attending services at the newly organized undenominational church called "Gospel Assembly" are asked to bring their own chairs.

Roseburg, Ore.—Douglas county is the largest county in western Oregon—and the most sparsely populated.

Springfield, Ore.—The kind of boss you dream about is Dallas E. Winslow, who presented each of his 22 employees with brand new Ford cars.

Oregon-at-Large.—Easter sonnets are upon us! Seems that anything (in the way of a woman's hat) goes. Recently a lady collected a bet that if she walked down the street with a bird nest on her head she would attract no undue attention. She did. She won.

Salem, Ore.—Records of the state health department show that in 1949 the death rate among Oregon Indians was 17.6, while that of the general public was just 9.4.

Rogue River. Mar. 31—Visitors for the week at the Al Ebeling ranch on West Evans creek are Ebeling's father, George Ebeling, a retired South Dakota cattle raiser, and his son, Herbert Ebeling, a mechanic with the Carnation Milk company at Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Christenson, former owner of the Pasadena motel, with their sons Paul and Stanley, flew to San Francisco Monday, where they were to board a transcontinental plane for New York.

A Saturday night open house was held for students above 12 years of age at Fellowship hall last week. Games were played and lessons given in American folk dances. It was also a farewell to the Christenson boys who were leaving for New York. Refreshments were served by Gretchen Klonhaus and Barbara Feuerhelm who spent the afternoon baking cookies for the party. A special cake was decorated for Paul Christenson.

Chaperones were Mrs. A. P. Klonhaus and Mrs. Carl Feuerhelm.

Soon after the pilgrims arrived in America, friendly Indians taught them to make leather moccasins which were exported back to England beginning with the middle of the 17th century.

GET A HORSE!

Miami, Fla. U.P.—Arturo de Filippi, director of Miami's Opera Guild, said he would just as soon be a horse; they are better off than opera singers. Filippi complained that horses get more newspaper space than opera singers and that more money is spent on horse races than grand opera.

WRONG STEER

Columbus, O.—U.P.—A customer tipped Nick Tornick something was wrong with the plumbing in the basement of drive-in restaurant. Tornick went to check, leaving four patrons sitting at tables. When he turned the customers were gone. So was a pinball machine.
