

Children's Fashions To Be Shown Today As St. Mary Benefit

The Easter Bunny is ever the welcome guest, and this year he is to arrive a week early, bringing the "Easter Chick Parade," an unusual fashion show by Medford's small fry.

Mister Bunny, his pink nose twinkling with fun and his ears wagging, left his basket in St. Mary's gymnasium today and this afternoon at 3:30 p. m., when the cover is taken off, out will hop a gay assortment of "Easter Chicks," all dressed up for bed, church, play or party time.

The following "cottontails" will hop along the meadow, showing Easter finery: Susan Iven, Richard and Roger Schmidt, Gregory and Larry Wright, Mary and Carol Doyle, Mary Jo Batzer, Billy and Jimmie Reverman, Patti Ann and Michael MacLaughlan, Ann Haviland, Karen Fisher, Mary Lee, David and Lucille Lowery, Diane Williams, Nancy Stevenson, David, Laurene and Jennifer Espey, Judy Dunlevy, Janet Young, Mike and Linda Lewis, Peter, Patrick and James Naumes, Kathy Dougherty, Shelley Ely, Mary Carol Levins, Patti and Susan Naumes, Jo Dee McDuffie, Annette and Fred Burlich, Sandra Montgomery, Bonnie Fayingtinger, Paul Elliot, Ida Lane and Marcy Bardeen, and Carol, Mary and Sarah Robinson.

Refreshments will be served, the public is invited and proceeds are to go toward St. Mary's building fund.

Lady Elks Announce Meeting for Tuesday

Lady Elks will meet Tuesday, April 4 at 2 p. m. in the party lounge of the Elks temple. Following dessert pinocchle, pool, canasta and bridge will be played.

This will be the last meeting under the chairmanship of Mrs. Arthur Hess, and the new chairman will be introduced.

Hostesses for the meeting will be Mrs. Fred Rehling, Mrs. Van Gilbert, Mrs. L. G. Miles, Mrs. George White and Mrs. Herbert E. Bismark.

Jean Hart's Diary

Sunday, April 2

Top of the Spring to you . . . and how about your Easter coat? That is if you are wearing a print or cotton dress on Easter Sunday instead of a suit. We have beautiful suits too . . . soft wools, exquisitely tailored and in the soft shades to match your Easter corsage.

But if you are to be a thing of beauty and a joy forever in a print or a linen dress . . . you will need a harmonizing topper. Short or long . . . we have them. The colors are taken from the old master bunny and his Easter egg chart. Vibrant romantic shades of red, green or blue . . . or delicate muted hues in gold, cerise, lime. White to offset and harmonize with any suit or dress your heart desires. And fashion-right for long dresses on party night.

So . . . be a happy girl for Easter . . . you will be if you are warm as well as beautiful.

Quackenbush-Lavin Rites Take Place In Medford Church

An event of Saturday, March 23, was the wedding of Miss Jean Nadine Lavin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Ross, 2685 Elliott avenue, Medford, to Archie W. Quackenbush, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Quackenbush, Freeman road, Central Point.

The candlelight ceremony was read at eight o'clock at the First Methodist church, Medford, by the Rev. Meredith A. Groves. About 70 guests were present.

Miss Barbara Dickson, Klamath Falls, was soloist for the wedding and Mrs. C. R. Adamson was organist.

The bride's wedding gown was of white brocaded organdy, designed ankle length, and her finger-to-length veil was held by a band of stephanotis. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and stephanotis, and the pearls she wore were a gift of her grandfather and had first been worn by her grandmother.

Mrs. Robert Hamilton, sister of the bridegroom, served as honor attendant. Her frock was of yellow organdy and she carried a nosegay of sweetpeas, roses and violets.

Miss Donna Lavin, sister of the bride, and Miss Dorene Jones lighted the candles. Miss Lavine wore a pink dotted swiss frock and Miss Jones blue dotted swiss.

Both the bride's mother and the bridegroom's mother wore navy blue dresses with pink accessories and their corsages were of pink carnations.

Robert Hamilton was best man for the bridegroom and Dale Bartley and W. J. Fisher were ushers. Mr. Ross gave the bride in marriage.

A reception was held at the bride's home for members of the families and the wedding party. Mrs. Dale Bartley poured and Miss Gwen Gibson cut the wedding cake.

Baskets of almond blossoms and pink and white snapdragons, arranged with lighted tapers, decorated the church.

The newlywed couple traveled to southern California for a wedding trip and later will be at home near Central Point. For traveling the bride wore a beige suit with navy blue accessories and orchid corsage. Mrs. Quackenbush attended Central Point schools and Southern Oregon college and is a past honored queen of the Central Point Bethel, Job's Daughters. The bridegroom, who served three years in the United States navy, attended high school in Klamath Falls and is now with the Table Rock Lumber company.

Here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. A. Petersteiner, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom from Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. W. Smith of Yreka, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Gibson and son, Bruce, uncle and aunt of the bride from Yreka.

Baker-Clark Team Winners At Bridge

Mrs. Frank R. Baker and Mrs. Josephine Clark took top honors for the last meeting of the Medford Duplicate Bridge club, their score for the north and south playing position being 130 points. Coming in second for this position were Paul Hatton and T. J. Fuson, with 99½ points, and third went to Dr. S. Ralph Dippel and Al Gilhausen with 94 points.

First for east and west were Mrs. Jean Hall and L. G. Miles, who scored 122½ points, and second were Miss Isobel Stuart and Mrs. Bernard Hughes, who scored 107. In third were Miss Janice Burpee and Jack Verling who scored 97½ points.

The duplicate club plays each Tuesday evening at the Medford hotel.

Student To Design Sets at Stanford

Miss Lovelle Davies, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Davies, 1779 Spring street, a freshman at Stanford university, who has been spending spring vacation here with her family, will leave today to return to her studies.

A major in commercial art at the university, Miss Davies will be responsible for designing and doing the sets for the freshman musical to be produced during the annual "Back to Farm" week at the university.

Married March 23 in the First Methodist church, Mr. and Mrs. Archie W. Quackenbush are shown following the ceremony. The bride is the former Jean Nadine Lavin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Ross, 2685 Elliott avenue, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Quackenbush, Freeman road, Central Point. (Shangle studio).

Bride-Elect Honored At Surprise Shower; To Wed This Summer

Miss Joy Finch, bride-elect of John Dunn of Banning, Calif., was honored at a surprise bridal shower at the home of her cousin, Mrs. A. T. Coppedge, 2029 Orchard Home drive, Wednesday evening. Hostesses for the event were Mrs. Coppedge, Mrs. H. C. Coppedge, another cousin of the guest of honor, and Mrs. G. M. Cannon, Miss Finch's aunt.

Games were played and during the evening a large decorated box containing the gifts was brought to Miss Finch by a delivery service.

The decorations consisted of colored hearts strung on pink satin ribbons, and the table centerpiece was the cake, which was white with silver wedding bells.

Following presentation of gifts, refreshments were served by the hostesses.

About thirty guests were present for the shower, and gifts were also sent from California from Miss Finch's grandmother, Mrs. Pearl Watson of Pasadena, and her fiance's mother, Mrs. Ed Dunn, of Banning.

The wedding date has been set for late in June.

Joint Installation To Be Held Thursday By Woodcraft Lodges

Phoenix — Joint installation services will be held by Neighbors of Woodcraft lodge with Ashland and Medford lodges on Thursday, April 6 in the grange hall here. Mrs. George Drake of the local order will act as installing officer.

Delegates Report Honors Received By Medford DAR

Delegates returning from the annual state conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution, held at Corvallis this week, reported a number of honors which came to Crater Lake chapter of Medford.

The regent, Mrs. D. O. Hood, was elected state librarian. In token of this honor her own delegates presented her with a bouquet of red carnations to carry at the reception for officers and delegates.

Mrs. G. R. Carter of the Medford chapter won second place for her historical scrapbook composed of pictures, clippings and other data pertaining to DAR activity. First place in the scrapbook competition went to Klamath Falls. Mrs. Carter received special mention for her radio script on "Old Jacksonville," which was given over the radio recently on the DAR sponsored program.

Mrs. G. Q. D'Albini, as chairman of the Third district, reported for that body and also won special acclaim for her work with the classes for new citizens. Mrs. D'Albini has completed her 24th year in this work and has prepared 300 citizens.

Crater Lake chapter was also outstanding for having completed its quota in full to the national building fund; only one other chapter in the state claimed this distinction. The Oregon daughters will undertake a state project as soon as this building quota is completed. Their present plans are to build a caretaker's cabin at historic Champsoeg.

Highlight of the conference was the address by Oregon's governor, Douglas McKay, who made a special trip to attend the conference. He warmly commended the patriotism of the daughters and their continued efforts to further the American way of life.

In his talk he stressed the great future of Oregon, which will depend to some extent upon new citizens, their proper education as voters and active participants in the community life. In this education and training the DAR, through its citizenship classes, is taking an active part, it is pointed out.

Mrs. G. R. Hyslop of Corvallis was elected regent for Oregon. Over 100 delegates from many parts of the state attended this conference.

Mrs. Keaveny on Trip Accompanied by Niece

Jacksonville — Mrs. John Keaveny, home economics instructor of Jacksonville high school, has left for Burbank, Calif., to spend the Easter vacation with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Keaveny. Mrs. Keaveny will be accompanied by her niece, Miss Judy Mooring, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Mooring.

40th Anniversary Of Medford Couple Observed At Party

A group of friends and relatives called on Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Davis of route 2, the evening of March 2, in observance of the couple's 40th wedding anniversary. The occasion was in the form of a surprise to the honored guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis were married at Hazen, N. D., and spent their early married life there. They are the parents of seven children, Roy of Great Falls, Mont.; Mrs. Gene Weitman and Mrs. Joe Waltz, Shady Cove; Harriet of Monrovia, Cal.; Dale of New York city; Mrs. Bob Bishop, Medford, and Lee, who was killed in action during the last war.

All the children were not able to attend the anniversary party but a family reunion had been held here last summer when all were present. The Davises have resided here for four years.

Attending last week's party were Mr. and Mrs. Weitman and sons, Dean and Kenneth, and daughters Linda and Donna; Mr. and Mrs. Waltz and daughter, Judy; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Straight, J. R. Harris, Charles Broughton, Frank Chamberlain, Cecil Kee and daughter, Cecelia, all of Shady Cove, and Mr. and Mrs. Bishop and Mrs. Elsie Turner of Medford.

The couple was presented a number of pieces of ruby glassware in keeping with the 40th anniversary. A tiered cake which had been baked by their daughters was served with other refreshments.

Dear Mrs. Medford:

Easter is a very personal day. The gifts we give should be intimate and lasting . . .

We suggest . . . a rosary—exquisitely wrought and jewelled and kept from the world in its own lovely case. Or a Madonna—carved with a simple purity of line and beauty.

Or a Bible—for those being confirmed or baptised during the Easter ceremonies.

Or a pair of imported china chickens—the rooster strutting and boastful, the little hen bashful and acquiescent.

Or at least a card . . . sentimental or gay . . . as the situation dictates . . . to show time taken from your busy life for a loving thought.
