Families Evacuate Homes in Astoria

Astoria, Ore., Apr. 4.—(U.P.)—Three families evacuated their homes at the foot of Astoria's Irving street slide yesterday when city engineers became alarmed at increasing rate of the moving hill.

Engineers were fearful the slide would develop into an avalanche. The hill, loosened by week-end rains, moved 17 feet and forced half a dozen homes to move six other homes in the path of the sliding earth.

Evacuating their homes were Robert McIntyre, Peter Anderson and Mrs. Lucy Lyman families.

Four homes already had been given up for lost.

Internationalization Of Jerusalem Okayed

Geneva, Switzerland, Apr. 4.—(U.P.)—The United Nations trusteeship council today adopted a statute internationalizing the entire Jerusalem area.

The vote was 9 to 0, with the United States and Great Britain abstaining. Russia is boycotting this session of the council.

The statute provides for placing the entire municipality of Jerusalem and its surrounding towns and villages under UN control.

The council adopted by a vote of 10 to 0, with Britain abstaining, a resolution presented by the United States, Australia, Belgium and the Philippines. It asks the council chairman to forward the text of statute to Israel and Hashemite Jordan, whose armies occupy Jerusalem, and request their "full cooperation."

Iowa Murder Trial Is Given to Jury

Iowa City, Ia., Apr. 4.—(U.P.)—The murder trial of Robert Bednasek was given to a jury today with instructions to weigh carefully his story of his campus sweetheart's death.

White-haired District Judge James P. Gaffney gave the case to a small-town jury of eight men and four women at 10:02 a. m. (CST). He said if they found the handsome University of Iowa psychology student guilty of first degree murder, it would be up to them to fix the penalty of a life term or death by hanging.

Previously, the state in a surprise move in its closing arguments had demanded the death penalty.

Civil Suit Opened in Circuit Court Here

The case of George A. Schuler versus James C. and Grace Brodie and the United States National bank went before Judge H. K. Hanna in circuit court today.

The plaintiff claims the Brodies misrepresented the volume of business of the Southern Oregon Bearing Sales company at the time he contracted for the purchase of the business. Schuler asks that the contract be rescinded and also wants the court to restore to him $20,336.91 with interest from December 1948, plus $600 with interest from April, 1949.

Attorney for Schuler is Hugh Collins and the Brodies have retained Rawles Moore to handle their case.

'Best of Breed' Tag Awarded Local Dog

Southern Oregon Kennel club was well represented at the Lions' Kennel club dog show held April 1 and 2 at Salem, club officers reported today.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. White's Bedlington terrier "Rumpelstiltskin O' the Fold" was judged "best of breed" over a good-sized entry. He went on to win the terrier group, nosing out all other terriers to compete for "best in show."

Rumpelstiltskin is commonly called "Riki" by the White family. The Whites live at 601 West Tenth street.

Conviction Upheld In Vote Fraud Case

Cincinnati, O., Apr. 4.—(U.P.)—The sixth U. S. circuit court of appeals today upheld the conviction and two-year sentence of Edward F. Prichard Jr., 35, for vote fraud.

Prichard, former general counsel for the democratic national committee and one-time prominent figure in the new deal, was convicted by a jury for vote fraud in the 1948 general election in Bourbon county, Ky., last July.

He was sentenced to two years imprisonment by Judge H. Chas. Ford of the U. S. district court, Lexington, Ky. He was later released on bond, pending the outcome of the appeal.

Prichard was indicted on a charge of forging ballots.

Testimony Opens in Suit Again UAL

Seranton, Pa., Apr. 4.—(U.P.)—Testimony began today in the $2,000,000 suit filed in federal court against United Airlines by the estate of Showman Earl Carroll.

Carroll was one of 42 persons killed when a United Airlines plane crashed at Mt. Carmel, Pa. last June. Another victim was Beryl Wallace, a leading lady in many Carroll productions.

Six women and six men have been selected by the jury. Judge Albert Watson said the case will last three to four weeks.

Hood River, Ore., Apr. 4.—(U.P.)—The Hood River city council last night voted to put the city on daylight saving time beginning at 2 a. m. April 30. The city will revert to standard time at 2 a. m. September 5.

Larceny Guilty Plea

Farley O. Pollock was sentenced to four years in the state penitentiary by Circuit Judge H. K. Hanna yesterday after he had pleaded guilty on a district attorney's information charging him with larceny of a power saw. District Attorney George Neilson said Pollock had a previous criminal record and is now on parole.

Judge Hanna also sentenced Richard L. Augustine to two years imprisonment for taking a car without the owner's permission. Augustine had pleaded guilty.
