

Beavers Topple Acorns Twice In PCL Debut Portland Park

Portland, Ore., April 5—(U.P.) Portland batting power dropped the Oakland Acorns twice yesterday by identical 7-2 scores before 10,063 fans in the afternoon game and 9,329 at night.

The games took the form of a delayed doubleheader, believed used for the first time in Pacific Coast league history for an opening day crowd. The two games allowed a total of 19,392 fans to watch first day ceremonies, whereas Portland's ancient Vaughn street ballpark would have held attendance down to 13,500 for a single game.

No Game Today
No game will be played today. Oakland drew first blood in last night's slugfest. Roy Weatherly singled, advanced to second on an infield out, got to third base on a single by Augie Galan and scored on a fly ball to left field.

Forrest Thompson replaced losing pitcher Al Gettel for Oakland in the third inning as Portland scored three runs on two walks, a hit batter, a single and a double.

Oakland closed the gap to 3-2 in the fourth inning on a single by Earl Rapp, an error by Luis Marquez, an infield out and Roy Zimmerman's double. Pitcher Roy Helser relieved starter Vince DeBaisi in the fifth inning for the Beavers.

Portland scored one run in each of the fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh innings on six hits, three walks, and two sacrifices. Helser's win was his first against one loss, while Gettel lost his third game in the young season.

After establishing a 2-1 edge in the sixth of the afternoon game, the Beavers broke wide open in a wild seventh inning to score five runs. There were three hits, singles by Steve Messer and Mickey Rocco, and a double by Joe Brovia who hit the game's only homer in the third. Two walks, two errors, a wild pitch and a passed ball gave the Beavers their five runs.

Dodenhoff and First Baseman Dean Cain required three stitches in the face after colliding in the fifth inning, while going after a foul ball. Neither was hurt seriously.

Favor Lakers In Pro Ranks

Minneapolis, Apr. 5—(U.P.)—The Anderson Packers, who came through gallantly to win the National Basketball association's western division playoffs, faced an even sterner task today as they take on the Minneapolis Lakers and George Mikan in the first game of a best-of-three elimination.

The Lakers figure to be the favorites because not only do they possess one of the all-time greats in Mikan, the NBA's record-breaking scorer, but they also have the advantage of playing two of the three games on their home court.

A victory by Minneapolis tonight could mean curtains for the Packers since they must return to the Lakers' home grounds next Saturday after playing at Anderson Thursday.

The winner of the Minneapolis Anderson series earns the right to meet the Syracuse Nationals in a best-of-seven series for the NBA championship and a $15,000 pot of gold.

Weird Games Played Coast Loop to Date

San Francisco, April 5—(U.P.)—Hollywood, as expected, is on top of the Pacific Coast league standings.

But their partner at the pinnacle wasn't supposed to be Los Angeles, who finished a poor last in the 1949 campaign.

But that's the way things stood today after the first eight games of the season; Los Angeles and Hollywood tied for first; San Francisco, San Diego and Seattle tied for third.

Other Game Oddities
Of course, the position of the teams today had to share the spotlight with a few other developments, too:

1—The peanut, which came back to stay at Seals stadium last night when President Paul I. Fagan gave away 11,000 bags to at least partially atone for his blunder in attempting to ban the goober from his park.

2—The balk, which was called nine times yesterday in five games to bring the seasonal total for seven days of play to 51—compared with last year's 17 for the whole season.

Triple Play Pulled
3—The home run, which came seven times yesterday, to bring the seven-day total to 46.

The Sacramento triple play was a weird affair and came as Don Lang of the Seals hit a hot bouncer down to Jim Tabor at third. There were men on second and first at the time.

Tabor tossed the ball to second for one out; Second Baseman Don Johnson threw to First Baseman Steve Souchock for the second out; and then Souchock rifled the ball across the diamond to Tabor, who caught Joe Grace napping a few feet off third base.

Ducks Topple Portland 6-5
Eugene, Ore., Apr. 5—(U.P.)—University of Oregon's baseballers won their second game in two days yesterday as the Ducks rallied to beat Portland university 6-5.

The Ducks trailed 5-4 going into the seventh inning, but singles by Don Kimball, Ray Coley, and Jack Smith knotted the count. In the next frame, Oregon scored its winning run on Duane Owens' infield single, his steal to second, and Kimball's double.

Sid Mills, the third Oregon pitcher, gained credit for the win, while Pilot reliever Glenn Hittner was charged with the loss. The Webfoots collected 14 hits to Portland's six.

Willamette Nine Tops OSC 6 to 5

Corvallis, Ore., Apr. 5—(U.P.)—Willamette university beat Oregon State college 6-5 on Coleman field here Tuesday.

The Bearcats grabbed a two-run lead in the first inning. Then OSC came back to tie it up in their first time at bat.

The Beavers took a two-run lead in the fourth but Willamette batters slugged in three more runs in the fifth.

Each team collected its last tally in the seventh.

McCarthy "SATISFIED"

Sarasota, Fla., Apr. 5—(U.P.)—Manager Joe McCarthy said he was "completely satisfied" with his team as the Boston Red Sox prepared to break camp today, and embark on a two-week barnstorming tour.

Derby Entry Decision Due

New York, Apr. 5—(U.P.)—Selection of New York's chief representative for the Kentucky Derby starts at Jamaica today where C. T. Chenery's Hill Prince and Greentree stable's Guillotine face each other for the first time in the $20,000 experimental handicap No. 1.

Under the weights assigned by Handicapper John B. Campbell last January, Hill Prince, third choice in the winter books at 6 to 1, carries 124 pounds in the six furlong stake while Guillotine, who opened at 12 to 1 but now is down to 8, shoulders 122.

The horses earned their assignments on the strength of their juvenile form. Hill Prince won six of his seven starts while Guillotine took the rich Futurity stakes at Belmont park, but their paths never crossed during their juvenile campaigns.

At six furlongs, the experimental will not answer the big question asked of all Derby hopefuls, "can they run a mile and a quarter?" But it will go a long way in determining their relative speed and, while speed alone will not win the Derby, it never hurts.

Phoenix, Ashland Play 8 to 8 Tie

Phoenix, April 5 — Phoenix high and Ashland high basketball teams played a five-inning 8 to 8 tie yesterday afternoon at Phoenix in a non-conference game for both schools.

The game was limited to five innings by mutual agreement although Phoenix had tallied five runs in the last of the fifth frame to tie the game and might have gone on to win. Each team was credited with five safeties.

Dick Keene, Bill Hutton and Fred Furry divided the pitching chores for Phoenix with Harold Holloway catching. Hanscom hurled the whole game for Ashland as Tenney caught.

This week Friday's county class B conference game between Rogue River and Phoenix has been postponed to Wednesday, April 19. Next week Tuesday, April 11, the Phoenix high nine will play Yreka, Cal., at Phoenix starting at 2:30 p.m.
