

March Business At Airport Here Surges Upward

Operations and traffic at Medford municipal airport surged upward in March, Manager John Applegate revealed in his monthly report to the city council.

Applegate said that landings totalled 3,937 last month compared to only 2,320 in February. March traffic included 1,305 transient and 2,632 local landings. There were 182 air force, 42 navy, 3,087 civil and 634 air carrier operations.

Airlines took on 1,589 passengers last month compared to 1,151 in February. Comparative incoming passenger figures were not available. United Air lines bore 869 passengers, Southwest Airways 378 and West Coast airlines 342 last month. United brought 734 persons to Medford and West Coast 382.

In March United dispatched 2,124 pounds of mail, Southwest 987 and West Coast 645 for a total of 3,736. Mail unloaded was United 2,794, Southwest 1,027 and West Coast 715 or 4,536 altogether.

The express outgoing figure was 1,833 pounds, United 308, Southwest 1,093 and West Coast 432. Incoming traffic was 3,509, United 1,698, 805 Southwest and West Coast 1,006.

United sent out 13,800 pounds of freight and unloaded 2,970 while Southwest shipped 8,638 and brought in 21,982.

Airport revenue amounted to $915.33 of which $369.74 was from airlines.

Coloring Party Set; Egg Hunt Saturday

Central Point, Apr. 6.—Committeemen in charge of the community Easter egg hunt here reminded businessmen of the egg coloring party Friday at 7:30 p. m. at the high school.

Businessmen are sponsors of the affair set for 9:30 a. m. Saturday, April 8, at the city park on Manzanita street between Sixth and Seventh streets. All who can be asked to help with the coloring.

Youngsters up through 10 years of age are invited to take part in the hunt. There will be three divisions with those through four in one group, through seven in another and through ten in the third.

Major prizes are being shown in the window at Alexander's Hardware store. A large number of additional awards will be given. About 2,000 eggs will be hidden. The hunt will be held rain or shine with Mayor Al Setness as starter.

Eagles Will Elect New Officers Tonight

Medford Eagles will elect new officers at their meeting at 8 p. m. today. Nominees up for election are: for president, Ray Watkins; vice president, Leroy Smith; chaplain, Jack Meacham; conductor, Howard Brooks; treasurer, Cecil Moore; George Distell and Jess Wagner; trusty, Ed Powell; Vern Johnson and Charles Linderman; inside guard Jim German; outside guard, Fred Lewis.

Dancing, to the music of Denny's Stringbusters, will follow the election.

The Grange

Regular meeting of Central Point Grange will be held Friday, April 7, at 8 p. m. During the lecture hour Earl Jossy will show colored slides on weeds common to Jackson county. He will give a talk in connection with the slides and if anyone has a weed he would like to know about, Mr. Jossy will be ready to answer questions. The chaplain will be in charge of the rest of the program.

Juveniles are asked to bring two or three colored eggs for an Easter egg hunt and party honoring members who had perfect attendance in the first quarter.

Refreshments will be served by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lull, Frances Evans, Cleo Young, Adina Benson and Benton Boyce.

Butte Falls

Butte Falls, Apr. 6.—William Hartlerode took his grandfather home to Red Bluff, Cal., last Thursday. He has been here several weeks visiting his son Al and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray McComb motored to Portland last week. While there they took their son Jerry, who is still under a physician's care due to injuries received a year ago last Halloween, to a special.

Norman Palmer and Fred Facey are working on Elk Creek. Charles Morton and G. O. Pressler have moved to Cave Junction where they have found employment. Mr. and Mrs. Booth Dyer have moved into the house formerly occupied by the Presslers.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Arnold are the owners of a new Chevrolet. Corbett Smith has returned from Portland where he underwent an operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Zimmerlee and family have moved on the Obenchain road where they are building a new house.

Despite bad weather the Gun club shoot held Sunday was a huge success. An Easter egg hunt was held for the children. Refreshments were served by members of Mt. Pitt club.

Ben Edmondson has resigned his office as deputy sheriff. Corbett Smith has taken his position.

Last week first aid courses were given in the high school auditorium for employees of Medco. A police sergeant from Medford was instructor.

A utility room has recently been built on a forest service house occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Roynane.

Mrs. Rose Atonon of California is visiting her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Shaw, at the fish hatchery.

Boy scouts and their leaders cleaned the park Saturday.

Mt. Pitt club met Thursday evening, March 30 at the home of Mrs. Henry Tygart. Thirteen members attended. It was planned to have a box social and card party later this month. Mrs. Bill Roynane and Mrs. R. Capello, whose birthdays in April, opened their gifts. Next meeting will be April 13 at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Tungate.

Rogue River

Rogue River, Apr. 6.—Mr. and Mrs. Earl Price and their daughters, of Westwood Village, Cal., were visitors at the A. G. Shepard ranch on West Evans creek over the week-end.

Mrs. E. L. Field of Minneapolis, Minn., sister of Mrs. Vern Rathbun, and who recently purchased the Petrie home on Broadway, arrived Saturday. She will visit at the Rathbun home until her furniture shipment arrives. Mrs. Field, a gold star mother is interested in contacting other members of the organization.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Stuart of San Leandro, Cal., are spending two weeks at the W. E. Moore home in Grants Pass. The Stuarts are historians and are interested in contacting any one having old letters or diaries hitherto unpublished, that contain references to local happenings of the period of 1850 to 1860.

Regular meeting of Rogue River PTA will be held April 10 at 8 p. m. in the high school library. After invocation by the Rev. Edward T. Grafstrom, there will be a vocal solo by Mrs. Doris M. Grafstrom. Movies will follow. Seventh grade students will serve refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Thompson of Coos Bay were guests of Mr. Thompson's mother, Mrs. Juanita Wittick, over the week end.

Rogue River PTA will stage a talent show April 12, in the high school gymnasium. It will have a circus theme and atmosphere, and will feature professional as well as local talent under the direction of Charles McGarney. Along with other attractions the show will have band music, jugglers, dancers, acrobatics, a fat lady and side show features. It is a school benefit and refreshments will be on sale, also peanuts to feed the elephant. Bob Gall, master of ceremonies.

422 Adults Given First Aid Courses

Red Cross first aid classes are on the increase in Jackson county, especially among industries, according to Mrs. Fred Rankin, executive secretary of the local chapter.

During March, she said, 92 adults received standard certificates and 45 were awarded advanced certificates for completion of first aid courses. Sgt. William J. Colbert of the Oregon state police has given Red Cross instruction to Ashland police and firemen and to a group of Boy scouts.

Dr. C. H. Gavin and Charles Gould trained 21 guards and supervisors at the domiciliary center at Camp White, and William M. Bell, state industrial accident commission representative, completed two standard classes for Elk Lumber company and Gulf Red Cedar company employees.

Altogether, there have been 422 first aid certificates issued to Jackson county men and women since last June.

Republican Rally Held In Shady Cove Area

A republican rally was held in Shady Cove last week to allow candidates for the party's nomination to state their cases before voters in that area.

Speaking in behalf of their candidacies in the May primaries were Ben Day, candidate for the state senate; E. H. Mann, candidate for the Oregon house of representatives; W. P. Tucker, candidate for justice of the peace, Medford district; and Lew Graves and Bob Lytle who are opposing each other for the nomination as candidate for county commissioner.

Other speakers were County Commissioner L. G. Morthland, and O. L. Williams, president of the Upper Rogue Valley Chamber of Commerce.

Elks Plan Two Groups At Dancing Sessions

The dance committee of the Elks' club announced today that those attending the second in a series of square dance lessons at the club Saturday will be divided into two groups. Each group will in turn dance and watch so that dancers will have sufficient space to execute the squares.

Nearly 300 attended the first session Saturday at the club when Lee Ragsdale, athletic director of the Medford high school, instructed. Although they were handicapped because of the large crowd, Ragsdale stated that the beginners showed good advancement.

The committee urged that dancers take their colored tags with them for use again at this Saturday's session.

New Hampshire legislators are having trouble selecting an official state bird. Poultrymen want the utilitarian new Hampshire chicken, while bird lovers prefer the white, snow-loving chickadee.

RECESS IS RECESS

San Jose, Calif. (U.P.)—A superior court judge called a short recess in a damage suit. When the court was reconvened a few minutes later a juror was missing. A deputy sheriff found the man an hour later. The juror said he thought the word "recess" meant the case was over, and he went home to bed.

The city-owned Nashville electric service was the largest single distributor of Tennessee Valley Authority power in 1949 in terms of maximum kilowatt demand.

TURTLE FROZEN IN

Moosomin, Sask. (U.P.)—You couldn't blame Bob Longfellow's pet turtle if he fell out in the cold. When the boy was away on holidays the house got so cold that his pet froze solid in the ice. When Bob got back he hacked the turtle out and doused it with warm water. The artificial respiration worked perfectly.

The Tennessee hotel and restaurant division reports there are 357 hotels, 772 tourist courts and 426 tourists' homes in the state.

HOW DUST STORM LOOKS

Omaha (U.P.)—Darlow Burdick, son of an Omaha cattle rancher, decided to give beef-minded Nebraskans a change of diet. He bought two buffalo and announced he would sell bisonburgers.

The thickness of back fat on the hog carcass is a measure of the quality of hams, loins, shoulders, bellies and other pork cuts.

Now Many Wear FALSE TEETH

With More Comfort FASTEETH, a pleasant alkaline (non-acid) powder, holds false teeth more firmly. To eat and talk in more comfort, just sprinkle a little FASTEETH on your plates. No gummy, soapy, pasty taste or feeling. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug store.—adv.
