

Tornado Trackmen Picked At Grants Pass Saturday

Medford high trackmen probably will be favored to win their second dual meet in a row when they tackle Grants Pass high in a Southern Oregon conference get-together Saturday at 2 p.m. on the Cavemen's field but the local coaching staff are not so sure.

A few weeks ago the Tornado trackmen swamped Grants Pass in a "short distance" meet held in Medford 92 to 27.

However, Coaches Bob Newland, Lee Ragsdale and Fred Spiegelberg recognize that Grants Pass was minus six or eight of its better trackmen when it came here. These youths were resting after playing in the state class A basketball championship tourney.

Changes Announced
Newland announced that several changes in events will take place tomorrow with several shifts being made in Tornado boys taking part in competitions. The 440-yard relay will not be run tomorrow although it often is in a dual meet but does not count in total points.

Local boys and their events tomorrow at Grants Pass:

100—Bill Buckingham, Jack Morris, Lou Bittle; 220—Bill Pruitt, Buckingham, Bittle; 440—Larry Mathison, Bob Walker, Bill Padgham, Dale Coverstone; 880—Jim Gleason, Hal Vrooman, LaRue Smith, Steve Swedburg.

Mile—Roger Hobbs, Gilas Nardeen, Warren Lundquist, Wendell Bateman, Wilson Moehler; high hurdles—Frank Morris, Don Bostock, Vrooman; low hurdles—J. Morris, F. Morris, Hal Faulkner; javelin—Don Vincent, D. C. Mills, Jim Ward.

Shot Put Event

Shot put—Leo Parker, Lloyd Winger, J. B. Highland, Wayne Tysver, Mills; broad jump—Bill Thompson, Bostock, Dick Simonsen, Ward, Connie Holzgang; discus—Vincent, Mills, Russ Ferg, Stan Purcell, F. Morris.

High Jump—Holzgang, George Goodman, Bruce Bateman, Gary Schuler; pole vault—Warren Wendt, Wayne Chitwood, Bateman, Jerry Adams; and 880 relay—Bittle, Pruitt, J. Morris, Buckingham.

Medford is defending state A high school champion.

Belcastro and Atlas Slated for Wrestling Card Next Thursday

Mack Lillard announced last night that he has signed Pete Belcastro, the wild Weed Assassin, and the Great Atlas to captain respective teams in the armory wrestling ring next Thursday night in a tag team match.

The Atlas and Belcastro have been asked to choose their own partners and Lillard said he expected to be informed as to their choices the first of the week.

Meanwhile, reserved seats for what promises to be the team match of all team matches went on sale this morning at Brown's cafe.

Stojack Wins Bout

Frank Stojack won last night's feature match while he was stretched out unconscious on the mat following two vicious pile drivers administered by Leo Wallick. After Referee Earl Yoakley carried Stojack to the dressing room, it took the efforts of Dr. W. G. Bishop to revive him.

Stojack had taken a fall with a giant swing and a Boston crab but Wallick applied the pile driver four minutes later. Had Wallick left good enough alone he would have won for Stojack was out cold, but he sneaked around Yoakley and gave the Tacoma another pile driver for good measure and that's when Yoakley disqualified him on a foul.

Fans surged around the ring-side and it looked like the riot fuse might be touched off momentarily but the pressure of police officers cooled the situation.

Arne Skaaland, sweetheart of Medford wrestling fans, further endeared himself to their hearts by dumping the veteran Charley Carr in two falls after having lost the first one.

Skaaland introduced a new hold, a maneuver which he calls the Norwegian cross pin, to take both falls. The youthful Skaaland, already a wrestling sensation, has assured Lillard that he will be on hand for next week's card.

Eagles Play Saturday, 2

Eagle Point, Apr. 7—Eagle Point high baseball team will open its 1939 Jackson-Douglas-Josephine (J-D-J) conference season Saturday when it meets Sutherlin high at Camp White Veterans center field at 2 p.m., weather permitting.

The Eagles have had a somewhat unimpressive record to date with defeats at the hands of Medford in a Southern Oregon conference game last Friday and to the Jacksonville high nine in a non-league game this week.

However, Coach "Shy" Callaghan's squad has had comparatively little practice this spring due to rain and a muddy practice field at the school.

Sutherlin, on the other hand, defeated Yoncalla 11 to 6 in a practice game this past Monday at Sutherlin.
