St. Mark's Episcopal Church Plans Morning Services Easter on Sunday

St. Mark's Episcopal church will observe Easter with traditional services, commencing with a sunrise eucharist in the church at 6:30 a. m. with a full choir rendering by St. Mark's senior choir, under the direction of Roberta Ward Webb with Nell Beverly Taylor at the console.

In addition to Eyre's setting to the holy communion and the traditional Easter hymns, the choir will present "Christ the Lord Is Risen Today," and for the offertory anthem, "King of Kings" with Mrs. Kathryn Morris as soloist.

Communion Service
There will be no preaching at this service.

At 9 a. m. family choral communion will be held in a musical setting rendered by St. Mark's Girls' choir, directed by Mrs. Stephen Nye and with Miss Gail McDuffee at the organ.

The introit, "Christ the Lord Is Risen" will be sung, followed by the offertory anthem, "Gateway Carol." The rector will preach on "Resurrection and Life."

At 11 a. m. the senior choir will repeat the musical setting from the early service with the rector preaching on "Easter and Immortality." This service will be broadcast over station KYJC.

Floral Service Sit
Overflow congregations at this service will be accommodated in the markade with radio reception from the church.

At 4 p. m. children of the church school with their parents will attend a floral Easter service, highlighted by the traditional flowering of the cross and presentation of mite boxes. A short address will be delivered by the Rev. J. M. B. Gill.

Newcomers, visitors and those without church affiliations are welcome at all services.

First Presbyterian Easter Services, Breakfast Slated

Easter observances of the First Presbyterian church, Medford, will start with a sunrise service at 5:30 a. m. Sunday, it was announced today. Through the courtesy of Miss Claire Hanley, the service will be held at Hanley's butte, route 2, off the Jacksonville highway or off Ross lane.

Groups wishing to attend the service are requested to meet at the Presbyterian church at 5 a. m. The service has been arranged by the combined youth groups of the church who will have as guests young people of the First Christian church.

The service is open to the public and groups of young people and adults from other churches not having services of their own are welcome to attend.

Breakfast Planned
Following the service, breakfast will be served for young people of the church. Through the courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. James of Rogue River Packing corporation, breakfast will be held in the cafeteria of the Rogue River cannery, Front street.

Two morning church worship services are planned, the first at 9:30 and the second at 11 o'clock. Guest speaker will be Philip S. Hitchcock, Klamath Falls. Included in special musical selections will be "Christ Our Passover," "All Hail the Power" and "Hosanna." Soloist will be Mrs. William McAllister, Mrs. Charles Champlin and Mrs. George Wendt.

For their concluding services the high school youth group will hold a fireside sing at the church parlor at 6:30 p. m.

Plan Easter Program For Phoenix Church

Phoenix, Apr. 7—An Easter program will be presented by the Phoenix Presbyterian Sunday school Sunday, with each department taking part. Primary and junior students will be particularly featured.

The program will be held in the recreation room of the Sunday school and all parents of the children are invited to attend.

The committee in charge of the program is Mrs. A. V. Thompson, Mrs. R. D. Thompson and Miss Beverly Wilson. It is stated that the program will bring the Easter story in a vivid manner.

Following the Sunday school program the usual morning service will be held with the Easter message to be given by the Rev. E. J. Clark. There will be special Easter music by the choir and reception of new members will be held.

Anyone in the community not affiliated with some other church is invited to attend.

The traditional sunrise service is planned by all three Phoenix churches. Music for this is being furnished by pupils of Mrs. Eve Prentice in Medford, Miss Joan Anderson will sing "Think on Me" and Miss Carol Davis will give an accordion solo, "Beneath the Cross of Jesus."

C. P. Church Slates Communion Services

Central Point, Apr. 7 — An early morning communion service will be held at 6:30 Easter at Community Bible church, at Central Point. The special program will include a short message by Rev. Floyd Pollock. The public is invited.

The Sunday school will present its annual Eastern program at 9:45 a. m. and the Easter message will be preached at 11 a. m. by Pastor Rolf Hansen. Another communion service will take place at the close of the morning worship for the benefit of those unable to attend at the early hour.

Youth services at 6:45 p. m. and the evangelistic service at 7:45 will conclude the Easter activities.

A new sound system providing listening for mothers in the church nursery and also chimes in the church steeple have been installed recently by the young adult class of the Sunday school and will be in use Sunday.

Adventists Schedule Services on Sunday

"The Unpardonable Sin" will be the subject of the sermon Sunday evening at 7:45 at the Adventist church, according to Pastor O. E. Schnepfer.

Many have wondered what this sin is which God cannot forgive, he said. Pastor Schnepfer said he will tell just what it is and why God cannot forgive one who has committed this sin.

The subject this evening is "The Mark of the Beast." The Bible predicts a time coming when no man can buy or sell save who has this "Mark." Some have thought it to be the sign of the "Hammer and Sickle" while others think it to be some labor union label.

All are invited.

The Chapel trio will sing and Mrs. Vern Wilson will give the devotional message. Ray Johnson will preside.

The public is invited. If it rains, the service will be held in the church.
