Baby Girl Abandoned By Portland Woman

Portland, Ore., Apr. 8.—(U.P.)—A brown-eyed, 10-month-old baby girl was being cared for at the Albertina Kerr nursery while police sought her mother, who apparently abandoned her five days ago.

Miss Elizabeth Herse, a professional baby sitter, told police a grey-haired, well-dressed woman about 35 or 40 years old left the child at her apartment last Tuesday. The woman, who arrived and departed by taxi, had been quarreling with her husband and wanted to leave the infant with the baby sitter for several hours.

The woman gave Miss Herse two dollars and failed to leave any feeding instructions.

When the woman failed to return for the child by Wednesday, Miss Herse called police. Police matrons took the child to the

OH NO, YOU DON'T

Medford, Ore., Apr. 9.—You don't have to wait for the furniture stores to cut prices in order to buy furniture at prices you can afford.

The Rogue Valley now has a furniture manufacturing plant whose policy is to manufacture Upholstered Furniture and sell direct to the public at wholesale prices.

Come in and let us prove to you the great savings now being made.

YOUTH CHOKES SWEETHEART, TRIES SUICIDE—Arthur E. Prindle (left), 19-year-old son of an Oakland, Calif., policeman, strangled his sweetheart, Sally Ann Humphrey (right), 18, with his belt and then slashed his wrists in an attempt to kill himself. The body of the girl and the unconscious youth were found in an auto near a dumping area. The youth's father said they had been going together for nearly a year and planned to be married.

Radio Patter by Pat

Opening with Easter services from Washington, D. C., cathedral at 7:30 a.m., the ABC network and KYJC's broadcast of the Easter Sunday will include a dramatization of "The Resurrection," "The Greatest Story Ever Told," 2:30 p.m., colorful Easter parade notes from all parts of the nation—"Easter Parade Coast to Coast"—1:15 p.m., as well as a varied program of sacred music.

In keeping with the spirit of Easter, Commander A. W. Scott will forsake the highways of the United States to take his listeners on a word pilgrimage to Jerusalem, the land of the first Easter, for the "Romance of the Highways" broadcast over Station KYJC.

A medley of songs from the new movie, "Wabash Avenue," will be spotlighted on the sparkling half-hour "Music With the Girls," program today at 3:30 p.m. over KYJC.

As a special Easter guest, Mario Lanza, famous Metropolitan Opera and MGM singing star, will sing "Ave Maria" as the highlight of the Louella O. Parsons program today at 6:15 p.m. on your local ABC station KYJC.

A chance to ask his boss a few pertinent questions will be available to Jackie Robinson, Brooklyn Dodger second baseman, when he interviews Dodger manager Burt Shotton on the ABC broadcast of "The Jackie Robinson Show" today at 9:45 p.m. over Station KYJC.

A couple of clownbusters, Bing Crosby and Bob Hope, assisted by Dorothy Lamour and Ralph Kiner, noted slugger of the Pittsburgh Pirates, will headline a special half-hour program, titled "Welcome Back, Baseball," to be aired over station KYJC and ABC Monday, April 17, at 5:30 p.m., eve of the opening of the baseball season.

Eve Prentice and her accordion band is now being aired each Monday at 6:15 p.m. on Radio Station KYJC under sponsorship of Continental Pacific Trailways.
