

Miss Plumley Wed To Clyde Chriss In Church Service

Among recent weddings was that of Miss Phyllis Jean Plumley to Clyde Chriss, the ceremony having taken place March 24 in Zion Lutheran church. Dr. O. W. Ebricht officiated at the rites, read at 8:30 o'clock in the evening. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Plumley, 906 North Central avenue, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Radford Chriss, 15 Mace road.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a mauve colored suit with navy blue accessories for the ceremony. Her cascade bouquet was of violets and bouvardia, with a corsage of the same flowers.

Mrs. Douglas Plumley, sister-in-law of the bride, was her attendant. She wore a suit of aquamarine color with brown accessories and her flowers were yellow rosebuds.

Douglas Plumley, brother of the bride, was best man for the bridegroom and ushers were Lee Graham and Homer Sullivan.

Daffodils and forsythia were used for the floral setting for the wedding and for the reception which followed in the church parlor. Mrs. Overt Hanson and Mrs. Harry Marsh took charge of the reception, and Miss Betty Lemmon cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Lee Graham passed the guest book.

Mrs. Oscar Bjorlie was soloist for the wedding, with Miss Lorraine Veidt as accompanist. Guests numbered about 55 persons.

The newlyweds traveled to Salt Lake City and will be at home at 509 Park street after April 20. The bride is a graduate of Medford senior high school. The bridegroom served 33 months in the navy, having been assigned to the USS California.

Pythian Sisters District Meeting To Be Held Here

Medford Pythian Sisters will be hostesses to delegates of the lodge for this district from Bandon, Roseburg and Grants Pass when the annual district convention of the group is held here April 15.

Mrs. Margaret S. Myers of St. Helens, grand chief of Oregon Pythian Sisters, will make an official visit. Members of the order from Klamath Falls and Yreka will make visitations.

Registration will begin at 1 p. m. and the session will open at 1:30 p. m. A banquet will be served at the Jackson hotel at 6 p. m. Entertainment for this will be furnished by students of Helene Bloomstein's dance studio of Central Point.

Plan First Meeting Of Ladies' Troop In New Club Room

Members of the Ladies' Mounted Troop, auxiliary to the Jackson County Mounted Sheriff's Posse, will meet in the troop's new club room at the Posse grounds on Sage road, Tuesday, April 11 at 8 p. m. This will be the first meeting of the organization in the new quarters.

Committees which have been appointed will be announced and business of the evening will concern club room furnishings and the coming drill season.

Newly elected officers will be: Mrs. Fred Slate, captain; Mrs. O. D. Martin, first lieutenant, and Mrs. W. M. Lemmon, second lieutenant. The new officers will also serve refreshments.

Family To Join Corporal In South

Mrs. Gilbert Peterson and son, Kenneth, left for the Panama Canal zone this week where they will join Corporal Peterson.

Mrs. Peterson is the former Nedra Schulz and is the daughter of Mrs. Ruby Nelson of Beagle, Ore., and Adolph Schulz of Medford. She has been employed here by a local hospital as a surgical nurse.

Corporal Peterson is attached to the U. S. army in the Canal zone.

Mrs. Peterson's father, Adolph Schulz, accompanied the travelers to San Francisco, where he spent several days before returning here.

Juvenile Officer To Speak For Guild

John Richards, Jackson county juvenile officer, will be speaker for the meeting of St. Mark's Evening guild set for Monday, April 10, at 8 p. m., in the parish house.

His topic will be "Plans for Juvenile Detention for Jackson County."

Hostesses will be Mrs. W. A. Scoville and Mrs. T. C. Barker.

Altar Society Postpones Meeting

A meeting of St. Anne's Altar society scheduled for Tuesday, April 11, has been postponed to Tuesday, April 18.

FILM FINISHING CAMERA

"Operating the Oldest Photo Finishing Plant in Medford."

Swem's 217 E. Main Medford "A Kodak Dealer"

OUR CAREFUL FINISHING GIVES YOU Sparkling Prints

Swem's 217 E. Main Medford "A Kodak Dealer"

SOCIETY

Matlack-McMannis Rites Held at Christian Church

Medford's First Christian church was the scene Saturday, April 1, of the wedding of Miss Tresa McMannis, daughter of Mrs. Margaret McMannis, 221 1/2 North Holly street, to Ralph J. Matlack. The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Luella J. Matlack, East McAndrews road.

The couple repeated the marriage vows before the Rev. Holly Roy Jarvis in a floral setting of white stock and palms. More than 200 guests were present for the service, read at eight o'clock in the evening.

Preceding the service, Richard D. Werner, violinist, and Bruno Pellegrini, organist, played and soloist for the wedding was Mrs. Werner.

The bride's wedding dress of non tulle was designed with fitted bodice and very full skirt ending in a train. Four large rosettes of the tulle, centered with clusters of seed pearls, were the only trimming of the gown. The bride's short veil fell from a cap of tulle and pearls and she carried a white satin and tulle muff to which was pinned a white orchid.

Miss Duane Carole Maddox was the bride's only attendant. Her frock of white tulle was fashioned with a full skirt studded with gold sequins and she carried a nosegay of stephanotis.

Robert H. Rucker gave the bride in marriage and Robert Kyle was best man for the bridegroom. Earl Salmars, Frank Rush and William Wright, all of Medford, and Jack Matlack, brother of the bridegroom from Portland, seated the guests.

The reception which followed was in the church parlor, which had been decorated with bowls of white sweet peas, carnations and snapdragons. Mrs. Richard D. Werner poured, and Mrs. A. C. Pierce and Mrs. Tom Popham cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Raymond Ayers took charge of the guest book.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. McMannis wore a gown of grey crepe with yoke of lace and beads and a white velvet hat. Her flowers were white carnations. The bridegroom's mother was attired in an aquamarine gown worn with white feathered hat and long white gloves and her flowers were also white carnations.

Mr. Matlack and his bride are traveling to southern California and Mexico for their wedding trip and upon returning will live on the Jacksonville highway. Mrs. Matlack wore for traveling a mist green suit with white hat and white orchid corsage and her accessories were of black suede.

The bride, a soprano, has been active in the city's musical circles in recent years. She has sung with the chorus of the Philharmonic Society of Southern Oregon since its organization, has been a member of the choir of the First Christian church and in addition has filled many solo engagements.

Mr. Matlack, in business here, served in the army three years during World War II, with duty overseas, and is now a lieutenant in the national guard reserves.

A special guest at the wedding was the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Margaret Bounds of Medford, and coming from a distance for the service were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Matlack, brother and sister-in-law of the bridegroom from Portland. Mrs. L. B. Herder and Miss Frances Herder, also Portland; Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Childers, uncle and aunt of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Hayes, cousins of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Bounds, uncle and aunt of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bounds, cousins, all of Roseburg; Mrs. Leonard Wright, sister of the bridegroom from Mantona, Cal., and Ralph and Donita Wright.

VFW Auxiliary To Meet Wednesday Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary will hold its regular sewing circle Wednesday, April 12 at 42 North Front street. The women will sew on bazaar gifts from 1 to 4 p. m.

County Teachers Annual Luncheon Set For Saturday

The annual spring luncheon for teachers of Jackson county has been set for Saturday, April 15, at the Rogue Valley Country club at 12:30 p. m. The luncheon is sponsored by the Jackson county division of the Oregon Education association and is open to all teachers.

Speaker for the event will be Richard Barrs, Portland, editor of the Oregon Journal, magazine for Oregon teachers. Music will be provided by Bernard Windt, cellist, with Mrs. Windt as accompanist.

Also on the program will be Elton Fishback, Klamath Falls, representative from Oregon for the National Education association convention. Mrs. Mabel Winston, registrar of Southern Oregon college, who was installed vice-president of OEA at the meeting last week, will be a guest.

Mrs. Marguerite Black heads the committee on arrangements with Mrs. Maude Robinson and Mrs. Maxine Smith assisting, and the Classroom Teachers' association will take charge of decorations for the luncheon.

Tickets will be on sale at all school buildings of the county, the committee announces.

Former Residents Here As Guests of Friends; Honored With Parties

Visitors in the city last week were Mr. and Mrs. David Yale and children, Barry, Ted and Anne, of Santa Monica, Cal. They were guests in the Frank Farrell home. The Yales lived in Medford for several years and were later in Quito, Ecuador, and other South American cities before returning to this country to live.

Wednesday noon Mrs. Yale was honored at a luncheon at Mon Desir for which Mrs. Floyd Hart was hostess. Mrs. Hart is an invited member of the Contemporary Book club, to which Mrs. Yale belonged when she lived here. Later the group went to Mrs. Hart's home for the club's usual meeting.

That evening Mrs. Robert Hart was hostess for a cocktail party in honor of the Yales, entertaining at her home, 22 Glenn Oak court. The guests later had a no-host dinner at the Rogue Valley Country club.

The visitors arrived Monday and left Thursday for their home in California.

Week Brings News Of Engagements; Wedding Day Set

The past week brought news of two engagements. Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Cook, 143 Kenwood avenue, Medford, announce the engagement of their daughter, Ruth Evelyn, to Clarence E. Haase, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Haase of Portland.

Miss Cook and Mr. Haase are both seniors at the University of Oregon. No date has been set for the wedding.

Mrs. Eileen Barnwell, 331 South Ivy street, announces the engagement of her daughter, Beverly Elaine, to Robert Wayne Beadnell of Westwood, Cal.

The wedding is set for June 10.

Widmers Here

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Widmer left Saturday for their home in Portland after spending a few days here with their daughter, Mrs. Warren Olson, 1430 Euclid avenue, and their daughter-in-law, Mrs. William H. Fluhrer, Lyman avenue.

The Widmers were en route home after a vacation in Honolulu.

Maxine Bursing And Gerald White Wedded Last Month

Announced last week was the wedding of Miss Maxine Bursing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bursing, 425 Ross lane, to Gerald White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ollie White of Clearwater, Cal. The wedding took place March 10 at the Lutheran church in Lynwood, Cal., with the Rev. Burkhardt officiating.

Orville Riggert, uncle of the bride, gave her in marriage. The bride's wedding dress was a street length frock of aquamarine blue with lace yoke. Her corsage was a white orchid, Miss Jeanette Riggert, maid-of-honor, wore a forest green taffeta dress with orchid corsage.

Jimmy Queen of Paramount, Cal., was best man for the bridegroom. A reception for 55 relatives and friends followed in the social hall of the church. Mrs. Tom Appleby cut the wedding cake and Miss Carole Riggert served punch.

Bouquets of white and pink stock and white carnations decorated the church and social hall. The bride's mother and her brother, Norman, were in California for the wedding but her father was unable to attend. The bride was a member of the 1949 graduating class of Medford senior high school and Mr. White attended school in Orange, Cal. The newlyweds are living at 1573 1/2 California avenue in Paramount, Cal.

In Redding

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Sanderson, GeBauer apartments, are in Redding to spend the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Patterson.

NELLY DON WEEK

April 10-15

At Adrienne's NELLY DON

so new..so now the dress-and-jacket

See Nelly Don Fashion Show Every Afternoon 4 to 5:30 p.m.

The soft-touch sheer washable rayon print dress in Nelly Don's exclusive travel-ticket pattern. Easy, collarless jacket makes a nice summer "extra" to wear with other things. It's made of crease-resistant washable rayon shantung. Navy with navy jacket, green with green, black with black. 14 to 42 and 14 1/2 to 22 1/2, $19.98

Adrienne's

214 E. Main Phone 2-7169

LOSE 10 Lbs. In TEN DAYS

Play With Your Children Send Sneakboys to College

Two Women Per Husband Let's Psycho-Analyze Russia

New View of Schools Improve Your Speech Republic vs. Democracy

Beware of Gamblers

Avoid Sissy Names Stockholders in U.S.A. Learn to Be Enthusiastic Enter Prize Contests

How To Stay Young

Toothbrushes Aid Cupid Vaccinate Against Insanity Read the Bible

How To Handle Husbands

All the above subjects, and many more interesting and timely subjects will be given by Dr. George W. Crane, M.D. and Member of the American Medical Association and Professor of Psychology at Northwestern University and Member of the Psychological Association of America.

Dr. Crane will come to your home and lecture to you in private, Sundays at 1:00 P.M. and each week day at 11:15 A.M. except Saturday, if you will TUNE IN ON K.M.E.D. Wherever Dr. Crane has been presented, he becomes a powerful influence for good to that community.

For the above reasons, Dr. Crane is being sponsored in Southern Oregon and Northern California over K.M.E.D. at 1:00 P.M. Sundays and Monday through Friday at 11:15 A.M. by...

Adrienne's

the friendly store... where you may find Good, Distinctive, Individual Apparel for Women and Where You Pay the Same and Dress Better.