Valley Artists Plan To Enter Exhibitions; Yakima Showing Closes

Additional valley artists have announced plans for exhibiting in Portland shows this month.

Miss Stacey Netherland of Medford has been invited to exhibit at the Portland Museum of Fine Arts in a show scheduled April 19 to 26. Miss Netherland, formerly of New England, will send two watercolors, one a picture of a small shack on the Old Stage road and the other a painting of a large square-rigger ship which she has entitled "The Old Master."

Three Gold Hill artists will have paintings in the 24th annual spring exhibition of the Oregon Society of Artists set for April 17 through 22 at the Meier and Frank company auditorium in Portland. They are Mrs. C. A. C. (Vola) Tolman, Miss Phyllis Boye and Fritz Wertz.

Mrs. Tolman will send two and Miss Boye one picture to this show. Mrs. Tolman, who plans to be in Portland at the time of the exhibition, was recently made a senior artist member of the Society of Western Artists, San Francisco, and has been invited to exhibit at the society's annual show at the DeYoung Memorial museum in San Francisco this fall.

Mr. Wertz is also sending two pictures to the Oregon society's show. One is "The Old Lyden House in Jacksonville" and the other is entitled "Self Portrait" with apologies to the old West. Mr. Wertz has called attention to the fact that Governor Douglas McKay of Oregon will officially open this year's show.

A 64-picture showing of Mr. Wertz' watercolors has just closed in Yakima, Wash., the exhibit having been in the Larson museum. Guy W. Brace, curator of the museum, wrote the Gold Hill artist that the watercolors, many of which are Gold Hill's "old-timers" and scenes in Jackson county, drew large numbers of visitors to the museum.

Women's League To Open Campaign For Registration

Starting an intensive campaign to register Medford voters, the Medford League of Women Voters will open a registration booth Tuesday. The booth will be placed in Penney's store at Central and Sixth streets, and it will be open from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. each day.

All unregistered residents of Medford are urged by the league to take advantage of this opportunity which will be available from April 11 through April 18.

In addition, a booth will be maintained in each of the four elementary schools from 7 to 9 p. m. April 17 and 18. This is for the convenience of those who work and are unable to register during the day when the courthouse and Penney's store are open.

Another feature of this campaign will be letters of greeting which are being sent to all new citizens, and to those who have just attained the voting age of 21 years.

Medford high school art students have made posters which will be used for down town advertising in store windows. Medford and Ashland radio stations are calling attention to the campaign, and a tag day will be held, with citizens to be given a bright red tag which says "I am registered and voting—are you?" Notes are also to be sent to the parents through children in the schools.

With this combined effort, it is hoped that there will be no one of voting age in Medford who will neglect this important duty of every citizen. It is pointed out that only citizens of Medford may be registered by the league.

VICTOR Says:

Well, it's here again, that beautiful time of year, Easter. I would like to forget business this week and recall to you a few words from one of America's great minds, Harry Emerson Fosdick. It has always appealed to me as much more than just a saying, rather it is something that the more you read it the closer you get to its real meaning. And now to quote, "Real prayer always does one of two things: It either frees us from the trouble we fear or else it gives us the strength and courage to meet the trouble when it comes."
