

Applegate Couple Married Monday In Provolt Church

Applegate—The wedding of Miss Viola Lucile Ayers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hunter of Applegate, to Dean William Lewis was an event of Monday, April 3, the Rev. Ward Lamkin of Murphy reading the service at 7:30 o'clock in the evening at the Provolt Community church. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis, also Applegate.

The wedding music was provided by Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brunken at the piano and soloists, and Miss Grace Stephens, who sang.

Given in marriage by Mr. Hunter, the bride wore a gown of traditional white satin and carried a Bible with a white orchid and streamers of lily-of-the-valley.

Mrs. Merle Eldridge, matron-of-honor, wore a yellow gown and carried pink carnations centered with violets and rosebuds.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hunter wore a rose colored dress with corsage of lavender carnations and the bridegroom's mother wore a green dress with lavender carnation corsage.

Mr. Eldridge was best man for Mr. Lewis and ushers were Raymond Ayres, the bride's brother, and Billie Joe Hunter, her stepbrother.

For the reception which followed in the recreation room of the church Mrs. Doris Ayres, Mrs. Millie Sloan and Miss Claudette Lettcken assisted.

Arrangements of snapdragons, iris, carnations and white spirea combined with ferns decorated the church and the recreation room, and candles lighted the scene. More than 60 guests were present.

Mr. Lewis and his bride will live in Myrtle Creek, Ore., following a wedding trip. The bride has been attending high school in Grants Pass and will enroll at Myrtle Creek for the remainder of her senior year. The bridegroom attended school in Prospect.

Attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Abercrombie, grandparents of the bride from Whittier, Cal.; Miss Lena Peterson, a cousin from Ocean-side, Cal.; and Mrs. Ralph Spohnhauer from Whittier, Cal.

Those elected are Mrs. Claud Cooper, Mrs. O. S. Walden, Mrs. Lewis Thompson and Mrs. A. H. Hansen.

Alternates are Mrs. L. O. Howard, Mrs. Merle Ivie, Mrs. Carrie Milnes and Mrs. Joe Cave. Mrs. H. D. Turner was recommended for degree of chivalry. Mrs. Cooper was recommended for deputy president of the local lodge.

Mrs. Harry Bryant, noble grand, appointed a committee for the April 17 social meeting. They are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jordan, Mrs. Annie Gorbey, Mrs. Helen Keese, Mrs. Edith Whillock, Mrs. Margaret Davis, Mrs. Elsie Walker, Mrs. M. Yocovich and Mrs. Mable Grigsby.

Refreshments were served following the business meeting by Mrs. Cave and Mrs. Fred Daugherty.

Students Here
In Medford for the week-end are Miss Calista Farrell, University of Oregon student, and a Kappa Kappa Gamma sister, Miss Estelle Greer of Portland. The two are with Miss Farrell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Farrell, 1510 East Main street.

Reese Creek Extension Holds Annual Election; County Agent Speaker

Reese Creek—Election of officers was held at the Reese Creek Extension meeting, Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Alfred Peile on Crater Lake highway.

New officers are Mrs. Albert E. Anderson, chairman; Mrs. Von Williams, vice-chairman; Mrs. James Minor, secretary-treasurer. They will be installed in June at a special tea the date for which will be set at the May meeting.

Roll call was answered with mottoes. Three visitors present were Mrs. Richard Bartus, chairman of Upper Rogue unit, Mrs. Elmer Straight, and Mrs. James Roderick.

Homemakers' Festival will be held Wednesday, May 3, in the Central Point Grange hall, and exhibits will be arranged in the American Legion hall across the street. Deadline for tickets is April 29.

The Reese Creek unit chose "Herb Seasoning" for its display for the festival, and will also plan a skit.

Members are asked to turn in a snapshot for the scrapbook to Mrs. Callihan if they have not already done so.

A meeting on the subject of Cancer has been set for April 20 at 1 p. m. at the home of Mrs. James Johnson, route one, box 252, Crater Lake highway. Each member is asked to bring cookies and a cup.

Miss Eula Wintermote, county extension agent, spoke for Tuesday's meeting, conducting a lesson on "Improved Home Lighting." Members learned how to use a light meter, were told about the type of light which causes eye strain and why copper window screens are best.

Convenient placing of light switches was shown to be important. Miss Wintermote also spoke of the difference between direct and indirect and diffused lighting.

Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Ben Gardener continued the lesson on program planning.

Pictures for the scrapbook were taken and the meeting closed with songs.

Scottish Rite Women Announce Postponement

Due to the York Rite convention being held in Medford this week, the regular meeting of Scottish Rite Women's club, scheduled for April 10, has been postponed until April 17. At this time the club will hold a luncheon in the Central Point Presbyterian church at 1 p. m.

Installation of new officers will be held at that time. Members are to make reservations by calling Central Point 794, or 2-8586.

Pioneer Members Of Adarel Chapter Honored Thursday

Jacksonville—Pioneer members of Adarel chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, were honored at a meeting of the lodge Thursday in the Jacksonville Masonic hall.

A covered dish dinner preceded the meeting.

Honored were Miss Molly Britt, who became a member of the chapter in 1898 and held office for more than 50 years; Mrs. Minnie Lance, who was initiated in 1900; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Langley; Mrs. Nell Frick, who held office for 23 years and became a member in 1913; Mrs. Ida Wilson, Mrs. V. T. Wilson and Mrs. Anna Cator, past matrons.

Mrs. Langley served as treasurer of the chapter for 25 years.

Courtesy girls presented the honored members corsages and boutonnières while Mrs. D. M. Bouckenstaff furnished piano music.

Honored with the pioneers was Mrs. Mary J. MacKinnon of Sacramento, who came to Jacksonville especially to attend the pioneer meeting.

A poem, "A Tribute to Pioneers," written by Mrs. Ira Luman was read by Mrs. Ina Huson, worthy matron.

Mrs. Lance was presented a 50-year membership pin and flowers in an addendum which was followed by a vocal solo, "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms," sung by Menno Bachmann.

While Mr. Bachmann sang, "When You and I Were Young Maggie," Mr. and Mrs. Joe Warren walked into the room dressed in the fashions of the "gay nineties." They then looked through an old red plush album which was purchased in 1888.

The program concluded with Mr. Bachmann singing a number of old songs accompanied by Mrs. Blickenstaff.

Also honored at the meeting were Grant Todd of the budget committee of the grand chapter, and Mrs. Fred Purdin, worthy matron of Reames chapter, Medford.

The chapter room was decorated with spring flowers and tables were centered with red and white fringed antique napkins on which miniature covered wagons, horses and figures of pioneers were placed.

Place cards were miniature sunbonnet ladies of pastel colors.
